

Sour Howes

better known locally as Appleshwaite Common

1568

from Troutbeck

Although all maps agree that the summit of this fell is named Sour Howes, its broadest flank, carrying the Garburn Pass Road down to Troutbeck, is far better known as Appleshwaite Common; this flank is traversed also by the pleasant Dubs Road. There is little about the fell to attract walkers, and nothing to justify a detour from the main Ill Bell ridge to the north, for although the views are really good they are better from the main ridge. There is heather on the eastern slopes, and therefore, inevitably, grouse; and therefore, inevitably, shooting birds; one may admire the construction of these birds while deploing their purpose.

Peak Bagging: Wainwrights Karen Parker, Dan Parker, 2021-11-11 Over fifty years ago renowned British hillwalker and guidebook author Alfred Wainwright described 214 peaks in the English Lake District in his seven volume illustrated Pictorial Guide to the Lakeland Fells Like the Munros in Scotland bagging all the Wainwrights has become a popular and significant challenge for walkers and runners often taking many years in fits and starts because of the absence of a clear plan for how to link them together With this problem in mind Peak Bagging Wainwrights by Karen and Dan Parker features forty five routes designed to link up these iconic fells so you can enjoy the challenge of completing them at your own pace over years months or even just a few weeks It presents not only the most efficient routes for completing the Wainwrights as quickly as possible but does so in such a way that each route is a fantastic walk or run in its own right. The featured routes include a round of the Scafells and the Glenridding Horseshoe taking in Helvellyn and Catstycam. The routes are split into seven sections reflecting Wainwright's seven Pictorial Guides and to simplify logistics all of the featured routes are circular with an emphasis on making practical links between the summits. In addition, the book is packed with useful information including 1:40,000 scale maps, elevation profiles, public transport and parking details, refreshments, downloadable GPX files for each route and custom timings for walkers, trekkers, fastpackers and runners. Also included are overview details of Steve Birkinshaw's then record-breaking sub-seven-day Wainwrights run in 2014, current record holder Sabrina Verjee, who completed the round in under six days. Whatever your timescale for completing the 214 Wainwrights Peak Bagging, Wainwrights is the indispensable guide to this British hill challenge.

Wainwright's Lost Tour Ed Geldard, 2010-03-15 A magnificently illustrated reconstruction of Wainwright's legendary May 1931 tour of the Lakes.

Pictorial Guide to the Lakeland Fells Alfred Wainwright, 2005-04 The Eastern Fells includes the greatest single concentrated mass of high ground in Lakeland, a tremendous barrier running north and south, high and steep all along its length, rising to above 3000 feet on Helvellyn, the most often climbed mountain in the Lake District. Popular resorts such as Ambleside and Grasmere lie in this sector of the fells, as does the beautiful Patterdale valley, the best base in Wainwright's view for exploring the area. This second edition of The Eastern Fells by the legendary A. Wainwright has been brilliantly revised by Chris Jesty, a trained cartographer who worked with Wainwright on some of the maps in his later large-format guides. All footpaths have been rewalked, all routes checked, all maps and text updated. Paths and routes have been picked out in red to make them easier to follow, and parking information has been added. This new edition of the classic walking guide is Wainwright for the 21st century.

It's a Hill, Get Over It Steve Chilton, 2013-09-19 This book offers a detailed history of the sport of fell running. It also tells the stories of some of the great exponents of the sport through the ages. Many of them achieved greatness whilst still working full-time in traditional jobs, a million miles away from the professionalism of other branches of athletics nowadays. The book covers the early days of the sport right through to it going global with World Championships. Along the way, it profiles influential athletes such as Fred Reeves, Bill Teasdale, Kenny Stuart, Joss Naylor and Billy and Gavin Bland. It gives background to the athletes, including their upbringing, introduction to the sport, training, working life, records and achievements. It also includes in-depth conversations with some of the greats such as Jeff Norman and Rob Jebb. The author is a committed runner and qualified athletics coach. He has considerable experience of fell running, competing in the World Vets Champs when it was held in Keswick in 2005. He is a long-time member of the Fell Runners Association (FRA). Using a mixture of personal experience, material from extensive interviews, and that provided by an extensive range of published and unpublished sources, a comprehensive history of the sport and its characters and values is revealed.
