Identity-Focused ELA Teaching
Richard Beach,Anthony Johnston,Amanda Haertling Thein,2015-03-05 Countering the increased standardization of English language arts instruction requires recognizing and fostering students unique identity construction across different social and cultural contexts Drawing on current sociocultural theories of identity construction this book posits that students construct multiple identities through use of five identity practices adopting alternative perspectives exploring connections across people and texts negotiating identities across social worlds developing agency through critical analysis and reflecting on long term identity trajectories Identity Focused ELA Teaching features classroom activities teachers can use to put these practices into action in ways that re center implementing the Common Core State Standards case study profiles of students and classrooms from urban suburban and rural schools adopting these practices and descriptions of how teachers both support students with this instructional approach and share their own identity construction experiences with their students It demonstrates how as students acquire identity focused practices through engagements with literature writing drama and digital texts they gain awareness of the ways exposure to different narratives beliefs and perspectives serves to mediate their own and others identities leading to different ways of being and becoming over time

Teaching Middle School Writers
Laura Robb,2010 My whole goal with this book was to come at teaching writing from the angle that matters most students perspective They taught me what I needed to know to make this book live up to their passion for writing Laura Robb Adolescents have robust and rewarding writing lives outside of school that involve journals emails text messages blogs and an astounding array of genres Unlike their personal reading lives that teachers frequently tap into their personal writings typically exist under the curricular radar that is until now While grounded in the common schedule constraints and curriculum demands of middle school Laura Robb s Teaching Middle School Writers offers teachers lessons and routines that are uncommonly attuned to adolescents developmental and social needs As she taps into the energy and enthusiasm of adolescents personal writing lives Laura presents writing plans that support first drafts strategies for crafting leads that grab and endings that satisfy grammar lessons that address writing conventions editing lessons that have students revise their writing before the teacher reads it guidelines for grading and responding to student work Straight from the classroom writing samples and videos give teachers the opportunity to see how Laura uses compelling questions and powerful mentor texts to teach writing support struggling writers and weave twenty first century literacies into the writing curriculum Throughout teachers learn ways of connecting to students lives in order to bring out their best writing their best self Watch a video overview

Part of Our Lives Wayne A. Wiegand,2015-09-10 Despite dire predictions in the late twentieth century that public libraries would not survive the turn of the millennium their numbers have only increased Two of three Americans frequent a public library at least once a year and nearly that many are registered borrowers Although library authorities have argued that the public library functions primarily as a civic institution necessary for maintaining democracy generations of library patrons tell a different story In Part of Our Lives Wayne A Wiegand delves into the heart of why Americans love their libraries

The book traces the history of the public library featuring records and testimonies from as early as 1850 Rather than analyzing the words of library founders and managers Wiegand listens to the voices of everyday patrons who cherished libraries Drawing on newspaper articles memoirs and biographies Part of Our Lives paints a clear and engaging picture of Americans who value libraries not only as civic institutions but also as public places that promote and maintain community Whether as a public space a place for accessing information or a home for reading material that helps patrons make sense of the world around them the public library has a rich history of meaning for millions of Americans From colonial times through the recent technological revolution libraries have continuously adapted to better serve the needs of their communities Wiegand demonstrates that although cultural authorities including some librarians have often disparaged reading books considered not serious the commonplace reading materials users obtained from public libraries have had a transformative effect for many including people such as Ronald Reagan Bill Moyers Edgwin Danticat Philip Roth Toni Morrison Sonia Sotomayor and Oprah Winfrey A bold challenge to conventional thinking about the American public library Part of Our Lives is an insightful look into one of America's most beloved cultural institutions Thinking Through Genre Heather Lattimer, 2003 Supports English teachers who seek to engage their students in genre studies in the reading and writing workshop The book profiles six different units of study memoir feature article editorial short story fairy tale and response to literature Each study is set in an individual fifth through tenth grade classroom and is described from its theoretical foundations through the planning for the specific needs of the students to the teaching and finally evaluation More Hot Links Cora M. Wright, 2002-08-27 This companion to the popular Hot Links by the same author provides informative annotations for an additional 300 fiction and nonfiction books contemporary and classic that support and enhance the middle school curriculum The selected titles represent top quality literature that ties into all areas of the curriculum The books were chosen for the quality of writing interest level appropriateness of illustrations and current availability Additionally the book includes a chapter highlighting the best of newly published literature and a chapter featuring titles that are presented in a unique and creative manner A Literature Links section in the back of the book offers an easy to read chart that tells you exactly in which curricular areas a book can be used Grades 5-9 African-American Poets Harold Bloom, 2010 This volume examines contemporary African American poets from the well known writers of the late 20th century to the newly established and emerging voices of today Integrating Literature in the Content Areas Sharon Kane, 2017-05-12 This practical accessible resource will help future and practicing teachers integrate literature into their middle school or high school classrooms while also addressing content area standards and improving the literacy skills of their students Two introductory chapters are followed by five chapters that each cover a different genre Chapter 3 Informational Books Chapter 4 Fiction Chapter 5 Biography Autobiography and Memoir Chapter 6 Poetry and Chapter 7 How to and Hands on Books Each genre chapter consists of four parts Part 1 Discusses the genre and how content area teachers can use books within that genre to further content learning and enhance literacy skills Part 2 Offers hands on instructional strategies and activities using literature with activities for use in a variety of disciplines Part 3 Presents individual author studies three or four per chapter with bibliographies and guidelines for using the authors books in content area courses Part 4 Features an annotated bibliography of specially selected children and young adult literature for that genre organized by content area The annotations provide information about the book which can be used to prepare booktalks and teaching ideas for using in a specific content area Altogether these sections contain more than 600 annotated entries tabbed by subject area including art English language arts languages and culture math and technology music PE health science and social studies history

Social Studies for the Elementary and Middle Grades Cynthia S. Sunal, Mary E. Haas, 2005 Discusses flexible strategies for teaching today's diverse learner the structure of the knowledge to be learned how to help students reconstruct and present ideas and how to translate theory and recent research into lesson plans and units All within a constructivist framework September 9 2013 Ingrid Robinson took this book off the CRC shelf and asked that it be added to the Reserve Books Shelf
