Striped Bass Recipe Served Cold:

The Opera of Bartolomeo Scappi (1570) Terence Scully, 2011-01-22 Bartolomeo Scappi c 1500 1577 was arguably the most famous chef of the Italian Renaissance. He oversaw the preparation of meals for several Cardinals and was such a master of his profession that he became the personal cook for two Popes. At the culmination of his prolific career, he compiled the largest cookery treatise of the period to instruct an apprentice on the full craft of fine cuisine: its methods, ingredients, and recipes. Accompanying his book was a set of unique and precious engravings that show the ideal kitchen of his day: its operations and myriad utensils, and are exquisitely reproduced in this volume. Scappi's Opera presents more than one thousand recipes along with menus that comprise up to a hundred dishes, while also commenting on a cook's responsibilities. Scappi also included a fascinating account of a pope's funeral and the complex procedures for feeding the cardinals during the ensuing conclave. His recipes inherit medieval culinary customs but also anticipate modern Italian cookery with a segment of 230 recipes for pastry of plain and flaky dough, torte, ciambelle, pastizzi, crostate, and pasta, tortellini, tagliatelli, struffoli, ravioli, pizza. Terence Scully presents the first English translation of the work. His aim is to make the recipes and the broad experience of this sophisticated papal cook accessible to a modern English audience interested in the culinary expertise and gastronomic refinement within the most civilized niche of Renaissance society. Casting into the Light

Janet Messineo, 2019-07-02 Tales of a champion surfcaster: the education of a young woman hell-bent on following her dream and learning the mysterious and profound sport and art of surfcasting on the island of Martha's Vineyard. Janet Messineo knew from the get-go that she wanted to become a great fisherman. She knew she was as capable as any man of catching and landing a huge fish. It took years and many terrifying nights alone on the beach in complete darkness in search of a huge creature to pull out of the sea for her to prove to herself and to the male-dominated fishing community that she could make her dream real. Messineo writes of the object of her obsession: striped bass, and how it can take a lifetime to become a proficient striped bass fisherman. Of stripers as nocturnal feeders, hard-fighting, clever fish that under the cover of darkness trap bait against jetties or between fields of large boulders near shorelines or, once hooked, rub their mouths against the rocks to cut the line. She writes of growing up in Lawrence, Massachusetts, and Salem, New Hampshire, the granddaughter of textile mill workers, tagging along with her father and brother as they cast off of jetties, of going to art school, feeling from a young age the need to escape, and finding herself one summer on the Vineyard. She describes the series of jobs that supported her fishing: waitressing at the Black Dog, Helios, and the Home Port, among other restaurants. She writes of her education in patience and the technique to land a fish, learning the equipment, hooks, sinkers, her first squid jig, buying her first one-ounce Rebel lure. She recreates the thrill of fishing at night, of being buffeted by the island's harsh winds and torrential rains, the terror of hooking something mysterious in the darkness that might pull her into water over her head. She gives us a rich portrait of island life and writes of its history and of Chappaquiddick's: it belonged to the Wampanoags who originally called it Cheppiaquidne separate island of the Martha's Vineyard Derby its beginning in 1946 as a way to bring tourism to the island during the offseason and the Derby's growing into one of the largest tournaments in the world Messineo describes her dream of becoming a marine taxidermist of learning the craft and perfecting the art of it She writes of the men she's fished with and the women who forged the path for others among them Lorraine Tootie Johnson who fished Vineyard waters for more than sixty years and Lori VanDerlaske who won the Derby shore division in 1995 And she writes of her life commingled with fishing her marriage to a singer poet activist their adopting a son with Asperger's and her teaching him to fish She writes of the transformative power of fishing that helped her to shake off drugs and alcohol and of her profound respect for fish as a magnificent animal With eighteen of the author's favorite fish recipes Casting into the Light is a book about following one's dreams and about the quiet reckoning with self in the long hours of darkness at the water's edge with the sounds of the ocean the night air and the jet black sky The River Cottage Fish Book Hugh Fearnley-Whittingstall, Nick Fisher, 2012-03-20

The formidable River Cottage team turns their attention to all matters aquatic in this definitive guide to freshwater fish saltwater fish and shellfish Hugh Fearnley Whittingstall and Nick Fisher examine the ecological and moral issues of fishing teach individual skills such as catching and descaling and offer a comprehensive and fascinating species reference section They also demystify the cooking of fish with 135 recipes for preparing fish and shellfish in diverse ways from pickling to frying to smoking This ambitious reference cookbook appeals to both intellect and appetite by focusing on the pleasures of catching cooking and eating fish while grounding those actions in a philosophy and practice of sustainability The authors help us understand the human impact on the seafood population while their infectious enthusiasm for all manner of fish and shellfish from the mighty salmon to the humble mackerel to the unsung cockle inspires us to explore different and unfamiliar species Fish is superlative food but it's also a precious resource The River Cottage Fish Book delivers a complete education alongside a wealth of recipes and is the most opinionated and passionate fish book around I Only Have a
