The Brimstone Boat Will Alexander, 2011-10-26 Yet the voice of Will Alexander who here commemorates Lamantia in his pluperfect poem The Brimstone Boat rose hardly more than a quarter century later In this automatically extended poem we are witness to the passage of energies from the older to the younger poet as Alexander charts Lamantia's life and writings across a Renaissance globe It is here as well that Alexander succeeds Lamantia who died in 2005 as America's greatest living surrealist poet as the new poet at the helm on the brimstone boat on a voyage of perpetual exploration

ANDREW JORON The volume starts off with the 81 pages of the title poem then 14 pages for three shorter poems followed by 19 pages devoted to a glossary then 50 pages for the content of four essays and finally 3 pages of post notes On the cover the frontispiece and the end page are three works by the American surrealist Marie Wilson also included are eight pencil drawings by Will Alexander and two large photographs of Lamantia and Alexander

This Compost Jed Rasula, 2012-09-01 Poetry for Jed Rasula bears traces of our entanglement with our surroundings and these traces define a collective voice in modern poetry independent of the more specific influences and backgrounds of the poets themselves In This Compost Rasula surveys both the convictions asserted by American poets and the poetics they develop in their craft all with an eye toward an emerging ecological worldview Rasula begins by examining poets associated with Black Mountain College in the 1950s Charles Olson Robert Creeley and Robert Duncan and their successors But This Compost extends to include earlier poets like Robinson Jeffers Ezra Pound Louis Zukofsky Kenneth Rexroth and Muriel Rukeyser as well as Clayton Eshleman Gary Snyder Michael McClure and other contemporary poets Walt Whitman and Emily Dickinson also make appearances Rasula draws this diverse group of poets together uncovering how the past is a compost fertilizing the present He looks at the heritage of ancient lore and the legacy of modern history and colonial violence as factors contributing to ecological imperatives in modern poetry This Compost restores the dialogue between poetic language and the geophysical biological realm of nature that so much postmodern discourse has sought to silence It is a fully developed carefully argued book that deals with an underrepresented element in modern American culture where the natural world and those who write about it have been greatly neglected in contemporary literary history and theory The PIP Anthology of World Poetry of the 20th Century Douglas Messerli,2000 The fifth volume of this acclaimed anthology features the work of innovative poets of southern California This gathering of 28 poets does not write a particular kind of poetry but as individuals they have worked together through a series of intersecting ideas and interests to create some of the best writing of contemporary poetry contradicting many of the simplistic notions of people outside of the region In his introduction editor Douglas Messerli provides a complete history of the loosely knit group and the interrelationships within it
