Debates, Official Report Canada. Parliament. House of Commons, 1984 Newfoundland Modern Robert Mellin, 2011 The architecture of Newfoundland typically evokes images of spare but colourful houses and outbuildings by the sea Newfoundland Modern reveals another dimension that challenges this impression In over 220 drawings and photographs Robert Mellin presents the development of architecture in the decades immediately following Newfoundland's 1949 union with Canada Newfoundland's wholehearted embrace of modern architecture in this era affected planning as well as the design of cultural facilities commercial and public buildings housing recreation educational facilities and places of worship and Premier Joseph Smallwood often relied on modern architecture to demonstrate the progress made by his administration

Mellin explores the links between Smallwood and modern architecture revealing how Smallwood guided the development of numerous architectural projects He also looks at the work of two innovative local architects Frederick A Colbourne and Angus J Campbell showing how their architecture was influenced by their life long interest in art The first comprehensive work on an important period of architectural development in urban and rural Newfoundland Newfoundland
