Written Discourse Completion Task Questionnaire:

Interlanguage Refusals Noël Houck, Susan M. Gass, 2011-10-18 Language acquisition is a human endeavor par excellence As children all human beings learn to understand and speak at least one language their mother tongue It is a process that seems to take place without any obvious effort Second language learning particularly among adults causes more difficulty The purpose of this series is to compile a collection of high quality monographs on language acquisition The series serves the needs of everyone who wants to know more about the problem of language acquisition in general and or about language acquisition in specific contexts Interlanguage Pragmatic Competence of EFL Learners in China's University Xu Lan, 2019-12-01 Interlanguage Pragmatic Competence of EFL Learners in China's University Post hoc Scheffe Refusals in instructional contexts and beyond Otilia Martí-Arnández, Patricia Salazar-Campillo, 2013-08-01 Little exposure and few opportunities for practice are two main drawbacks for learners in instructional contexts These problems are intensified when dealing with face threatening acts such as refusals as learners are not fully capable of expressing their meanings and miscommunication is a likely by product The present volume aims at exploring factors and production of refusals in different instructional settings by means of ten original papers which address key questions dealing with the speech act of refusals The relevance of the volume lies in the individual contributions which embrace innovative perspectives on refusals in order to provide an excellent contribution to this field of enquiry The book is an obligatory reading for researchers and students interested in the field of interlanguage pragmatics who will benefit from the range of educational contexts in which refusals are investigated

Third Language Learners Maria Pilar Safont Jorda, 2005-04-06 The book focuses on one aspect of foreign language acquisition that has not received much attention that of the effect of bilingualism in the oral production of the English language learners Two research areas have tackled this issue separately On the one hand third language acquisition researchers have analysed bilingualism effects in the acquisition of a third language On the other hand studies in interlanguage pragmatics have taken into account variables affecting the use of request acts by second language learners of English The two research areas are connected in this volume as it deals with bilingualism effects in the pragmatic production and awareness of third language learners of English The first part of the book includes a theoretical description of research conducted in the areas of third language acquisition and interlanguage pragmatics and the second part presents a detailed description of the empirical study carried out in a multilingual speech community

Exploring Politeness in Business Emails Vera Freytag, 2019-10-11 Exploring Politeness in Business Emails explores the contextual complexities of workplace emails by comparing British English and Peninsular Spanish directive speech events and systematically assessing the impact of contextual factors Through a combination of qualitative and quantitative methods of data collection and analysis and the inclusion of metapragmatic insights in the interpretation of the results the book offers an innovative approach to the study of politeness The book partially contradicts previous assumptions about English and Spanish directives and provides new insights into the role of politeness in the workplace By offering a meticulous account of the linguistic choices made by the English and Spanish first language users and the contextual factors influencing these choices the book suggests far reaching implications for future research in cross cultural pragmatics and business discourse as well as practical implications relevant for academics postgraduate students and practitioners interested in these fields

Speech Acts Across Cultures Susan Gass, Joyce Neu, 2009-09-24 This book investigates the notion of Speech Act from a cross cultural perspective The starting point for this book is the assumption that speech acts are realized from culture to culture in different ways and that these differences may result in communication difficulties that range from the humorous to the serious Importantly a recurring theme in this volume has to do with the need to verify the form the function and the constraining variables of speech acts as a prerequisite for dealing with them in the classroom The book deals with three major areas of Speech Act research 1 Methodological Issues 2 Speech Acts in a second language and 3 Applications In the first section authors discuss general issues of methodology and present data in an effort to detail the efficacy of different methodologies Research clearly shows the effect of methodology on the results This section is followed by a discussion of specific speech acts including speech acts and strategy use that have as their goal the creation and maintenance of solidarity i e greetings compliments apologies and speech acts that involve face threatening acts i.e. complaints favor asking suggestions In the final section authors consider applications of speech act research within the context of advertising and business relationships
