Wayfarer Negotiator Volume 4:

Mors Britannica Douglas J. Davies, 2015-11-12 A people's lifestyle is one thing their death style another The proximity or distance between such styles says much about a society not least in Britain today Mors Britannica takes up this style issue in a society where cultural changes involve distinctions between traditional religion secularisation and emergent forms of spirituality all of which involve emotions where fear longing and a sense of loss rise in waves when death marks the root embodiment of our humanity These world orientations evident in older and newer ritual practices engage death in the hope and desire that love relationships community and human identity be not rendered meaningless Yet both emotions and ritual have an uneasiness to them because death is a slippery topic as the twenty first century gets under way in Britain In this work Douglas J Davies draws from a largely anthropological sociological perspective with consideration of history literature philosophy psychology and theology to provide a window into British life and insights into the foundation links between individuals and society across the spectrum of traditionally religious views through to humanist and secular alternatives He considers memorial sites from churchyards to roadside memorials forms of corporeal disposal from cremation to composting and death rites in a range of religious and secular traditions

Blue Mind Wallace J. Nichols, 2024-12-03 The 10th anniversary edition of the landmark book on the remarkable effects of water on our health and well being A decade ago marine biologist Dr Wallace J Nichols revolutionized how we think about our connection to water exploring the questions we've long lacked answers to Why are we drawn to lakes rivers oceans beaches and pools each summer Why does being near water set our minds and bodies at ease boost creativity enhance wellness and increase longevity Over the past several years Blue Mind has become the ultimate resource on the remarkable benefits of being near in on or under water Combining cutting edge neuroscience psychology and cross disciplinary data with compelling personal stories from top athletes leading scientists military veterans and gifted artists Nichols shows how proximity to water can improve performance increase calm diminish anxiety and increase professional success Now with updated science backed research examples of innovative practitioners and a new afterword on the far reaching impact of this groundbreaking book Blue Mind not only illustrates the crucial importance of our connection to water it provides a paradigm shifting blueprint for a movement to create better lives for everyone on this Blue Marble we call home

Nathalie Rivère de Carles, 2016-10-13 This book explores the secret relations between theatre and diplomacy from the Tudors to the Treaty of Westphalia It offers an original insight into the art of diplomacy in the 1580-1655 period through the prism of literature theatre and material history Contributors investigate English Italian and German plays of Renaissance theoretical texts on diplomacy lifting the veil on the intimate relations between ambassadors and the artistic world and on theatre as an unexpected instrument of soft power The volume offers new approaches to understanding Early Modern diplomacy which was a source of inspiration for Renaissance drama for Shakespeare and his European contemporaries and contributed to fashion the aesthetic and the political ideas and practice of the Renaissance The Author, Playwright and Composer ,1916
