Best AltWeekly Writing 2009 & 2010 Association of Alternative Newsweeklies,2011-03-29 Alternative newsweeklies have long covered the most provocative stories with some of the country s sharpest writing and reporting And with the decline of the mainstream media alternative weeklies now serve as a bulwark against the disappearance of local print coverage The Food Section Kimberly Wilmot Voss,2014-04-24 Food blogs are everywhere today but for generations information and opinions about food were found in the food sections of newspapers in communities large and small Until the early 1970s these sections were housed in the women s pages of newspapers where women could hold an authoritative voice The food editors often a mix of trained journalist and home economist reported on everything from nutrition news to features on the new chef in town They wrote recipes and solicited ideas from readers The sections reflected the trends of the time and the cooks of the community The editors were local celebrities judging cooking contests and getting calls at home about how to prepare a Thanksgiving turkey They were consumer advocates and reporters for food safety and nutrition They helped make James Beard and Julia Child household names as the editors wrote about their television appearances and reviewed their cookbooks These food editors laid the foundation for the food community that Nora Ephron described in her classic 1968 essay The Food Establishment and eventually led to the food communities of today Included in the chapters are profiles of such food editors as Jane Nickerson Jeanne Voltz and Ruth Ellen Church who were unheralded pioneers in the field as well as Cecily Brownstone Poppy Cannon and Clementine Paddleford who are well known today an analysis of their work demonstrates changes in the country s culinary history The book concludes with a look at how the women s pages folded at the same time that home economics saw its field transformed and with thoughts about the foundation that these women laid for the food journalism of today Literary Eats Gary Scharnhorst,2014-04-11 This is a comprehensive collection of authentic recipes some 500 in all for drinks and dishes that more than 150 American authors since the late 18th century are known to have enjoyed The book should appeal to amateur chefs and so called foodies who may want to test some of the recipes in their kitchens to American literature instructors and scholars who may use it as a teaching tool and general readers who will read it for pleasure In effect this is a celebrity cookbook to which many literary celebrities living and dead have contributed among them Harriet Beecher Stowe Rudolfo Anaya Denise Chavez Emily Dickinson William Faulkner Harlan Ellison Ursula Le Guin Benjamin Franklin Charlotte Perkins Gilman Jack London Allen Ginsberg Lafcadio Hearn Ernest Hemingway Jack Kerouac Elmore Leonard Bobbie Ann Mason Marjorie Kinnan Rawlings Leslie Marmon Silko Gertrude Stein Onoto Watanna Eudora Welty Walt Whitman and Gerald Vizenor Taste Makers Mayukh Sen,2021-11-16
