We Also Made History Meenakshi Moon, Urmila Pawar, 2004-12-30 Originally published in Marathi in 1989 this contemporary classic details the history of women's participation in the Dalit movement led by Dr B R Ambedkar for the first time Focusing on the involvement of women in various Dalit struggles since the early twentieth century the book goes on to consider the social conditions of Dalit women's lives daily religious practices and marital rules the practice of ritual prostitution and women's issues Drawing on diverse sources including periodicals records of meetings and personal correspondence the latter half of the book is composed of interviews with Dalit women activists from the 1930s These first hand accounts from more than forty Dalit women make the book an invaluable resource for students of caste gender and politics in India A rich store of material for historians of the Dalit movement and gender studies in India We Also Made History remains a fundamental text of the modern women's movement

Women, Gender and Religious Nationalism Amrita Basu, Tanika Sarkar, 2022-11-10 This book reflects the changing modalities of Hindu nationalist organizing among women and youth It provides unique insights into how this immensely powerful political formation has been able to preside over a massive network of grassroots organisations among most segments of Indian society and capture national power Chapters explore the techniques the RSS VHP and BJP employ and the messages they convey about masculinity femininity and LGBTQ communities and analyze contrasting forms of women's activism in defending and opposing Hindu nationalism This book contributes to the global literature on the gender dimensions of rightwing politics By exploring why women advance the agenda of the Hindu Right despite its conservative views on gender and sexuality the book makes an important intervention in feminist and women's studies scholarship

Gender Inclusion in India Sabiha Hussain, Suraiya Tabassum, 2023-06-16 This book not only aims at highlighting existing inequalities between men and women but also their efforts to overcome these challenges especially so in women belonging to marginalized communities It tries to explore systematic denial of rights to marginalized women opportunities and resources that are normally and easily available to other members of a group and which are fundamental to social political integration and observance of human rights such as housing employment healthcare civic engagement and democratic participation The authors through their in depth discussions and writings have tried to sketch Equal World as imagined by John Stuart Mill in the opening lines of The Subjugation of Women This book is co published with Aakar Books Print edition not for sale in South Asia India Sri Lanka Nepal Bangladesh Pakistan and Bhutan Re-Presenting Feminist Methodologies Kalpana Kannabiran, Padmini Swaminathan, 2017-03-16 This book tracks the trajectory of gender in the social sciences and humanities through an exploration of the challenges and contradictions that confront contemporary feminist analysis as well as future directions Drawing on research in India the essays in the volume engage with the subject in imaginative ways each one going beyond documenting the persistence of gender inequality instead raising new questions and dilemmas while unravelling the complexities of the terrain They also interrogate extant knowledge that has constructed women as agentless over the years incapable of contesting or transforming social orders by taking a close look at gendered decision making processes and outcomes sex for pleasure health care practices content and context of formal schooling or the developmental state that mainstreams gender Do existing feminist methodologies enable the understanding of emerging themes as online sexual politics transnational surrogacy or masculinist anti feminist sensibilities The feminist methodologies delineated here will provide readers with a toolkit to assess the criticality of gender as well as its nuances The work foregrounds the importance of intersectionality and builds a case for context specific articulations of gender and societies that destabilize binary universals This volume will be useful to scholars and researchers across the disciplines of the social sciences and humanities especially gender studies women s studies feminism research methodology education sociology political science and public policy Founding Mothers of the Indian Republic Achyut Chetan, 2023-01-05 The book begins with the momentous task of demolishing the prejudices attached with the phrase founding fathers that has held an immense sway over constitutional interpretation It shows that women members of the Indian Constituent Assembly had painstakingly co authored a Constitution that embodied a moral imagination developed by years of feminist politics It traces the genealogies of several constitutional provisions to argue that without the interventions of these women framers the Constitution would hardly have a much poorer document of rights and statecraft that it is Situating these interventions in the larger trajectory of Indian feminism in which they are rooted in the nationalist discourse with which they perpetually negotiated and in the larger human rights discourse of the 1940s the book shows that the women members of the Indian Constituent Assembly were much more than the founding mothers of a republic Narrating Love and Violence Himika Bhattacharya, 2017-12-28 Narrating Love and Violence is an ethnographic exploration of women s stories from the Himalayan valley of Lahaul in the region of Himachal Pradesh India focusing on how both love and violence emerge or function at the intersection of gender tribe caste and the state in India Himika Bhattacharya privileges the everyday lives of women marginalized by caste and tribe to show how state and community discourses about gendered violence serve as proxy for caste in India thus not only upholding these social hierarchies but also enabling violence The women in this book tell their stories through love articulated as rejection redefinition and reproduction of notions of violence and solidarity Himika Bhattacharya centers the women s narratives as a site of knowledge beyond love and beyond violence This book shows how women on the margins of tribe and caste know both love and violence as agents wishing to re shape discourses of caste tribe and community Dalit Feminist Theory Sunaina Arya,Aakash Singh Rathore,2019-09-09 Dalit Feminist Theory A Reader radically redefines feminism by introducing the category of Dalit into the core of feminist thought It supplements feminism by adding caste to its study and praxis it also re examines and rethinks Indian feminism by replacing it with a new paradigm namely that caste based feminist inquiry offers the only theoretical vantage point for comprehensively addressing gender based injustices Drawing on a variety of disciplines the chapters in the volume discuss key themes such as Indian feminism versus Dalit feminism the emerging concept of Dalit patriarchy the predecessors of Dalit feminism such as Phule and Ambedkar the meaning and value of lived experience the concept of Difference the analogical relationship between Black feminism and Dalit feminism the intersectionality debate and the theory versus experience debate They also provide a conceptual historical empirical and philosophical understanding of feminism in India today Accessible essential and ingenious in its approach this book is for students teachers and specialist scholars as well as activists and the interested general reader It will be indispensable for those engaged in gender studies women s studies sociology of caste political science and political theory philosophy and feminism Ambedkar studies and for anyone working in the areas of caste class or gender based discrimination exclusion and inequality Undoing Impunity V. Geetha,2016-11-28 The Sexual Violence and Impunity in South Asia research project coordinated by Zubaan and supported by the International Development Research Centre brings together for the first time in the region a vast body of knowledge on this important yet silenced subject Six country volumes one each on Bangladesh Nepal Pakistan Sri Lanka and two on India as well as two standalone volumes comprising over fifty research papers and two book length studies detail the histories of sexual violence and look at the systemic institutional societal individual and community structures that work together to perpetuate impunity for perpetrators In this remarkable and wide ranging study activist and historian V Geetha unpacks the meanings of impunity in relation to sexual violence in the context of South Asia The State s misuse of its own laws against its citizens is only one aspect of the edifice of impunity its less understood resilience comes from its consistent denial of the recognition of suffering on the part of victims and its refusal to allow them the dignity of pain grief and loss Time and again in South Asia the State has worked to mediate public memory to manipulate forgetting particularly in relation to its own acts of commission It has done this by refusing to take responsibility not only for its acts but also for the pain such acts have caused It has denied suffering the eloquence the words the expression that it deserves and papered over the hurt of its people with routine government procedures The author argues that the State and its citizens must work together to accord social recognition to the suffering of victims and survivors of sexual violence and thereby join in what she calls a shared humanity While this may or may not produce legal victories the acknowledgment that the suffering of our fellow citizens is our collective responsibility is an essential first step towards securing justice It is this that in a fundamental sense challenges and illuminates the contours and details of State impunity and positions impunity as not merely a legal or political conundrum but as resolute refusal on the part of State personnel to be part of a shared humanity

