The spirit of Black Hawk Jason Berry,1995 Spiritual and Social Transformation in African American Spiritual Churches Margarita Simon Guillory,2017-12-22 At the core of African American religion s response to social inequalities has been a symbiotic relationship between socio political activism and spiritual restoration Drawing on archival material and ethnographic fieldwork with African American Spiritual Churches in the USA this book examines how their spiritual and social work can shed light on the interplay between corporate activism and individual spirituality This book traces the development of this politico spiritual approach to injustice from the beginning of the twentieth century through the opening decade of the twenty first century using the work of African American Spiritual Churches as a lens through which to observe its progression Addressing subjects such as spiritual healing support of the homeless gender equality and the aftermath of hurricane Katrina it demonstrates that these communities are clearly motivated by the dual concerns of the soul and the community This study diversifies our understanding of the African American religious landscape highlighting an approach to social injustice that conjoins both political and spiritual transformations As such it will be of significant interest to scholars of religious studies African American studies and politics The Black Spiritual Movement Hans A. The Spiritual Churches of New Orleans Claude F. Jacobs, Andrew J. Kaslow, 2001 The New Orleans Spiritual churches constitute a distinctive African American belief system Influenced by Catholicism Pentecostalism Spiritualism and Voodoo the group is a New World syncretic faith similar to Espiritismo Santería and Umbanda The Spiritual Churches of New Orleans combines a historical account of the emergence of this religion with careful ethnographic description of current congregations At the same time text and photographs eloquently convey the ecstasy at the heart of the Spiritual experience The Spiritual churches began in the 1920s as a women's movement Men later assumed leadership in an effort to legitimate the group within the New Orleans religious community and form associations with Spiritual churches elsewhere in the United States Unlike earlier researchers who treated practices in the churches as expressions of black folk traditions the authors see Spiritual ritual not as based on magic but as the way the sacred is acted out within an African American aesthetic During worship members may be filled by the Holy Spirit as in Pentecostal churches or entertain spirits or spirit guides as in Spiritualism or Voodoo Prophecy and healing are presented as the markers of this faith and the Native American figure Black Hawk as a major symbol of empowerment Based on extensive interviews with church members years of participant observation and careful research in documentary sources this book achieves rigorous conceptual clarity in a straightforward engaging style The Authors Claude F Jacobs holds a Ph D in anthropology from Tulane University He teaches at Oakland University Andrew J Kaslow holds a Ph D in anthropology from Columbia University He is a consultant to international organizations Jazz Religion, the Second Line, and Black New Orleans Richard Brent Turner, 2016-10-17 This scholarly study demonstrates that while post Hurricane Katrina New Orleans is changing the vibrant traditions of jazz must continue Journal of African American History An examination of the musical religious and political landscape of black New Orleans before and after Hurricane Katrina this revised edition looks at how these factors play out in a new millennium of global apartheid Richard Brent Turner explores the history and contemporary significance of second lines the group of dancers who follow the first procession of church and club members brass bands and grand marshals in black New Orleans s jazz street parades Here music and religion interplay and Turner s study reveals how these identities and traditions from Haiti and West and Central Africa are reinterpreted He also describes how second line participants create their own social space and become proficient in the arts of political disguise resistance and performance Sisters in the Wilderness Dolores S. pathbreaking work the first comparative study of women's religions Susan Starr Sered seeks answers to these compelling questions Looking for common threads linking groups as diverse as the ancestral cults of the Black Caribs of Belize Korean shamanism Christian Science and the Feminist Spirituality movement Sered finds that motherhood and motherly concerns play a vital role in these female dominated groups Nurturing and concern for others are at the center as are healing arts and ways of dealing with illness and the death of children Religion not only enables women to find sacred meaning in their daily lives from the preparation of food to caring for their families but an offer intense and personal relationships with deities and spirits often through ecstatic possession trance as well as opportunities to celebrate and mourn with other women By examining the shared experiences of women across great cultural divides Priestess Mother Sacred Sister offers a new understanding of the role gender plays in determining how individuals grapple with the ultimate questions of existence In the process it not only highlights the profound differences between men and women but the equally important ways in which we are all alike

Carnival Art, Culture and Politics Michaeline

Crichlow, 2013-09-13 Drawing on rich insights from cultural post structural and postcolonial studies this book demands that we rethink Carnival and the carnivalesque as not just celebratory moments or even as critical subtext but also as insightful performatives of social life anywhere given the entangled times and spaces of these performances The authors review Carnival s performative aspects not merely as a calendrical festival but rather center attention on the relationship between carnival and everyday life and on how people negotiate their social spaces and possibilities in the context of modern power The book therefore seeks to highlight the knotted time spaces of power and to demonstrate the dynamic interplay between state spaces and people s spaces that are being weaved by carnival s interlocutors It demonstrates how Carnival and the Carnivalesque become analytic optics through which the relations of power in the social and political life of subjects who seek to tacitly or strategically vary their given identities can be productively engaged This book was originally published as a special issue of Social Identities Journal for the Study of Race Nation and Culture
