Strategic Marketing David W. Cravens, Nigel Piercy, 2006 Strategic Marketing 8 e by Cravens and Piercy is a text and casebook that discusses the concepts and processes for gaining the competitive advantage in the marketplace The authors examine many components of a market driven strategy including technology customer service customer relationships pricing and the global economy The text provides a strategic perspective and extends beyond the traditional focus on managing the marketing mix The cases demonstrate how real companies build and implement effective strategies Author David Cravens is well known in the marketing discipline and was the recipient of the Academy of Marketing Science's Outstanding Marketing Educator Award Co author Nigel Piercy has a particular research interest in market led strategic change and sales management for which he has attracted academic and practitioner acclaim in the UK and USA Encyclopedia of Business Information Sources Linda D. Hall, 2008 Each updated edition of this detailed resource identifies nearly 35 000 live print and electronic sources of information listed under more than 1 100 alphabetically arranged subjects industries and business concepts and practices Edited by business information expert James Woy Strategic Marketing Problems Roger A. Kerin, Robert A. Peterson, 2010 The Routledge Handbook of Hotel Chain Management Maya Ivanova, Stanislav Ivanov, Vincent P. Magnini, 2016-05-05 Understanding the global hotel business is not possible without paying specific attention to hotel chain management and dynamics Chains are big business approximately 80 percent of hotels currently being constructed around the world are chain affiliated and in 2014 the five largest brands held over a one million rooms The high economic importance of the hotel chains and their global presence justifies the academic research in the field however despite this there is no uniform coverage in the current body of literature This Handbook aids in filling the gap by exploring and critically evaluates the debates issues and controversies of all aspects of hotel chains from their nature fundamentals of existence and operation expansion strategic and operational aspects of their activities and geographical presence It brings together leading specialists from range of disciplinary backgrounds and regions to provide state of the art theoretical reflection and empirical research on current issues and future debates Each of the five inter related section explores and evaluates issues that are of extreme importance to hotel chain management focusing on theoretical issues the expansion of hotel chains strategic and operational issues the view point of the individual affiliated hotel and finally the current and future debates in the theory and practice of hotel chain management arising from globalisation demographic trends sustainability and new technology development It provides an invaluable resource for all those with an interest in hotel management hospitality tourism and business encouraging dialogue across disciplinary boundaries and areas of study This is essential reading for students researchers and academics of Hospitality as well as those of Tourism Marketing Business and Events Management Post-Pandemic Realities and Growth in Eastern Europe Silvia L. Fotea, Ioan Ș. Fotea, Sebastian Văduva, 2022-10-10 As the COVID 19 crisis comes to an end leaders organizations and governments have to develop a new normal for doing business with a focus on protecting the environment integrating new technologies and adapting to new social changes Based on empirical studies and conceptual contributions from researchers and practitioners presented at the Griffiths School of Management IT's 12th Annual Conference on Business Entrepreneurship and Ethics GSMAC this proceedings volume provides a multifaceted perspective on the impact and effects of the COVID 19 pandemic on various public and private systems including education business organizations and consumer behavior In particular this book explores the impact of the pandemic on remote work and employee health sustainable development and economic growth among others It also highlights the role of data analysis in understanding trends opportunities and challenges in the above systems Comparative Analysis and Benchmarking Hung-hsin Chen, 2003 This research of corporate strategy analysis implements comparative analysis and benchmarking to analyse and examine the corporate strategy of the pharmaceutical sectors of 4 international pharmaceutical companies This research adopts the hybrid approach of combining qualitative and quantitative methods in a two stages research design Quantitative method is applied first to deal with the comparative figures and then qualitative method is used to find out the problem The design of this multiple research includes three phases data collection analysis and reporting The findings of this research can be divided into 4 parts R D marketing technology alliances strategic acquisitions and merger and manufacturing The drug innovative projects are recommended being developed within the company s familiar therapeutic areas in order to take its marketing advantage Through this comparative analysis some of this type of problems of these international pharmaceutical companies is identified A big pharmaceutical company forming alliances with some small biotechnology companies has become a trend within pharmaceutical industry since 1980s For pharmaceutical companies to take advantage of R D through biotechnology is the main purpose of alliances with small biotechnology companies It is important to note that most pharmaceutical acquisitions belong to the type of absorption with high resource transferring and low autonomy Due to the high profit margin and the essential importance of R D and marketing the operation management of manufacturing of pharmaceutical industry is relatively poor The low asset utilisation rate pointed out this problem Academic researches have revealed that existing theories of operation management of manufacturing such as action research set up reduction teamwork continuous improvement collaboration and involvement are applicable and beneficial to pharmaceutical industry rather than waiting for the technology breakthroughs
