CIVIC EDUCATION I

1 hour

Constructive Test

Do not open this booklet until you are told to do so. While you are waiting, write your name and index number in the spaces provided at the top right-hand corner of this paper and thereafter, read the following instructions carefully.

1. Use HB pencil throughout.
2. If you have got a blank answer sheet, complete its top section as follows.
 - (a) In the space marked Name, write in capital letters your surname followed by your other names.
 - (b) In the spaces marked Examination, Year, Subject and Paper, write 'WASSCE (SC)', '2022', 'CIVIC EDUCATION', and '1' respectively.
 - (c) In the box marked Index Number, write your index number vertically in the spaces on the left-hand side. There are numbered spaces in line with each digit. Shade carefully the space with the same number as each digit.
 - (d) In the box marked Paper Code, write the digits 216112 in the spaces on the left-hand side. Shade the corresponding numbered spaces in the same way as for your index number.
 - (e) In the box marked Sex, shade the space marked M if you are male, or F if you are female.
3. If you have got a pre-printed answer sheet, check that the details are correctly printed, as described in 2 above. In the boxes marked Index Number, Paper Code and Sex, resshade each of the shaded spaces.
4. An example is given below. This is for a male candidate whose name is Chinedu Oladapo DIKKO, whose index number is 4251102068 and who is offering CIVIC EDUCATION 1.

The Marks of Scripture Daniel Castelo, Robert W. Wall, 2019-02-19 This volume written by a theologian and a biblical scholar offers a fresh model for understanding Scripture as God s Word The authors work out the four Nicene marks of the church one holy catholic and apostolic as marks of Scripture offering a new way of thinking about the Bible that bridges theology and interpretation Their ecclesial analogy invites us to think of Scripture in similar terms to how we think of the church countering the incarnational model propagated by Peter Enns and others

Abortion Policy and Christian Social Ethics in the United States Mako A. Nagasawa, 2021-01-06 Today s Christian pro life movement has misplaced its priorities The issue of abortion is more complex than the movement often appreciates For a start Scripture is less clear about the moral weight of the fetus than we often think In fact early Christians took different positions on abortion because they also relied on different scientific sources about the unborn Furthermore Christian conservatives today do not acknowledge that in American history as today Christian stances on abortion were motivated by other political fears White Protestant Americans developed different state laws on abortion to accomplish anti immigrant goals in the North but anti black racism in the South That messiness impacts U S constitutional law including Roe v Wade Meanwhile Scripture commissions God s people to confront socio economic factors that push abortion rates higher male privilege and the disempowerment of women the high cost of child raising the causes of birth defects the desire to care narrowly for just my children mistaken views about contraception and the culture wars and most of all poverty This book incorporates biblical studies church history science social science history and public policy to argue that we must not approach abortion policy primarily from a criminal justice standpoint as modern conservatives do but from a broad social and economic standpoint meant to benefit and bless all children

How should Christians speak of the transcendent yet personal God when our language for persons is almost always gendered Is male imagery such as Father Son or King the only appropriate way Are there ways to talk of God using female gendered metaphors and pronouns And how does the use of such language impact humans as gendered people Moving beyond the extremes in this debate The Father and the Feminine seeks to clarify the ways Christians speak about God whether this is by recognizing revelation and Christian tradition upholding God's ineffability using analogies metaphors and narratives referring to God as Father Son and Spirit or by seeking a liberating way of life in community Spencer Miles Boersma argues that male language for God need not be problematic if used and understood correctly but at the same time that it cannot be the exclusive way Christians speak of the Divine The grammar of Christian Scripture and tradition both authorize the use of female language which Christians ought to use in pursuing a deeper relationship with God and others as well as a more authentic view of self In Defense of Conciliar Christology Timothy Pawl, 2016-03-10

This work presents a historically informed systematic exposition of the Christology of the first seven Ecumenical Councils of undivided Christendom from the First Council of Nicaea in 325 AD to the Second Council of Nicaea in 787 AD Assuming the truth of Conciliar Christology for the sake of argument Timothy Pawl considers whether there are good philosophical arguments that show a contradiction or incoherence in that doctrine He presents the definitions of important terms in the debate and a helpful metaphysics for understanding the incarnation In Defense of Conciliar Christology discusses three types of philosophical objections to Conciliar Christology Firstly it highlights the fundamental philosophical problem facing Christology how can one thing be both God and man when anything deserving to be called God must have certain attributes and yet it seems that nothing that can aptly be called man can have those same attributes It then considers the argument that if the Second Person of the Holy Trinity were immutable or atemporal as Conciliar Christology requires then that Person could not become anything and thus could not become man Finally Pawl addresses the objection that if there is a single Christ then there is a single nature or will in Christ However if that conditional is true then Conciliar Christology is false since it affirms the antecedent of the conditional to be true but denies the truth of the consequent Pawl defends Conciliar Christology against these charges arguing that all three philosophical objections fail to show Conciliar Christology inconsistent or incoherent Another

Kind of Normal Graham Ward,2022-01-13 Every age needs to examine and propose its ways of living ethically Another Kind of Normal Ethical Life II constructs a mode of such living according to the Christian tradition based upon an interpretation of Christ s coming and the relationship of that incarnation to God as the Creator of all things In the second of four volumes Graham Ward explores an Augustinian vision of consonance between divine rhythm and the rhythmic orders of creation On the basis of what Augustine calls the interval it proposes Christ is encountered as riddle scandal and paradox It provides an account of creation as a Trinitarian event that calls for a rethinking of what are the key teachings in Christianity with respect to an understanding of creation as a divine benediction and a theatre for transformation and healing Ward argues through Scriptural exegesis for the omnidirectionality of time as graced rejecting a conception of linear temporality and theologies indebted to that conception Throughout participation in God through our hiddenness in Christ develops an account of the complex relationship between divine and human creativity appealing to music painting poetry drama film architecture and novels

What Makes a Church Sacred? Mary Farag,2021-11-02 If churches belong to no one what is their purpose Mary K Farag persuasively demonstrates that three interest groups cared about this question in late antiquity law makers Christian leaders and wealthy lay persons Most of the time their answers co existed sitting side by side like tectonic plates Yet the plates did not always sit still and it is events on their colliding boundaries that account for familiar Christian controversies in novel ways What Makes a Church Sacred argues that scholarship misunderstands well known religious figures by ignoring the legal issues they faced In this seminal text Farag nuances the scholarly conversations on sacred space gift giving wealth and poverty in the late antique Mediterranean world making use not only of Latin and Greek sources but
