

My family

My family has three people: my father, my mother and me. I am the only daughter in my family. I haven't any brothers. My father is a lecturer in a college. He is 48 years old. He has been teaching English for over 20 years. He is an experienced teacher. He has already written 40 books. My mother works at the same school with my father. She is 43 years old. She is a cheerful and pretty person. As for me, I am a pupil at a high school in the province now. I am a student. My dream is to be an English teacher like my parents. I hope that my dream will come true in a near future.

Writing Essay About My Family:

Landmark Essays on Writing Process Sondra Perl, 1994 First Published in 1995 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company My Family and I Adam Gussow, 2025-02-25 An inspiring memoir about the author's lifelong quest for racial reconciliation the love that sustains his interracial family in contemporary Mississippi and the Yes we can hope for American renewal that fades after the deaths of Trayvon Martin Michael Brown and the despair driven rise of Black Lives Matter What has happened to the dream of beloved community embraced by Martin Luther King Jr and the civil rights movement of the early 1960s the vision of a just humane and colorblind America a nation of black and white together animated by the spirit of mutual respect and strengthened by the bonds of brotherly love As Adam Gussow shows in this urgently needed new book the dream although pressured on every front remains alive At the heart of My Family and I is Gussow's determination in King's terms to live out the true meaning of America's creed a quest for transracial brotherhood that takes him from a blues partnership forged on the streets of 1980s Harlem through graduate training at Princeton and decades later a transformative course on the blues literary tradition that he shares with inmates at Mississippi's notorious Parchman Farm Anchoring Gussow's quest is a story of enduring love a playful soulful interracial romance between the newly hired professor at Ole Miss and his soon to be wife Sherrie that blossoms with the birth of a musically gifted son Shaun As America explodes with protest and riots in the summer of 2020 after the death of George Floyd as social justice fundamentalists insist on stigmatizing whiteness and hardening the color line rather than healing the divisions that plague us Gussow is forced to fight for what he loves not just the sanctity of his family circle but King's dream of beloved community My Family and I gifts the reader with hope for a future beyond America's seemingly insoluble racial dilemmas Family Trouble Joy Castro, 2020-03-01 Whenever a memoirist gives a reading someone in the audience is sure to ask How did your family react Revisiting our pasts and exploring our experiences we often reveal more of our nearest and dearest than they might prefer This volume navigates the emotional and literary minefields that any writer of family stories or secrets must travel when depicting private lives for public consumption Essays by twenty five memoirists including Faith Adiele Alison Bechdel Jill Christman Judith Ortiz Cofer Rigoberto Gonz lez Robin Hemley Dinty W Moore Bich Minh Nguyen and Mimi Schwartz explore the fraught territory of family history told from one perspective which from another angle in the family drama might appear quite different indeed In her introduction to this book Joy Castro herself a memoirist explores the ethical dilemmas of writing about family and offers practical strategies for this tricky but necessary subject A sustained and eminently readable lesson in the craft of memoir Family Trouble serves as a practical guide for writers to find their own version of the truth while still respecting family boundaries Not in My Family Gil L. Robertson, 2009-03-01 In this landmark collection of personal essays stories brief memoirs and polemics a broad swath of black Americans unite to bear witness to the devastation AIDS has wrought on their community Not in My Family marks a new willingness on the part of black Americans whether prominent figures from the worlds of politics entertainment or sports or just ordinary folks with extraordinary stories to face the scourge that has affected them disproportionately for years Editor Gil Robertson has enlisted a remarkable group of contributors including performers like Patti LaBelle Mo Nique and Hill Harper bestselling authors like Randall Robinson and Omar Tyree political leaders like Rep Jesse Jackson Jr and former U S Surgeon General Dr Joycelyn Elders religious leaders like Rev Calvin Butts and many many more

Family History and Historians in Australia and New Zealand Malcolm Allbrook, Sophie Scott-Brown, 2021-06-27 Since the turn of the twenty first century family history is the place where two great oceans of research are meeting family historians outside the academy with traditionally trained often university employed historians This collection is both a testament to dialogue and an analysis of the dynamics of recent family history that derives from the confluence of professional historians with family historians their common causes and conversations It brings together leading and emerging Australian and New Zealand scholars to consider the relationship between family history and the discipline of history and the potential of family history to extend the scope of historical inquiry even to revitalise the discipline In Anglo Western culture the roots of the discipline s professionalisation lay in efforts to reconstruct history as objective knowledge to extend its subject matter and to enlarge the scale of historical enquiry Family history almost by definition is often inescapably personal and localised How then have historians responded to this resurgence of interest in the personal and the local and how has it influenced the thought and practice of historical enquiry
