

What Factors in Language Learning?

Yves Rogier (standing) explains to two participating youth and adult scholars the ways to make use of language resources. They examine a map together, comparing their own to a second language in order to understand that better language. He also presented a personal CD collection to show the building and learning of language with others as a higher level. Rogier also gave a personal guide to his experience learning in the high school and college levels. "Yves Rogier is a young man on the outside who is actually the heart of language resources and studies nationally. The presentation shows how learning resources can be used to make the most of your own."
