The Feeling Child Philippa Page,Inela Selimovic,Camilla Sutherland,2018-11-15 The Feeling Child Affect and Politics in Latin American Literature and Film compiles a series of essays focusing on the figure of the child within the specific context of the affective turn in the study of contemporary sociocultural settings across Latin America This edited volume looks specifically at the intersection between cultural constructions of childhood and the affective turn within the contemporary sociopolitical landscape of Latin America The editors and contributors share a common aim in furthering comprehension of the particular intensity of the child s affective presence spectatorial haptic silent and spectral among others in contemporary Latin American cultural expression The contributions herein approach this theoretical challenge through an interdisciplinary lens which brings together two burgeoning strands of inquiry The first is the notion of childhood as a significant and inherently political sociocultural space the second is the recognition that affect is integral and fundamental to gaining a more complex understanding of the manner in which contemporary social worlds are made In each case this affective presence is teased out as a register of society shedding light on the issues marking out the current sociopolitical landscape in particular the traces of the recent past in the regions represented This book brings together established international scholars and young academics focusing on Argentina Bolivia Chile Cuba and Peru The Insurmountable Darkness of Love Douglas E. Christie,2022 This book is a reflection on the meaning of spiritual darkness especially those difficult places in human experience where meaning seems to elude us where we are emptied out and are compelled to dig deeper into who we truly are Douglas E Christie takes up this facet of experience in ordinary human experience but also in relation to the Christian contemplative and mystical traditions where such experience is often understood to be both painful and transformative allowing the mind and heart to open in love Indelicacy Amina Cain,2025-09-23 FINALIST FOR THE CENTER FOR FICTION S FIRST NOVEL PRIZE Cain s small but mighty novel reads like a ghost story and packs the punch of a feminist classic The New York Times Book Review A haunted feminist fable Amina Cain's Indelicacy is the story of a woman navigating between gender and class roles to empower herself and fulfill her dreams In a strangely ageless world somewhere between Emily Dickinson and David Lynch Blake Butler a cleaning woman at a museum of art nurtures aspirations to do more than simply dust the paintings around her She dreams of having the liberty to explore them in writing and so must find a way to win herself the time and security to use her mind She escapes her lot by marrying a rich man but having gained a husband a house high society and a maid she finds that her new life of privilege is no less constrained Not only has she taken up different forms of time consuming labor social and erotic but she is now however passively forcing other women to clean up after her Perhaps another and more drastic solution is necessary Reminiscent of a lost Victorian classic in miniature yet taking equal inspiration from such modern authors as Jean Rhys Octavia Butler Clarice Lispector and Jean Genet Amina Cain's Indelicacy is at once a ghost story without a ghost a fable without a moral and a down to earth investigation of the barriers faced by women in both life and literature It is a novel about seeing class desire anxiety pleasure friendship and the battle to find one's true calling

Alfredo Jaar Edward A. Vazquez, 2023-12-12 A richly illustrated survey of Alfredo Jaar's Studies on Happiness 1979-1981 and its deep political stakes in the historical context of Chile's neoliberal transition. Between 1979 and 1981 Alfredo Jaar asked Chileans a deceptively simple question: Are you happy? Through private interviews sidewalk polls and video recorded forums among other interventions Jaar's three year and seven phase project Studies on Happiness addressed a furtive and fearful population living under Augusto Pinochet's military dictatorship. It also spoke to a country in transition as a newly adopted constitution remade Chile through privatisation and other neoliberal reforms. In its varied interventions and direct mode of address Studies on Happiness functioned as a feedback device meant to catalyse a critical awareness with its blunt questioning. Edward A. Vazquez contextualises Studies on Happiness within Jaar's early production and situates his practice within a Chilean art world haunted by the residues of political violence. This study foregrounds the project's historical embeddedness and the deep political stakes of its apparent sociality recognising the crucial role that context has always played in Jaar's practice. By turning to the Santiago of Studies on Happiness Vazquez explores the work's political and art historical environment and provides a wedge to realign current interpretations of Chilean art and hemispheric conceptualism with the openness central to Jaar's project.

A History of Chilean Literature Ignacio López-Calvo, 2021-10-14 This book covers the heterogeneity of Chilean literary production from the times of the Spanish conquest to the present. It shifts critical focus from national identity and issues to a more multifaceted transnational hemispheric and global approach. Its emphasis is on the paradigm transition from the purportedly homogeneous to the heterogeneous.

Visual Peace Frank Möller, 2013-10-18 This book introduces a new research agenda for visual peace research providing a political analysis of the relationship between visual representations and the politics of violence nationally and internationally. Using a range of genres from photography to painting it elaborates on how people can become agents of their own image.

38 Londres Street Philippe Sands, 2025-10-07 In this intimate legal and historical detective story the world renowned lawyer and acclaimed author of East West Street traces the footsteps of two of the twentieth century's most merciless criminals accused of genocide and crimes against humanity testing the limits of immunity and impunity after Nuremberg. Though nearly a decade in the making this book could not arrive at a better time because its subject is one of the most pressing themes of our era: impunity. Sands has created an indelible and enthralling work of moral witness. Patrick Radden Keefe author of Say Nothing. On the evening of October 16 1998 Chilean dictator Augusto Pinochet was arrested at a medical clinic in London. After a brutal seventeen year reign marked by assassinations disappearances and torture frequently tied to the infamous detention center at the heart of Santiago Londres 38 Pinochet was being indicted for international crimes and extradition to Spain opening the door to criminal charges that would follow him to the grave in 2006 Three decades earlier on the evening of December 3 1962 SS Commander Walter Rauff was arrested in his home in Punta Arenas at the southern tip of Chile As the overseer of the development and use of gas vans in World War II he was indicted for the mass murder of tens of thousands of Jews and faced extradition to West Germany Would these uncommon criminals be held accountable Were their stories connected The Nuremberg Trials where Rauff s crimes had first been read into the record in 1945 opened the door to universal jurisdiction and Pinochet s case would be the first effort to ensnare a former head of state In this unique blend of memoir courtroom drama and travelogue Philippe Sands gives us a front row seat to the Pinochet trial where he acted as a barrister for Human Rights Watch and teases out the dictator s unexpected connection to a leading Nazi who ended up managing a king crab cannery in Patagonia A decade long journey exposes the chilling truth behind the lives of two men and their intertwined destinies on 38 Londres Street