Gender, Development, and the State in India Carole Spary, 2019-02-21 This book explores the relationship between the state development policy and gender in equality in India It discusses the formation of state policy on gender and development in India in the post 1990 period through three key organising concepts of institutions discourse and agency The book pays particular attention to whether the international policy language of gender mainstreaming has been adopted by the Indian state and if so to what extent and with what results The author examines how these issues play out at multiple levels of governance at both the national and the subnational state level in federal India This comparative aspect is particularly important in the context of increasing autonomy in development policymaking in India in the 1990s divergent development policy approaches and outcomes among states and the emerging importance of subnational state development policies and programmes for women in this period The author argues that the state is not a monolith but a heterogeneous internally differentiated collection of institutions which offers complex and varying opportunities and consequences for feminists engaging the state Demonstrating that the Indian empirical case is illuminating for studies of the gendered politics of development and international debates on gender mainstreaming the book highlights the politics of negotiating gender equality strategies in the contemporary context of neo liberal development and brings together complex issues of modernity postcolonialism identity politics federalism and equality within the broader context of the world's largest democracy This book will be of interest to scholars interested in the politics of gender equality state feminism and gender mainstreaming federalism and multi level governance and development studies and gender in South Asia

Transnational Social Mobilisation and Minority Rights Corinne Lennox, 2019-12-05 This book explores the ways in which minority groups across the world are reshaping the international minority rights protection system It documents the actions of four major groups that are using transnational social mobilisation to achieve recognition of their identities and their rights The result is a greater pluralism in global identity politics and a wide range of new group specific standards that can inform policies on multiculturalism political participation and socio economic inclusion in the national and international spheres The book begins by summarising the learning from the global movements of indigenous peoples and Roma The book then focuses in greater depth on the cases of Afro descendants in Latin America and of Dalits and caste affected groups in South Asia and beyond Each case study shows the historical roots of group specific transnational mobilisation and how activists have constructed a distinct identity frame out of shared experiences The book explores key parallels and differences between the discourse framing strategies organisational structures and political opportunities used in each case to show which factors have influenced the success or failures of their norm entrepreneurship The role that international institutions have played in supporting these efforts is given special attention including intergovernmental bodies such as the UN the EU and the OAS and international non governmental organisations The UN World Conference Against Racism is explored as a particularly significant political opportunity across the cases Among academic audiences this book will appeal to those researching minority rights social movements global governance discrimination and multiculturalism from legal political sociological and critical theory perspectives It will also interest practitioners and activists working on minority rights and the challenges of norm compliance socio economic inclusion and governance
