

Guidance for writing up your placement report

We would like you to produce a report and a poster at the end of your placement.

It's a good idea to talk your supervisor early on in your placement, as they may be able to answer any questions you have and provide you with useful information and background reading.

Placement Report

How you present your report is up to you; you can use one of the following formats:

- written report
- PowerPoint presentation
- written diary
- video diary
- blog

As a guide, written reports should be about 3 – 5 pages long and PowerPoint presentations about 5 – 10 slides.

Report

Introduce your placement by talking about the company hosting your placement, e.g. their name, what they do and their location. You can also mention their other operations in the UK or abroad.

Think about:

- What you did during your placement.
- Which department(s) you worked in and how it/they related to the organisation as a whole.
- What role(s) you performed and why.

Don't forget to include information about experiments, techniques and skills learnt. If you plan to do any experimental work, don't forget to include details of the method used, what the results showed and any conclusions you could draw. If you have them, include diagrams, graphs, results tables and photos (with permission).
