Unit Springboard Example Reflection:

Reflections on Language Teacher Identity Research Gary Barkhuizen, 2016-11-10 Reflections on Language Teacher Identity Research is the first book to present understandings of language teacher identity LTI from a broad range of research fields Drawing on their personal research experience 41 contributors locate LTI within their area of expertise by considering their conceptual understanding of LTI and the methodological approaches used to investigate it The chapters are narrative in nature and take the form of guided reflections within a common chapter structure with authors embedding their discussions within biographical accounts of their professional lives and research work Authors weave discussions of LTI into their own research biographies employing a personal reflective style This book also looks to future directions in LTI research with suggestions for research topics and methodological approaches This is an ideal resource for students and researchers interested in language teacher identity as well as language teaching and research more generally Reflective Dialogue Satoko Kato, Jo Mynard, 2015-07-16 Reflective Dialogue presents professional educators with the necessary background and skills to engage in reflective dialogue with language learners effectively It draws on work in the fields of advising in language learning reflective practice sociocultural theory language learner autonomy counseling and life coaching to provide both an introduction to the field and guidance for researching advising in action The book also includes a wide variety of practical ideas and over 30 sample dialogues that offer clear demonstrations of the concepts discussed in practice This dynamic textbook's practical approach illustrates how reflective dialogue can promote language learner autonomy and how language advising can be implemented successfully both inside and outside the classroom Parallel Curriculum Units for Social Studies, Grades 6-12 Jeanne H. Purcell, Jann H. Leppien, 2009-10-29 There is a freshness to Purcell and Leppien's approach transforming the curriculum into a platform for active investigation of our rapidly changing world Your learners become 21st century social scientists as they engage in probing timely issues and problems Heidi Hayes Jacobs Curriculum Expert and Author President Curriculum Designers Inc Design Parallel Curriculum units for in depth learning in social studies The Parallel Curriculum Model PCM as described in the best selling book The Parallel Curriculum is a framework for developing a dynamic curriculum that helps students acquire expertise in specific subject areas This resource deepens teachers understanding of how to use the PCM to provide rigorous learning opportunities for students in social studies In Parallel Curriculum Units for Social Studies Grades 6-12 experienced teachers contribute sample social studies units that demonstrate what high quality curriculum looks like within a PCM framework Covering history geography sociology and interdisciplinary studies these field tested units each contain Teacher explanations of the unit design Connections to concepts skills and standards Step by step directions for delivering the lessons and units Modification strategies and methods for assessment Use these examples to design your own units and enhance your ability to provide challenging curriculum tailored to the abilities interests and learning preferences of each learner Reflective Practice Janet Hargreaves, Louise

Page,2013-12-19 Reflective practice is an essential skill for those working in health and social care but why is it so vital and how can it be learned As inter disciplinary working becomes more common finding shared ways of reflection on practice are becoming more and more important How do we share our ideas and thoughts to enrich both professionals and their client base This book uses stories and exercises to enable readers to develop their skills Its emphasis is on the practical from how to construct a reflective essay to the ethical ambiguities of whistleblowing and constructing a professional persona The book is written with the needs of students of health and social care in mind For those who want to develop their skills beyond the scope of the book each chapter ends by with a step up suggestion enabling them to build on what they have already learned

Family Support as Reflective Practice John Canavan,John Pinkerton,Pat Dolan,2006-01-27 Contributors to this book provide international perspectives on core issues in family support Providing a combination of clear theoretical frameworks and practical guidance with clear how to messages and a strong emphasis on evaluation this book will be of interest to social workers working in all areas of family support K-12 Teacher Inquiry and Reflections Marjori Krebs,Cheryl A.

Torrez,2022-03-25 K 12 Teacher Inquiry and Reflections A Pathway to Enduring Transformation features the key components of a five semester graduate program with a focus on Reflective Practice MARP for K 12 classroom teachers In this program students focus on the study of their own teaching action research implementation and analysis reflective practice experiences and transformations teachers experienced because of their participation in this program The book is divided into three sections and an introduction The Introduction explains the historical foundations of MARP with an in depth exploration of the key elements of MARP featuring the voices of its founders Section One features detailed explanations of action research PK teachers conducted followed by a long term reflection of their MARP experiences and its effects on them as teachers Section Two includes chapters written by teachers explaining how they thoughtfully transformed their teaching practices and their overall teaching philosophies In Section Three faculty who teach in this five semester graduate program describe their own collaborative teaching experiences for students key assignments course objectives classroom activities readings and discussions that are the foundation of the MARP experience for students Brain-Compatible Mathematics

Diane Ronis,2015-07-14 Students brains are wired to make them natural curious learners The mathematical world around them offers a vast classroom filled with shapes spaces quantities and experiences to discover and explore all leading to the construction of understanding Teachers can use this natural curiosity to tap the inborn neural mechanisms that motivate students to learn to make relevance and meaning of their surroundings Brain Compatible Mathematics Second Edition bridges the findings from the realms of brain research and improved mathematics instruction through updated teaching samples connections to the most recent standards newest research findings and integration to other content areas Each brain is different and when teachers teach problem solving skills to help students arrive at their own solution paths students go beyond mere memorization of facts and algorithms to being an actual participant in the development of mathematical understanding In an informative and relevant approach Diane Ronis presents teachers and math leaders with an emphasis on thinking mathematical representation and construction of ideas and an abundance of Sample lessons units and strategies linked to 2000 NCTM standards Brain friendly strategies for math teaching that meet NCLB requirements How to guides for creating more brain tuned math teaching Ideas for incorporating technology into the math curriculum Planning templates for immediate use By integrating math learning into real world applications students can actively practice what they learn make meaning out of their everyday experiences and think mathematically for success within today s information age

Catholic Schools and the Future of the Church Kathleen Engebretson,2014-02-27 During the first decade of the 21st century the Catholic Church in the developed world has faced a decline in its moral authority increasing accusations of irrelevance to a secular age and a steep and steady decline in commitment among successive generations from the 1960s on Despite this Catholic schools have multiplied and grown in popularity and educational achievement The book sets out a programme for the contribution of Catholic schools to the future of the Church covering such topics as the religious education curriculum in its cognitive and affective aspects the sacramental life of the school selection of staff the issue of staff and Catholic witness and many other topics Engebretson argues that Catholic schools are a powerful key to the future of the Church and shows how within their diversity Catholic schools can be ecclesial communities which have at their heart the building up of the Church

Cultural Reflections John Gaughan,1997 Cultural Reflections takes the best from a writing process approach and adds a social dimension demonstrating how to make cultural criticism the driving force in the high school English curriculum Students carry different baggage than we did when we were in school what engaged students thirty years ago does not engage them today Cultural Reflections acknowledges those differences and addresses them in ways that make sense to teachers and keep students interested Gaughan s work is that of a master teacher continually developing his craft drawing insight from his students and featuring them in his accounts From him readers will learn about the importance of names and naming not only for their students but also for themselves They will learn new ways to think about language and the racist sexist and political assumptions that sometimes underlie the words we use And they will see how teaching thematically removes the curricular constraints imposed by chronological approaches to literature The book will help broaden teachers notions of what constitutes legitimate texts to include not only young adult and contemporary multicultural texts but audio and video texts as well Preservice and inservice English teachers will find in Cultural Reflections a compelling vision for rethinking what English is or can be Tom Romano writes in the foreword After reading it you might revise your teaching You might take charge in a new way
