Eugene Field: A Study in Heredity and Contradictions Slason Thompson,2020-12-11 This book features a biographical account of the American writer Eugene Field 1850 1895 best known for his children s poetry and humorous essays There were two Fields the author and the man and it is the purpose of this study to reproduce the latter as he appeared to those who knew and loved him for what he was personally for the benefit of those who have only known him through the medium of his writings In doing this it was far from the author s intention and farther from his friendship to disturb any of the preconceptions that have been formed from the perusal of Field s works as these are the creations of something entirely apart from the man whose genius produced them

Peard,1883 Facing Existential Contradictions Jacques L. Koko Ph.D.,2018-08-01 This book carefully tries to unravel the puzzle of existential contradictions and happiness It reflects and translates piece by piece Surus practice of self examination in the midst of existential contradictions Throughout the lines of Surus adventures or stories the book unveils the transformative potential of self examination for peace and happiness In Surus experience the human journey to peace or happiness is a long one Surus certainly remains a long and challenging one Every time Suru thinks or feels like he has conquered peace or happiness for good he ends up being wrong He ends up losing his peace his happiness escapes and challenges him to keep on running after the goal And when he succeeds in catching up with it anew peace dwells within his mind and heart for some time and escapes again Suru keeps on longing for peace and happiness His road to happiness is filled with contradictions and his search for peace seems endless it is like a lifetime journey Every time the roadblocks of contradictions show up they force the train of Surus journey to stop for a moment Fortunately self examination transforms that stop into the opportunity of a much needed station for the train of his existence At that station Suru pauses and takes the time to evaluate the direction of his existential movement to find his lost peace In the midst of existential contradictions it could be difficult to find peace The path to peace could become nebulous But with the tool of self examination peace is likely to find you *Ch. Contradictions and Limits of Neoliberal European Governance J. Drahokoupil,L. Horn,2008-11-27 An ambitious volume that sets out to analyse the nature contradictions and limits of neoliberal governance in the EU The analysis covers the changing geopolitical and geo economic context the Lisbon agenda and the contestation and mobilization against the European project such as manifested in the national resistance against the constitution The Oxford History of the Novel in English Cyrus R. K. Patell,Deborah Lindsay Williams,2024-03-05 The Oxford History of the Novel in English is a twelve volume series presenting a comprehensive global and up to date history of English language prose fiction written by a large international team of scholars The series is concerned with novels as a whole not just the literary novel and each volume includes chapters on the processes of production distribution and reception and on popular fiction and the fictional sub genres as well as outlining the work of major novelists movements and tendencies This book offers an account of US fiction during a period demarcated by two traumatic moments the eve of the entry of the United States into the Second World War and the onset of the Covid 19 pandemic The aftermath of the Second World War was arguably the high point of US nationalism but in the years that followed US writers would increasingly explore the possibility that US democracy was a failure both at home and abroad For so many of the writers whose work this volume explores the idea of nation became suspect as did the idea of national literature as the foundation for US writing Looking at post 1940s writing the literary historian might well chart a movement within literary cultures away from nationalism and toward what we would call cosmopolitanism a perspective that fosters conversations between the occupants of different cultural spaces and that regards difference as an opportunity to be embraced rather than a problem to be solved During this period the novel has had significant competition for the US public s attention from other forms of narrative and media film television comic books videogames and the internet and the various forms of social media that it spawned If however the novel becomes a residual form during this period it is by no means archaic The novel has been reinvigorated over the past eighty years by its encounters with both emergent forms such as film television comic books and digital media and the emergent voices typically associated with multiculturalism in the United States The Cultural Contradictions of Motherhood Sharon

Hays,1996-01-01 Working mothers today confront not only conflicting demands on their time and energy but also conflicting ideas about how they are to behave they must be nurturing and unselfish while engaged in child rearing but competitive and ambitious at work As more and more women enter the workplace it would seem reasonable for society to make mothering a simpler and more efficient task Instead Sharon Hays points out in this original and provocative book an ideology of intensive mothering has developed that only exacerbates the tensions working mothers face Drawing on ideas about mothering since the Middle Ages on contemporary childrearing manuals and on in depth interviews with mothers from a range of social classes Hays traces the evolution of the ideology of intensive mothering an ideology that holds the individual mother primarily responsible for child rearing and dictates that the process is to be child centered expert guided emotionally absorbing labor intensive and financially expensive Hays argues that these ideas about appropriate mothering stem from a fundamental ambivalence about a system based solely on the competitive pursuit of individual interests In attempting to deal with our deep uneasiness about self interest we have imposed unrealistic and unremunerated obligations and commitments on mothering making it into an opposing force a primary field on which this cultural ambivalence is played out
