Translation and Rewriting in the Age of Post-Translation Studies Edwin Gentzler, 2016-11-03 In Translation and Rewriting in the Age of Post Translation Studies Edwin Gentzler argues that rewritings of literary works have taken translation to a new level literary texts no longer simply originate but rather circulate moving internationally and intersemiotically into new media and forms Drawing on traditional translations post translation rewritings and other forms of creative adaptation he examines the different translational cultures from which literary works emerge and the translational elements within them In this revealing study four concise chapters give detailed analyses of the following classic works and their rewritings A Midsummer Night s Dream in Germany Postcolonial Faust Proust for Everyday Readers Hamlet in China With examples from a variety of genres including music film ballet comics and video games this book will be of special interest for all students and scholars of translation studies and contemporary literature

There Are Two Sexes Antoinette Fouque, 2015-02-24 Antoinette Fouque cofounded the Mouvement de Lib ration des Femmes MLF in France in 1968 and spearheaded its celebrated Psychanalyse et Politique a research group that informed the cultural and intellectual heart of French feminism Rather than reject Freud s discoveries on the pretext of their phallocentrism Fouque sought to enrich his thought by more clearly defining the difference between the sexes and affirming the existence of a female libido By recognizing women s contribution to humanity Fouque hoped uterus envy which she saw as the mainspring of misogyny could finally give way to gratitude and by associating procreation with women s liberation she advanced the goal of a parity based society in which men and women could write a new human contract The essays lectures and dialogues in this volume finally allow English speaking readers to access the breadth of Fouque s creativity and activism Touching on issues in history and biography politics and psychoanalysis Fouque recounts her experiences running the first women s publishing house in Europe supporting women under threat such as Aung San Suu Kyi Taslima Nasrin and Nawal El Saadaoui and serving as deputy in the European Parliament Her theoretical explorations discuss the ongoing development of feminology a field she initiated and while she celebrates the progress women have made over the past four decades she also warns against the trends of counterliberation the feminization of poverty the persistence of sexual violence and the rise of religious fundamentalism

A Million Ways to Die Rick James, 2010-10-01 We talk a lot about resurrection What about the death that must come first Through story and biblical insight Rick James reminds us that when Jesus tells us to deny ourselves take up our cross and follow him he is describing a path of death not a path to death Giving up our own plans in order to meet someone else s needs Allowing God to shape our dreams even as we lose a relationship a job a hoped for future Being alert to these daily opportunities to die to ourselves is how we discover that every act of dying done in faith leads to spiritual growth As we learn to embrace the little deaths of everyday existence we lose our taste for lifeless religiosity Our appetite for a thriving vibrant life in Christ grows and our own experience motivates others to live out their extraordinary mission on earth In truth death is not an ending It is the only way to experience abundant life Flesh of My Flesh Kaja Silverman,2009-10-28 What is a woman What is a man How do they and how should they relate to each other Does our yearning for wholeness refer to something real and if there is a Whole what is it and why do we feel so estranged from it For centuries now art and literature have increasingly valorized uniqueness and self sufficiency The theoreticians who loom so large within contemporary thought also privilege difference over similarity Silverman reminds us that this is but half the story and a dangerous half at that for if we are all individuals we are doomed to be rivals and enemies A much older story one that prevailed through the early modern era held that likeness or resemblance was what organized the universe and that everything emerges out of the same flesh Silverman shows that analogy so discredited by much of twentieth century thought offers a much more promising view of human relations In the West the emblematic story of turning away is that of Orpheus and Eurydice and the heroes of Silverman s sweeping new reading of nineteenth and twentieth century culture the modern heirs to the old analogical view of the world also gravitate to this myth They embrace the correspondences that bind Orpheus to Eurydice and acknowledge their kinship with others past and present The first half of this book assembles a cast of characters not usually brought together Friedrich Nietzsche Sigmund Freud Marcel Proust Lou Andr as Salom Romain Rolland Rainer Maria Rilke Wilhelm Jensen and Paula Modersohn Becker The second half is devoted to three contemporary artists whose works we see in a moving new light Terrence Malick James Coleman and Gerhard Richter The Joy You Make Steven Petrow,2024-09-10 From award winning Washington Post columnist Steven Petrow a guide to finding joy even during life s most difficult times AN OPEN FIELD PUBLICATION FROM MARIA SHRIVER We all know what it s like to experience the disappointments and sorrows of life Unexpected challenges like layoffs divorce illness and the death of a loved one can leave us hurting and isolated Add to that the unending anxiety we feel at the state of the world political strife and global upheavals and we end up with a recipe for joy Yes says journalist Steven Petrow who has lived through all of those things and arrived at a surprising conclusion Joy is always present in our everyday routines in ties to those we care about even in our grief It may be easier to see and feel it during the good times but we can learn to find joy even in the darkest days All we need is a road map and now we have one In The Joy You Make Petrow explores the many expressions of joy and shows readers how to find cultivate and share it He takes us on a journey from the darkness of the Arctic to a frenetic cancer ward in Manhattan a trip that includes his parents deaths the breakup of his marriage and his sister s cancer diagnosis Combining his personal experiences with research and expert interviews Petrow asks and answers the question What if there was a way to find the joy in everything Come join him on his search and make it yours Sequels Janet G. Think, Write, Speak Vladimir Nabokov, 2019-11-12 A rich compilation of the previously uncollected Russian and English prose and interviews of one of the twentieth century's greatest writers edited by Nabokov experts Brian Boyd and Anastasia Tolstoy I think like a genius I write like a distinguished author and I speak like a child so Vladimir Nabokov famously wrote in the introduction to his volume of selected prose Strong Opinions Think Write Speak follows up where that volume left off with a rich compilation of his uncollected prose and interviews from a 1921 essay about Cambridge to two final interviews in 1977 The chronological order allows us to watch the Cambridge student and the fledgling Berlin reviewer and poet turn into the acclaimed Paris migr novelist whose stature brought him to teach in America where his international success exploded with Lolita and propelled him back to Europe Whether his subject is Proust or Pushkin the sport of boxing or the privileges of democracy Nabokov's supreme individuality his keen wit and his alertness to the details of life illuminate the page

Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 1998-04 Picturing Children Marilyn R. Brown, 2017-07-05 The representation of children in modern European visual culture has often been marginalized by Art History as sentimental and trivial For this reason the subject of childhood in relation to art and its production has largely been ignored Confronting this dismissal this unique collection of essays raises new and unexpected issues about the formation of childhood identity in the nineteenth century and makes a significant contribution to the development of inter disciplinary studies within this area Through a range of stimulating and insightful case studies the book charts the development of the Romantic ideal of childhood starting with Rousseau's Emile and attends to its visual social and psychological transformations during the historical period from which Freud's psychoanalytic theories eventually emerged Foremost scholars such as Anne Higonnet Carol Mavor Susan Casteras and Linda A Pollock uncover the means by which children became an important conduit for prevailing social anxieties and demonstrate that the apparently timeless images of them that proliferated at the time should be understood as complex cultural documents Over 50 illustrations enhance this rich and fascinating volume
