River explorer Levison Wood takes on his greatest challenge yet navigating the treacherous foothills of the Himalayas the world s highest mountain range Praised by Bear Grylls Levison Wood has been called the toughest man on TV The Times UK Now following in the footsteps of the great explorers Levison recounts the beauty and danger he found along the Silk Road route of Afghanistan the Line of Control between Pakistan and India the disputed territories of Kashmir and the earth quake ravaged lands of Nepal Over the course of six months Wood and his trusted guides trek 1 700 gruelling miles across the roof of the world Packed with action and emotion Walking the Himalayas is the story of one intrepid man s travels in a world poised on the edge of tremendous change      The Walking Dead at Saqqara Lara Weiss,2022-06-21 Funerary rituals and the cult of the dead are classics of research in religious studies especially for ancient Egypt Still we know relatively little about how people interacted in daily life at the city of Memphis and its Saqqara necropolis in the late second millennium BCE

By focussing on lived ancient religion we can see that the social and religious strategies employed by the individuals at Saqqara are not just means on the way to religious post mortem salvation nor is their self representation simply intended to manifest social status On the contrary the religious practices at Saqqara show in their complex spatiality a wide spectrum of options to configure sociality before and after one s own death The analytical distinction between religion and other forms of human practices and sociality illuminates the range of cultural practices and how people selected modified or even avoided certain religious practices As a result pre funerary funerary and practices of the subsequent mortuary cults in close connection with religious practices directed towards other ancestors and deities allow the formation of imagined and functioning reminiscence clusters as central social groups at Saqqara creating a heuristic model applicable also to other contexts

The God Walking Program Larry A Brown, Sr,2009-10 From the beginning of time God has instilled in each one of us a yearning for a higher being Searching for this higher being has forced us to look deep within ourselves for the answers As time goes on our belief that God has a plan for us personally dwindles to a minute awareness and we find ourselves wandering from church to church longing for the blessings of God that have eluded us for so many years Larry Brown s The God Walking Program Steps Leading Us to the Father s Will takes readers on a journey through the Bible in a simple yet insightful conversation with God Using passages of Scripture from all throughout the Bible The God Walking Program ultimately points to one undeniable truth Jesus Christ is the way to the Father s will No matter how educated or uneducated you are in the Bible you will no doubt come away with a better understanding of your relationship with Jesus Christ and the blessings that come from this union
