Proceedings of the ... Convention of the Evangelical Lutheran Synod of West Pennsylvania United Lutheran Church in America. West Pennsylvania Synod, 1901 Retreat from Gettysburg Kent Masterson Brown, 2005 Recounts the Army of Northern Virginia's retreat from Gettysburg in July 1863 in a groundbreaking comprehensive history that chronicles the desperate efforts of Lee and his officers to move people equipment and supplies through enemy territory Foreigners in Their Own Land Steven M. Nolt, 2002 Historians of the early Republic are just beginning to tell the stories of the period's ethnic minorities In Foreigners in Their Own Land Steven M Nolt is the first to add the story of the Pennsylvania Germans to that larger mosaic showing how they came to think of themselves as quintessential Americans and simultaneously constructed a durable sense of ethnicity The Lutheran and Reformed Pennsylvania German populations of eastern Pennsylvania Maryland and the Appalachian backcountry successfully combined elements of their Old World tradition with several emerging versions of national identity Many took up democratic populist rhetoric to defend local cultural particularity and ethnic separatism Others wedded certain American notions of reform and national purpose to Continental traditions of clerical authority and idealized German virtues Their experience illustrates how creating and defending an ethnic identity can itself be a way of becoming American Though they would maintain a remarkably stable and identifiable subculture well into the twentieth century Pennsylvania Germans were even by the eve of the Civil War the most inside of outsiders They represent the complex and often paradoxical ways in which many Americans have managed the process of assimilation to their own advantage Given their pioneering role in that process their story illuminates the path that other immigrants and ethnic Americans would travel in the decades to follow
