Want Me Novella Voyeur Series English Edition:

Performance and Performativity in German Cultural Studies Carolin Duttlinger, Lucia Ruprecht, Andrew Webber, 2003 This volume assembles the select proceedings of an international conference held at the University of Cambridge in March 2002 The conference took its cue from the performative turn which has put issues of performance and performativity at the centre of current academic debate in the humanities The volume aims to show the ways in which German Studies have been turning towards questions of the performative in recent years On the one hand this involves an increased interest in the performing arts in the scholarship and teaching of German Studies and a growing understanding of the literary text too as a performed process as much as a finished object on the other an incorporation of theories of performativity not least in the area of gender and sexuality The essays cover a range of performance media theatre film performance art photography as well as the representation of turns or acts of performance in literary texts from Goethe to key contemporary writers Together they indicate exciting new ways forward for German Cultural Studies Four-handed Monsters Adrian Daub, 2014 Four Handed Monsters surveys the cultural perception of four hand piano playing in the nineteenth century As the piano became a central institution of the bourgeois household and as piano transcriptions created a stable canon of classic works four hand playing became a ubiquitous and structurally important buttress of domestic life provoking reflections in the literature philosophy journalism and the visual arts of the age African Film and Literature Lindiwe Dovey, 2009 Analyzing a range of South African and West African films inspired by African and non African literature Lindiwe Dovey identifies a specific trend in contemporary African filmmaking one in which filmmakers are using the embodied audiovisual medium of film to offer a critique of physical and psychological violence Against a detailed history of the medium s savage introduction and exploitation by colonial powers in two very different African contexts Dovey examines the complex ways in which African filmmakers are preserving mediating and critiquing their own cultures while seeking a united vision of the future More than merely representing socio cultural realities in Africa these films engage with issues of colonialism and postcolonialism updating both the history and the literature they adapt to address contemporary audiences in Africa and elsewhere Through this deliberate and radical re historicization of texts and realities Dovey argues that African filmmakers have developed a method of filmmaking that is altogether distinct from European and American forms of adaptation Written for the Drawer Brett Winestock, 2024 Russian Jewish writer Leonid Tsypkin 1926 82 a doctor by trade wrote primarily for the drawer fearing professional consequences if he were to publish his fiction Despite Tsypkin s almost complete lack of readership during his lifetime his work has received international posthumous recognition with Susan Sontag calling his work among the most beautiful exalting and original achievements of a century s worth of fiction Tsypkin s autobiographical writing explored the impossibility of being both a Russian writer and a Soviet Jew employing indirection and referentiality In the first book length appraisal of Tsypkin and his work Brett Winestock considers Tsypkin s fiction as part of a transnational literary response to the horrors of the twentieth century a reception that helps explain his much belated international readership Through close readings of Tsytkin's work in the context of late Soviet cultural worlds Winestock makes an important contribution to studies of Jewish Soviet writing and identity Wagner Androgyne Jean-Jacques Nattiez, 2014-07-14 That Wagner conceived of himself creatively as both man and woman is central to an understanding of his life and art So argues Jean Jacques Nattiez in this richly insightful work where he draws from semiology music criticism and psychoanalysis to explore such topics as Wagner's theories of music drama his anti-Semitism and his psyche Wagner who wrote the libretti for the operas he composed maintained that art is the union of the feminine principle music and the masculine principle poetry In light of this androgynous model Nattiez reinterprets the Wagnerian canon especially the Ring of the Nibelung which is shown to contain a metaphorical transposition of Wagner's conception of the history of music Siegfried appears as the poet Brunnhilde as music and their union is an androgynous one in which individual identity fades and the lovers revert to a preconflictual presexual state Nattiez traces the androgynous symbol in Wagner's theoretical writings throughout his career Looking to explain how this idea so closely bound up with sexuality took root in Wagner's mind the author considers the possibility of Freudian and Jungian interpretations In particular he explores the composer's relationship with his mother a distant woman who discouraged his interest in the theater and his stepfather a loving man whom Wagner suspected was not only his real father but also a Jew Along with psychoanalysis Nattiez critically applies various structuralist and feminist theories to Wagner's creative enterprise to demonstrate how the nature of twentieth century hermeneutics is itself androgynous Originally published in 1993 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Novella Chris Bendon, 1997 The Secret Sharer and Other Stories (Norton Critical Editions) Joseph Conrad, 2015-08-03 This Norton Critical Edition includes four stories two set on stormy seas two on calm seas all four based on the same incident that speak to each other in interesting ways The stories in this Norton Critical Edition maintain the connection and sequencing that Joseph Conrad saw among them In his Author's Note to Twixt Land and Sea Conrad writes of his two Calm pieces The Secret Sharer and The Shadow Line and his two Storm pieces The Nigger of the Narcissus and Typhoon This edition is based on the first English book edition for the stories and the first American edition for the Author's Note for The Shadow Line Typhoon and The Secret Sharer The stories are accompanied by explanatory annotations a note on the texts including a list of textual emendations and a preface Backgrounds and Contexts brings together relevant correspondence and contemporary reviews from both British and American sources Also included are documents related to Conrad's sources for the stories among them Charles Arthur Sankey's Ordeal of the Cutty Sark A True Story of Mutiny Murder on the High Seas To help readers navigate the editor includes a glossary of nautical terms as well as diagrams of the kinds of ships that appear in the stories Criticism includes fifteen essays representing both new and established voices The essays are arranged by story with the focus on Conrad's major themes colonialism narrative gender and race Albert J Guerard Lillian Nayder Mark D Larabee Fredric Jameson F R Leavis and John G Peters are among the contributors A chronology of Conrad's life and work and a selected bibliography are also included

