The Hebridean World Robert Dodgshon, 2024-10-23 The Hebrides has long been seen as an area that when considered over time was slow to absorb change Indeed from the nineteenth century onwards it attracted the attention of scholars for being seen as having not just the oldest rocks in Europe but also some of its oldest cultural practices and institutional forms This unchanging archaic character has continued to attract a great deal of research but over recent decades a counter view has emerged that highlights the changes that the region did experience This book argues the case for the latter by drawing out how the institutional forms around which the region and its farming communities were organised changed over time As background It highlights the importance of understanding two key inter related features that underpinned these changes the low output of Hebridean farming with its high frequency of poor harvests and the range of environmental hazards that beset the region Brought together the interaction between these two features makes the survival strategies adopted by communities an important part of the region s history Because society environment interactions are at the heart of the problem the book s discussion is presented as a study in human ecology One of the benchmark studies of the region in modern times is Sir Fraser Darling s The West Highland Problem A Study in Human Ecology OUP 1955 adopted such an approach This book gives this human ecological perspective on the region a greater time depth In addition to a Preface and an Epilogue it is divided into 12 chapters Title The Hebridean World Its Ecological History Through Time Preface 1 The Hebrides Their Physical Endowment and Its Challenges 2 The Oldest Cultural Landscapes 3 The Hebridean Mix Picts Scots and Vikings 4 How Land was Occupied Before Crofting 5 How the Land was Farmed before Crofting 6 Landscapes of Summer the Shielings 7 The Inter Tidal and Beyond the Harvest of Shore and Sea 8 Survival on the Margins 9 The Landscapes of Crofting 10 The Harvesting and Processing of Grain 11 The Clearances for Sheep and Deer 12 Hebridean Housing and Settlement Epilogue Sea Kayaking Jonathan Hanson, 2001 Sea kayaking in British Columbia Florida the Bahamas Belize Greece Madagascar Malawi Fiji Palau Maine Newfoundland Mexico Norway New Zealand Australia the Arctic Greenland Chile and Scotland Commercial Fisheries Review , 1964
