Mobilities: New Perspectives on Transport and Society John Urry, 2016-04-22. Bringing together the leading authors currently working at the intersection of social science and transport science, this volume provides a companion to the well established and extensive international Transport and Society series. Each chapter and the volume as a whole offers closer and richer consideration of the issues, practices and structures of multiple mobilities which shape the current world but which have typically been overlooked or minimised. What this approach seeks to do is not only draw attention to many new areas of research and investigation relating to mobile lives but also to point to new theories and methods by which such lives have to be researched and examined. Such new theories and methods are relevant both to rethinking transport studies as such but are also recasting societal studies as transport so that it comes out of the ghetto and enters mainstream social science.

Staging Mobilities Ole B. Jensen, 2013. This text is about the fact that mobility is more than movement between point A and B. It concerns how the movement of people, goods, information and signs influences human understandings of self, other and the built environment.

Post-Socialist Urban Infrastructures (OPEN ACCESS) Tauri Tuvikene, Wladimir Sgibnev, Carola S. Neugebauer, 2019-05-15. Post Socialist Urban Infrastructures critically elaborates on often forgotten but some of the most essential aspects of contemporary urban life, namely infrastructures and links them to a discussion of post socialist transformation. As the skeletons of cities, infrastructures capture the ways in which urban environments are assembled and urban lives unfold. Focusing on post socialist cities marked by neoliberalisation, polarisation and hybridity, this book offers new and enriching perspectives on urban infrastructures by centering on the often marginalised aspects of urban research: transport, green spaces and water and heating provision. Featuring cases from West and East alike, the book covers examples from Azerbaijan, Bulgaria, Serbia, Croatia, Germany, Russia, Georgia, Lithuania, Poland, the Czech Republic, Tajikistan and India. It provides original insights into the infrastructural back end of post socialist cities for scholars, planners and activists interested in urban geography, cultural and social anthropology and urban studies.