Passionate Communities Marilyn R. Schuster, 1999-06 In this new full length study of Jane Rule's life and work Marilyn Schuster argues that Rule's novels provide a way of writing and reading lesbian that resists and subverts dominant discourses of gender and sexuality both those of mainstream culture and of political and sexual subcultures From her earliest novel Desert of the Heart 1964 Rule's fiction has provided a challenge to the concept of a fixed identity and to the identity politics founded on such a concept Incorporating all of Jane Rule's early work including unpublished manuscripts letters magazine and newspaper columns as well as fan mail she received Schuster also draws on interviews conversations and personal encounters with the author to elicit the ways in which Rule interrogates the meanings and politics of sexuality the relationship between sexuality and language and the stakes of communities in individual claims on identity Passionate Communities is a thorough engaging and long overdue study of an important voice in lesbian literature and gay and lesbian politics

The Victorians and the Visual Imagination Kate Flint, 2000-08-28 The Victorians and the Visual Imagination is an exciting and innovative exploration of the Victorians attitudes towards sight Tantalized by physiologists who proved the unreliability of the eye intrigued by the role of subjectivity within vision and provoked by new technologies of spectatorship the Victorians were also imaginatively stirred by the sense of a world which lay just out of human sight This interdisciplinary study draws on writers as diverse as George Eliot Elizabeth Barrett Browning and Rudyard Kipling as well as Pre Raphaelite and realist painters including Millais Burne Jones William Powell Frith and Whistler and a host of Victorian scientists cultural commentators and art critics Its topics include blindness the location of memory hallucination dust and the importance of the horizon a dazzling eclectic range of subjects linked together by the operations of the eye and brain

The Representation of Masochism and Queer Desire in Film and Literature B. Mennel, 2016-04-30 Defining masochism as literary perversion this book probes the productivity of masochistic aesthetics in the literature of Leopold von Sacher Masoch and contemporary queer films analysing radical accounts of desire gender and sexuality

Strayed Homes Edwina Attlee, 2021-12-16 Poetic and political Strayed Homes invites architects interior designers and urbanists to think again about common concepts in architecture private public and home Whereas most writing about the public private focusses on urban space this book focusses on the domestic exploring those overlooked everyday places where private and intimate activities take place in public With four chapters set in four small liminal spaces the launderette the greasy spoon the fire escape and the sleeper train the book is part architectural history part cultural history It follows a series of allusions and impressions to explore how films adverts books and anecdotes shape experiences of everyday architecture Making a case for the poetic interpretation of space the book can be used as a sourcebook for architects designers and theorists alike prompting the reader to rethink the emotional state of leaving home intimacy in public and lonely dreaming
