Malkas,2023-12-20 About the Book The Road to Redemption is a revisionist history of what writers have been doing to revise the teaching of American history for generations The book presents an alternate approach that takes readers back to a time when the nation was more united and schools prepared students to become victors instead of victims by presenting to them how America evolved into what now is the most powerful country in the world It draws attention to those who are dedicated to destroy advancing man s natural instincts to assimilate and allow all people to live useful lives The intention of RTR is to open minds by providing unbiased accounts of what has happened to man s universal search for meaning and the obstacles that had to be overcome when those in power used their position to serve personal needs and the methods taken to achieve them It can be looked at as a classroom where the next generation will be prepared to accept their opportunities to live fruitful lives and position them to be free thinkers If parents believe schools are not serving the needs of children they should become a more proactive part in the process The Road to Redemption provides a blue print for them to take back control of their children s future About the Author The author s professional career became at an early age when he decided that teaching history would become his future He realized it would not be easy coming from a blue collar family where funds were scarce The solution was attending and graduating from an Illinois junior college then commuting from the south side of Chicago to DePaul University each day to earn a B A in history and political science and later a M A from the same institution He became a teacher at Mother of Sorrows High School and was on its faculty for 17 years teaching History and English Ten of those years he served as Assistant Principal and held that position until MOS was forced to close because it could not compete with government funded public schools He next turned his attention to aviation and became manager of the Lansing Municipal Airport and served in that position for the next 23 years until 2008 After his retirement he turned to writing about topics he was proficient in The Village of Lansing and its Airport Past Present Future has been published recently He has written over 40 articles for the Lansing Journal newspaper on topics of community interest Those can be found if you Google Bob v High School Memoirs: a Journey in Surrealism Sean C. Classroom Assessment in Multiple Languages Margo Gottlieb,2021-01-02 What if multilingual learners had the freedom to interact in more than one language with their peers during classroom assessment What if multilingual learners and their teachers in dual language settings had opportunities to use assessment data in multiple languages to make decisions Just imagine the rich linguistic academic and cultural reservoirs we could tap as we determine what our multilingual learners know and can do Thankfully Margo Gottlieb is here to provide concrete and actionable guidance on how to create assessment systems that enable understanding of the whole student not just that fraction of the student who is only visible as an English learner With Classroom Assessment in Multiple Languages as your guide you ll Better understand the rationale for and evidence on the value and advantages of classroom assessment in multiple languages Add to your toolkit of classroom assessment practices in one or multiple languages Be more precise and effective in your assessment of multilingual learners by embedding assessment as for and of learning into your instructional repertoire Recognize how social emotional content and language learning are all tied to classroom assessment Guide multilingual learners in having voice and choice in the assessment process Despite the urgent need assessment for multilingual learners is generally tucked into a remote chapter if touched upon at all in a book the number of resources narrows even more when multiple languages are brought into play Here at last is that single resource on how educators and multilingual learners can mutually value languages and cultures in instruction and assessment throughout the school day and over time We encourage you to get started right away Margo Gottlieb has demonstrated why the field particularly the field as it involves the teaching of multilingual learners needs another assessment book particularly a book like this Classroom Assessment in Multiple Languages quite likely could serve as a catalyst toward the beginning of an enlightened discourse around assessment that will benefit multilingual learners Kathy Escamilla

PhD, 2015-12-05 The ultimate defeat of a nation begins at home When the ethical values of the people at the personal family and social levels degenerate the spiritual intellectual and physical health of the nation also gets weakened Mankind has only two kinds of core values some religions command to love even the enemies while others command to kill the enemies USA is not just the most powerful nation in the world It is also the most coveted society in the world because of its highest quality value system due to Biblical Christian faith Ultimately there is only one God one mankind one problem one solution and hence there can have only one value system for mankind But the shadow of a great global tension and suicidal mutual conflict caused by the many contradictory god views religions worldviews truth claims ideologies and value systems is right now visible Defending the high ideal of loving the enemies could be easy But the ultimate challenge of foreign policy is about practicing the high ideals of the nation even in the process of defending those ideals in a crooked and inimical world The biggest dilemma in US foreign policy is whether it can practice its value of even loving its enemies and still exist as a nation to defend its values Practicing the values and defending the values should go hand in hand A very judicious combination of practicing the values and defending those who hold the value system are essential due to individual eternal consequences To defend the values of freedom unfortunately the USA had to succumb to death and murder during the cold war in effect failing to practice its values in the process of defending it Hence the struggle confronting individuals from the family level to the international levels is the struggle of practicing the high values at the real life situations The shocking truth is that victorious Christian life always demands self sacrifice But there are false gods religions and value systems whose followers don't have to follow any of these values and hence have an easy life It is high time to realize that anything that comes in the name of any god religion or worldview is not safe The core values function as the touchstone for testing the quality of any god religion worldview or truth claim Mankind cannot peacefully survive if communities of people don't have good values and morality to practice Faulty definitions of freedom and secularism have led to the growth of evil to such levels where now people will have to resort to killing for survival Hence the state governments must implement the right view of secularism It will be suicidal to any society to allow anyone to promote evil values in the name of religious freedom and secularism It should become the primary responsibility of the supreme legal system in any nation to examine the basic documents of the religions identify and declare which ones contain unhealthy values affecting the character of the people The State should not allow any group to promote and practice unhealthy values in the label of any religion The values of the Christian faith are undeniable that no legal system can deny these values and the evils which Christian faith prohibits no legal system can approve It stands for loving enemy and telling the truth Those who reject Christian faith can never stand on a more logical faith It is written in the Bible that Jesus died on the cross for mankind and rose from the dead on the third day Those who have the wisdom to believe these plain facts will be able to believe that Jesus is in fact the true God in human form and will worship Him
