

A photograph of a body of water, possibly a pond or a slow-moving stream, heavily polluted with plastic waste. The water is dark and murky. In the foreground and middle ground, there is a large accumulation of discarded plastic items, including numerous clear and colored plastic bottles, some crushed, and many white plastic cups or containers. A prominent yellow plastic container floats near the top center. To the left, there are green plants, possibly palm fronds, partially submerged in the water. The background shows more of the polluted water and some distant greenery.
