Sutcliffe with facts supplied by former cold case detective Chris Clark There is now new medical evidence available including a compelling buried pathology report hidden for the past 40 plus years The case remains unsolved and yet it has been controversially restricted for 95 years despite new claims of links to two other similar and still unsolved murders and this latest association with the Ripper It has recently been featured within Judge Robert Rinder s crime series on ITV and remains a fascinating murder mystery

The Case of Stephen Downing Stephen Downing,2020-02-19 The memoir of a man wrongfully convicted of murder and his 27 years spent in the U K prison system until his conviction was overturned On September 12 1973 seventeen year old na ve gardener Stephen Downing returned from his lunch break to discover the badly beaten unconscious thirty two year old Wendy Sewell lying on the footpath of Bakewell Cemetery close to Catcliff Wood and the consecrated chapel where she had been attacked Stephen ran to the nearby workmen s building and in the meantime Wendy s attacker returned and dragged her body to a second location where she was subsequently found soon after Despite having learning difficulties Downing was immediately taken into custody questioned at length without a solicitor and eventually signed a false confession statement Wendy died some two days later from her injuries Following a very biased three day trial during February 1974 Downing was found guilty by a jury convicted and sentenced to what was eventually a full life sentence Just eight months later during October 1974 there followed an appeal with fresh evidence from an eye witness who saw Wendy Sewell alive after Downing left the cemetery for lunch However the prosecution trashed this evidence and the appeal failed In the years following Downing s incarceration he was moved from prison to prison continuing to maintain his innocence and in doing so jeopardizing any chance of parole as he was In Denial of Murder until eventually his plight reached journalist Don Hale Hale s tireless efforts led to an appeal in which Downing was released after some twenty seven years the longest miscarriage of justice in the United Kingdom s legal history
