First Time Up Brock Dethier, 2008-09-30 First time up an insider's friendly question from 1960s counter culture perfectly captures the spirit of this book A short supportive practical guide for the first time college composition instructor the book is upbeat wise but friendly casual but knowledgeable like the voice that may have introduced you to certain other firsts With an experiential focus rather than a theoretical one First Time Up will be a strong addition to the newcomer's professional library and a great candidate for the TA practicum reading list Dethier author of The Composition Instructor's Survival Guide and From Dylan to Donne directly addresses the common headaches nightmares and epiphanies of composition teaching especially the ones that face the new teacher And since legions of new college composition teachers are either graduate instructors TAs or adjuncts without a formal background in composition studies he assumes these folks as his primary audience Dethier's voice is casual but it conveys concern humor experience and reassurance to the first timer He addresses all major areas that graduate instructors or new adjuncts in a writing program are sure to face from career anxiety to thoughts on grading and keeping good classroom records Dethier's own eclecticism is well represented here but he reviews with considerable deftness the value of contemporary scholarship to first time writing instructors many of whom will be impatient with high theory Throughout the work he affirms a humane confident approach to teaching along with a true affection for college students and for teachers just learning to deal with them
