Country Reports on Human Rights Practices ,1991 The Americans Are Coming! Robert Trent Vinson,2012-01-15 For more than half a century before World War II black South Africans and American Negroes a group that included African Americans and black West Indians established close institutional and personal relationships that laid the necessary groundwork for the successful South African and American antiapartheid movements Though African Americans suffered under Jim Crow racial discrimination oppressed Africans saw African Americans as free people who had risen from slavery to success and were role models and potential liberators Many African Americans regarded initially by the South African government as honorary whites exempt from segregation also saw their activities in South Africa as a divinely ordained mission to establish Africa for Africans liberated from European empires The Jamaican born Marcus Garvey's Universal Negro Improvement Association the largest black led movement with two million members and supporters in forty three countries at its height in the early 1920s was the most anticipated source of liberation Though these liberation prophecies went unfulfilled black South Africans continued to view African Americans as inspirational models and as critical partners in the global antiapartheid struggle The Americans Are Coming is a rare case study that places African history and American history in a global context and centers Africa in African Diaspora studies One Hundred Years of the ANC Arianna Lissoni, Jon Soske, 2012-11-01 An examination of the ANC in its centennial year On 8 January 2012 the African National Congress ANC of South Africa the oldest African nationalist organisation on the continent celebrated its one hundredth anniversary This historic event has generated significant public debate within both the ANC and South African society at large There is no better time to critically reflect on the ANC's historical trajectory and struggle against colonialism and apartheid than in its centennial year One Hundred Years of the ANC is a collection of new work by renowned South African and international scholars Covering a broad chronological and geographical spectrum and using a diverse range of sources the contributors build upon but also extend the historiography of the ANC by tapping into marginal spaces in ANC history By moving away from the celebratory mode that has characterised much of the contemporary discussions on the centenary the contributors suggest that the relationship between the histories of earlier struggles and the present needs to be rethought in more complex terms Collectively the book chapters challenge hegemonic narratives that have become an established part of South Africa's national discourse since 1994 By opening up debate around controversial or obscured aspects of the ANC's century long history One hundred years of the ANC sets out an agenda for future research The book is directed at a wide readership with an interest in understanding the historical roots of South Africa's current politics will find this volume informative This book is based on a selection of papers presented at the One Hundred Years of the ANC Debating Liberation Histories and Democracy Today Conference held at the University of Witwatersrand Johannesburg from 20-23 September 2011 Dictionary of African Biography Emmanuel Kwaku Akyeampong, Professor Henry Louis Gates, Jr., 2012-02-02 From the Pharaohs to Fanon Dictionary of African Biography provides a comprehensive overview of the lives of the men and women who shaped Africa's history Unprecedented in scale DAB covers the whole continent from Tunisia to South Africa from Sierra Leone to Somalia It also encompasses the full scope of history from Queen Hatsheput of Egypt 1490-1468 BC and Hannibal the military commander and strategist of Carthage 243-183 BC to Kwame Nkrumah of Ghana 1909-1972 Miriam Makeba and Nelson Mandela of South Africa 1918 Telemedicine Georgi Grashew, Stefan Rakowsky, 2011-06-20

Telemedicine is a rapidly evolving field as new technologies are implemented for example for the development of wireless sensors quality data transmission Using the Internet applications such as counseling clinical consultation support and home care monitoring and management are more and more realized which improves access to high level medical care in underserved areas The 23 chapters of this book present manifold examples of telemedicine treating both theoretical and practical foundations and application scenarios
