Captivating Campuses: Proven Practices that Promote College Student Persistence, Engagement and Success Nicholas D. Young, Christine N. Michael, Jennifer A. Smolinski, 2019-12-15 What role does student engagement play in educational achievement on the post secondary campus And what factors affect each student's ability and motivation to engage with the full college experience both in and outside of the classroom It is now widely acknowledged that post secondary institutions must not only focus on facilitating the transition from high school to college but that they must also make a concerted effort to listen to the needs and experiences of their students in order to achieve maximal involvement within the college environment Students need to be captivated by at least one element of their college experience whether that be in the classroom dorm or extracurricular activities in order to form a bond with their institution and feel motivated and attached enough to put in the hard work until graduation Campuses that capture their students interests and passions provide spaces for them to develop as individuals and opportunities to form meaningful professional and personal relationships have a far greater chance of both retaining their students to graduation and helping them develop as whole human beings who will contribute This book studies the many facets of student engagement as it attempts to define student engagement differentiating it from involvement and covers seminal theories of college student engagement The contributions to this volume discuss the powerful role that relationships play in helping students identify their interests and talents and other examples of best practice when it comes to creating engaging classroom experiences such as collaborative projects with peers study abroad and learning that is situated in real life problems that are of importance to the student

Making Young Voters John B. Holbein, D. Sunshine Hillygus, 2020-02-20 In 2016 90% of young Americans reported an interest in politics 80% intended to vote Yet only 43% of people between the ages of 18 and 29 ended up actually casting a ballot Making Young Voters investigates what lies at the core of this gap The authors in depth interdisciplinary approach reveals that political apathy is not the reason for low levels of youth turnout Rather young people too often fail to follow through on their political interests and intentions Those with noncognitive skills related to self regulation are more likely to overcome internal and external barriers to participation This book combines theory from psychology economics child development and more to explore possible solutions rooted in civic education and electoral reform This potentially paradigm shifting contribution to the literature of American politics serves to influence not only our understanding of voter turnout but also the fundamental connections between the education system electoral institutions and individual civic behavior in a democracy How young people vote affects not only each individual future but that of the United States and of us all
