Remember to Tell the Children Henry A. Fischer, 2006-07-12 The Children of the Danube were on the move again They were the descendants of the settlers who had joined the trek down the Danube River in the Great Swabian Migration from Germany to the Kingdom of Hungary in the early 18th century Perhaps like their forebears adventure may have been the driving force for some of them while desperation drove others as they sought to make a life for themselves and their families They were faced with limited options if they remained in their original settlements where land was running out restrictions against the Lutherans and Reformed were becoming more intolerable and the increasing and often unjust demands of the nobles made it more and more difficult to provide for their families The Pioneer tells this story through the lives and loves of three generations of the Tefner family in the unfolding story of Drnberg where their lives intersected with the families who would eventually become part of the authors extended family and which they shared with all the others who were part of their life together They found themselves isolated confronted by a wilderness and created an economic miracle Destructive fires and raging floods famine and drought bandit raids and epidemics tested them but did not overcome their indomitable will which was sustained by their faith A faith that was outlawed but continued underground unabated until the Edict of Toleration granted them freedom of conscience Nor would they simply cower before the injustices inflicted upon them by the nobles and authorities without protest Their lives were lived within the broader scope of the history of their times that played a vital role in their development destiny and character Emperor Joseph II the Bishop of Veszprém Martin Bir von Padny Anton von Kaunitz Count Styrum Limberg the Empress Maria Theresia the three Counts von Mercy and countless other notable personages all make their appearance and leave their mark on The Pioneers Legacy of Angels B.J. Scott, 2008-06-26 California 1884 A clipper ship belonging to Connelly Wilson Shipping is attacked by a mysterious black vessel which displays amazing speed and deadly weaponry The clipper ship is sunk with all hands save one survivor Only days later another Connelly Wilson ship is sunk by the same black vessel this time there are no survivors Weeks later a Connelly railroad trestle is dynamited with loss of life narrowly avoided Then another sending a freight train to the bottom of a deep ravine And shockingly a young woman heiress to the reins of the Connelly Wilson empire disappears into the Sierra Nevada Mountains in the dead of winter After seventeen years in hiding an old evil has arisen again one who nevertheless has still not learned one fatal lesson never cross a Connelly woman Book Three of the Angel Trilogy a legend passes on and a new one is born as the granddaughter of the Angel of the Gold Rush takes the stage 60+ Western Novels by Max Brand Max Brand, Frederick Schiller Faust, 2023-12-09 In 60 Western Novels by Max Brand readers are invited to traverse the rugged terrain of the American West through a multifaceted collection of tales that capture the essence of adventure justice and the spirit of the frontier This anthology is a testament to the era's cultural zeitgeist embracing themes of heroism morality and survival against the backdrop of a wild and untamed land The diversity of stories ranges from high stakes showdowns and intricate plots to more introspective explorations of character all reflecting the broad spectrum of styles within the Western genre Each narrative stands as a testament to the compelling complexities and enduring allure of America's historical landscape The collective genius of Max Brand also known as Frederick Schiller Faust showcases his unparalleled ability to paint vivid and memorable portrayals of the Western milieu Among the stories are tales of solitary cowboys confronting justice and redemption offering not just entertainment but also a reflection on the broader human condition Brand and Faust a versatile and prolific author whose voice became synonymous with the Western genre have penned narratives that align with early 20th century literature capturing the ethos of an era marked by transformation and exploration Readers embarking on this anthology will gain more than just an appreciation for the Western genre's rich tapestry they will experience a cross section of literary history where action and introspection intermingle seamlessly The substantial range of voices within Max Brand's collection provides an educational exploration into varying thematic depths and narrative styles This anthology presents a unique opportunity for enthusiasts and scholars alike to immerse themselves in the kaleidoscopic world of Western tales rich with insight and delivering a well rounded dialogue between the tales of the frontier The Bloomsbury Handbook of Anglophone Literature and Migration Nicoletta Vallorani, Simona Bertacco, William Boelhower, 2025-10-16 Focusing on a significant 70 year period as a climactic phase of displacement the book investigates the role of literature in producing new modes of representing and understanding migration in a global context Globally felt and reported as a geographical sociological anthropological and historical phenomenon migration has produced an unprecedented corpus of literary narratives that demands to be approached through its own set of cross disciplinary critical approaches This Handbook explores tales of migration via a systematic study of the large corpus of Anglophone literary texts that have been written by migrant authors and or on the topic of migration between 1946 and 2016 from the start of the United Nations International Migration Report to the first year in which the number of displaced people reached the level of the Second World War marking a new phase in global migrations Given the dominance of English as a world language often used by writers who are not native speakers the volume covers Anglophone writing providing a substantially representative corpus that includes texts from or about Europe Africa North and Central America and the South Asia and Pacific region Starting from a critical approach that is inherently interdisciplinary authors consider the notion of the border and how it has changed over time show how traditional literary genres have morphed and hybridized to become suitable expressive tools for the new stories of migration reflect on how the movement across borders and countries creates migrant identities that are not only linguistic but invests all aspects of one's life and worldview and includes authors' voices. A small but representative group to both justify and test the critical approaches proposed.
