

Answer three questions in all: one question from Section A and all the questions in Sections B and C.

SECTION A

ESSAY

[50 marks]

Answer one question only from this section.

All questions carry equal marks. Your answer should not be less than 450 words.

You are advised to spend about 50 minutes on this section.

1. The Old Students' Association of your school has just erected an ultra-modern hall for the school. As the senior prefect, write a letter to the chairman thanking him for this project and pointing out three other areas in which the school needs assistance.
2. Several demonstrations have been organized in the past few months in your country. Write an article for publication in one of your national newspapers, discussing the causes of these demonstrations and proposing three ways by which the government could deal with them.
3. You are the principal speaker in a debate on the motion: Living in one's country is more advantageous than living abroad. Write your argument for or against the motion.
4. Your friend wrote a letter to you and a part of it reads: "I think I am going to fail my forthcoming examinations! I don't know what to do." Write a letter of encouragement to your friend, discussing at least three things he or she can do to manage examination jitters.
5. Write a story that ends with the statement: I was mistaken to have thought the night would be like other peaceful nights.
