Visual Rhetorical Analysis

Fig. 1: “Why Is It So Hard to See Black and Blue” Source: The Salvation Army International

On March 6 of 2015, The Salvation Army released a social media campaign with the intent to reduce and raise awareness of domestic violence. The organization posted this image created by Ireland/Davenport to the social media website Twitter. The image is a photograph of a woman in front of a gray background with bruises covering her face and body. As well as the bruises, she is wearing a white and gold dress from an internet meme that was also well-known at this time. According to this image, the key elements to composing an effective argument are the use of popular trends and pathos.

This image displays an internet meme that gained traction in February of 2015. The seemingly battered model is wearing “The Dress”, which had the world debating over whether the optical illusion was black and blue or white and gold. The advertisement directly references

Securing a Place for Reading in Composition Ellen C. Carillo, 2015-01-15 Securing a Place for Reading in Composition addresses the dissonance between the need to prepare students to read not just write complex texts and the lack of recent scholarship on reading writing connections Author Ellen C Carillo argues that including attention to reading practices is crucial for developing more comprehensive literacy pedagogies Students who can read actively and reflectively will be able to work successfully with the range of complex texts they will encounter throughout their post secondary academic careers and beyond Considering the role of reading within composition from both historical and contemporary perspectives Carillo makes recommendations for the productive integration of reading instruction into first year writing courses She details a mindful reading framework wherein instructors help students cultivate a repertoire of approaches upon which they consistently reflect as they apply them to various texts This metacognitive frame allows students to become knowledgeable and deliberate about how they read and gives them the opportunity to develop the skills useful for moving among reading approaches in mindful ways thus preparing them to actively and productively read in courses and contexts outside first year composition Securing a Place for Reading in Composition also explores how the field of composition might begin to effectively address reading including conducting research on reading revising outcome statements and revisiting the core courses in graduate programs It will be of great interest to writing program administrators and other compositionists and their graduate students

Theory, Methodology and Practice Elke van Steendam,Marion Tillema,Gert Rijlaarsdam,Huib van den Bergh,2012-11-20

This volume provides a state of the art overview of theory methodology and practices in the assessment of writing The focus throughout the book is on the construct of writing and its assessment what constitutes writing ability and how can it be defined in various contexts This question cannot be answered without looking into the methodological question of how to validate and measure the construct of writing ability Throughout the book therefore discussions integrate theoretical and methodological issues A number of chapters discusses whether varying definitions and varying operationalizations of writing ability are needed in various contexts such as formative assessments versus summative assessments large scale assessments versus individual assessments different tasks different genres and different languages but also different age groups A range of rating methods is investigated and discussed in this book The ongoing debate on holistic versus analytic ratings and the different underlying conceptions of writing proficiency is a pertinent matter on which a number of chapters in this volume shed new light The matter is discussed and analyzed from various angles such as generalizability of judgements and usability in formative contexts Another fundamental debate concerns computer scoring of written products A nuanced discussion of its validity is presented in this volume

Eloquent Design Lisa A. Baird, 2015-09-18 Humans first attempts to record their thoughts resulted in images painted in the decorated caves throughout Europe known as Upper Paleolithic Art As humans developed written alphabets to record their thoughts in words the images they painted and the words they wrote competed for attention As the Sister Arts tradition attests words and pictures have developed along distinct though related lines With the rise of New Media however the innovative inter animation of words and pictures in the screen space of the computer deserves and requires artists and designers and rhetoricians to take a fresh look at the complexities of human communication particularly the way in which words and pictures share commonalities The range of image texts from cave to computer from palimpsests to pixels demands critical attention from modern designers who create innovative image texts for New Media Eloquent Design Essays on the Rhetorics of Vision explores ancient image making as a basis for understanding the modern uses of image texts in New Media Eloquent Design also considers the current state of imaginative design from the Sister Arts tradition to Gestalt theories of vision to social semiotics of image texts Moreover Eloquent Design proposes a generative method for creating image texts a technique called Rhetorical Vision Applications of the generative mode of Rhetorical Vision give rise to the innovative designs of palimpsests and experimental modes of writing such as creative nonfiction Essays in Eloquent Design outline a method for teaching Rhetorical Vision as the inter animation of words and pictures

The Visual Imperative Lindy Ryan, 2016-03-14 Data is powerful It separates leaders from laggards and it drives business disruption transformation and reinvention Today s most progressive companies are using the power of data to propel their industries into new areas of innovation specialization and optimization The horsepower of new tools and technologies have provided more opportunities than ever to harness integrate and interact with massive amounts of disparate data for business insights and value something that will only continue in the era of the Internet of Things And as a new breed of tech savvy and digitally native knowledge workers rise to the ranks of data scientist and visual analyst the needs and demands of the people working with data are changing too The world of data is changing fast And it s becoming more visual Visual insights are becoming increasingly dominant in information management and with the reinvigorated role of data visualization this imperative is a driving force to creating a visual culture of data discovery The traditional standards of data visualizations are making way for richer more robust and more advanced visualizations and new ways of seeing and interacting with data However while data visualization is a critical tool to exploring and understanding bigger and more diverse and dynamic data by understanding and embracing our human hardwiring for visual communication and storytelling and properly incorporating key design principles and evolving best practices we take the next step forward to transform data visualizations from tools into unique visual information assets Discusses several years of in depth industry research and presents vendor tools approaches and methodologies in discovery visualization and visual analytics Provides practicable and use case based experience from advisory work with Fortune 100 and 500 companies across multiple verticals Presents the next generation of visual discovery data storytelling and the Five Steps to Data Storytelling with Visualization Explains the Convergence of Visual Analytics and Visual discovery including how to use tools such as R in statistical and analytic modeling Covers emerging technologies such as streaming visualization in the IOT Internet of Things and streaming animation

First-Year Composition Deborah Coxwell-Teague, Ronald F. Lunsford, 2014-05-01 First Year Composition From Theory to Practice s combination of theory and practice provides readers an opportunity to hear twelve of the leading theorists in composition studies answer in their own voices the key question of what it is they hope to accomplish in a first year composition course In addition these chapters and the accompanying syllabi provide rich insights into the classroom practices of these theorists The Multimediated Rhetoric of the Internet Carolyn Handa, 2013-12-04 This project is a critical rhetorical study of the digital text we call the Internet in particular the style and figurative surface of its many pages as well as the conceptual design patterns structuring the content of those same pages Handa argues that as our lives become increasingly digital we must consider rhetoric applicable to more than just printed text or to images Digital analysis demands our acknowledgement of digital fusion a true merging of analytic skills in many media and dimensions CDs DVDs and an Internet increasingly capable of streaming audio and video prove that literacy today means more than it used to namely the ability to understand information however presented Handa considers pedagogy professional writing hypertext theory rhetorical studies and composition studies moving analysis beyond merely using the web towards thinking rhetorically about its construction and its impact on culture This book shows how analyzing the web rhetorically helps us to understand the inescapable fact that culture is reflected through all media fused within the parameters of digital technology
