Engulfed Bernard F. Dick, 2021-09-22 From Double Indemnity 1944 to The Godfather 1972 the stories behind some of the greatest films ever made pale beside the story of the studio that made them In the golden age of Hollywood Paramount was one of the Big Five studios Gulf Western's 1966 takeover of the studio signaled the end of one era and heralded the arrival of a new way of doing business in Hollywood Bernard F Dick reconstructs the battle that reduced the studio to a mere corporate commodity and traces Paramount's devolution from freestanding studio to subsidiary first of Gulf Western then of Paramount Communications and currently of Viacom CBS Dick portrays the new Paramount as a paradigm of today's Hollywood where the only real art is the art of the deal In modern Hollywood former merchandising executives find themselves in charge of production on the assumption that anyone who can sell a movie can make one CEOs exit in disgrace from one studio only to emerge in triumph at another Corporate raiders vie for power and control purchasing and selling film libraries studio property television stations book publishers and more The history of Paramount is filled with larger than life people including Billy Wilder Adolph Zukor Sumner Redstone Shari Redstone Sherry Lansing Barry Diller Michael Eisner Jeffrey Katzenberg and more

Women and New Hollywood Aaron Hunter, Martha Shearer, 2023-05-12 The 1970s has often been hailed as a great moment for American film as a generation of New Hollywood directors like Scorsese Coppola and Altman offered idiosyncratic visions of what movies could be Yet the auteurist discourse hailing these directors as the sole authors of their films has obscured the important creative roles women played in the 1970s American film industry Women and New Hollywood revises our understanding of this important era in American film by examining the contributions that women made not only as directors but also as screenwriters editors actors producers and critics Including essays on film history film texts and the decade's film theory and criticism this collection showcases the rich and varied cinematic products of women's creative labor as well as the considerable barriers they faced It considers both women working within and beyond the Hollywood film industry reconceptualizing New Hollywood by bringing it into dialogue with other American cinemas of the 1970s By valuing the many forms of creative labor involved in film production this collection offers exciting alternatives to the auteurist model and new ways of appreciating the themes and aesthetics of 1970s American film

Haunted by Shadows Brenda George, 2015-04-20 In 1950 Tony Bettellini is seven years old when his haunting beautiful mother Clothilde becomes the mistress of a powerful Harlem drug lord Royston Carter to escape a life of prostitution on the streets. Tony harbors deep inside him hidden terrors stemming from his early childhood. As the only white boy in a poor Negro gang, Tony experiences the colorful streets of Harlem for five years. However, he despises the enigmatic Royston and runs away at the age of twelve hanging around Times Square where he struggles to survive but develops his passion for acting. In 1967 Tony, a handsome young Irish Italian, is outwardly warm, funny, and happy-go-lucky. He works in a famous old restaurant in Times Square which attracts movie and Broadway stars, showgirls, and celebrities. Unable to afford decent accommodation, he lives in a slum tenement on the Lower East Side. His best friends are long-haired Sonny Gracia, a Vietnam vet and anti-war activist who lost a lower leg, and his Vietnamese sweetheart while serving in the war, and a cute feisty seven-year-old Negro boy Billy who is a street child. Tony is having a tumultuous affair with glamorous international model and heiress Veronica Idlewild. When he falls madly in love with a beautiful blond girl from Virginia Shenandoah Buchanan, Sonny too falls hopelessly in love, but with his best friend's girl. Terrible things start to happen which culminate in Tony being arrested for a brutal murder of a drug dealer. In the sensational trial that follows, the ruthless District Attorney for Manhattan John Sirilli is pushing for the death penalty. Set in the 1950s and the radical upheaval of the 1960s, Haunted by Shadows is another unforgettable epic novel by the author Brenda George.

The Critics' Canon Richard Hudson Palmer, 1988-10-19 Palmer clearly states that his purpose is to explain the ways of critics to theatre practitioners, the ways of theatre to inexperienced reviewers, and the dynamic convergence of theatre and critic to anyone interested in theatre. The work is a well-written primer for writers and it will be useful primarily to performers who object to unfavorable criticism without understanding the nature and purpose of reviewing. Accessible to general readers and undergraduates, Choice, Palmer begins with an examination of the theatrical review as a medium for informing and entertaining theatregoers, documenting events of artistic or community importance and supporting theatre through critical evaluation and publicity. He next comments on how journalistic pressures affect reviewers. Citing brief examples from hundreds of reviews, the author devotes a chapter to each of the elements that needs to be covered in a review, including performers, script, direction, music, and choreography, together with stage and lighting design and other physical aspects of the production. The final chapter develops criteria for assessing the strengths and weaknesses of a theatrical review based on aesthetic standards, the cultural tastes of theatregoers, and the interests of the community. Palmer's experience as both a theatre professional and a journalist gives him an intimate understanding of the antagonism that often develops between reviewers and those who feel themselves to be the target of irresponsible criticism. His book provides a clear perspective on theatrical matters and guidelines that will help to improve standards of reviewing and create an appreciation of the essential relationship between the theatre and its
