Introducing Psychology Daniel L. Schacter, Daniel T. Gilbert, Daniel M. Wegner, 2009-12-25
 Reads like a good book Written in the style of their award winning nonfiction books the Dans capture students attention in a way few textbooks can claim Each chapter each page is written with narrative hooks that retain student interest by engaging their curiosity compassion and interest in the world around them Students who read Introducing Psychology will quickly learn to critically examine the world around them and apply the lessons of psychology to their own lives Teaches like a great textbook The Dans focus the essential topics within psychology without diluting the explanation or removing examples intended to illustrate concepts By refining their coverage to the most clear thought provoking and illustrative examples the Dans manage to accomplish two difficult goals making thoughtful content choices covering the various fields of psychology and doing so in a manner that retains clarity and emphasizes student engagement

Virtual Theology, Faith and Adult Education Ros Stuart-Buttle, 2013-07-29 Online learning is a key feature of the contemporary educational landscape and has entered mainstream policy provision and practice But if online education is to reach mature development and evaluation it must be open to critical appraisal This book considers the implementation of online learning within adult theological education This can be an area of challenge or contention especially when established academic practices and cherished values are seen as threatened when handed over to online delivery This opens questions about theology pedagogy and online education Does online teaching and learning bring or demand a new or transformed disruptive pedagogy or does it result in maintenance or replication sustaining of traditional values and existing practices What might the opportunities and benefits be Who stands to gain Who stands to lose And what evidence is there to evaluate the quality of doing theology online This book examines a long standing programme of continuing professional development delivered fully online to adult practitioners working across Christian education and ministry settings It builds upon the author s international experience as an online educator for over a decade Key themes relate adult learning to theological pedagogy authority and online community The concept of interruptive pedagogy is presented as an interpretative model to critically appraise an approach to online education that draws on the best theological tradition yet also looks to the future Enhancing Learning Through Technology Philip Tsang, Reggie Kwan, Robert Fox, 2007 This volume provides an up to date study of theory and practice on the importance of technology in teaching and learning The contributions are carefully peer reviewed from over 100 submissions to the International Conference on Teaching and Learning 2006 held in Hong Kong Sample Chapter s Chapter 1 Faculty Perceptions of ICT Benefits 391 KB Contents Faculty Perceptions of ICT Benefits R Fox et al Thinking about Thinking Online K Downing et al Teacher s Sharing Pedagogical Experiences in a Learning Environment that Supports Self Regulated Learning G Dettori et al Online Interaction Trying to Get It Right L Chow and R Sharman Crossing Borders How Cross Cultural Videoconferencing can Satisfy Course Goals in Dissimilar Subjects J S Wilkinson The Evaluation of Information and Communication Technology Use in Professional Schools P Gabor Using Technology in Education The Application of Data Mining K H Chye et al A Comparison of WebCT Blackboard and Moodle for the Teaching and Learning of Continuing Education Courses K S Cheung The Object Oriented Database Application and the System Architecture of a National Learning Objects Repository for Cyprus P Pouyioutas et al and other papers Readership Graduate students researchers and practitioners involved in the development and education of e learning Make Money Teaching Online Danielle Babb, PhD, Jim Mirabella, DBA, 2011-01-06 Did you know you could teach from home and earn a six figure salary Thousands of people make a great living teaching online courses from home and the more classes they teach the more they earn If you want into this exciting profession this guide will show you how to get started find great jobs and earn more than you thought possible Web-Based Education in the Human Services Richard Schoech, Brenda Moore, Robert James Macfadden, Marilyn Herie, 2014-02-25 Web Based Education in the Human Services reflects the vitality and diversity of Web based courses currently delivered within human services Unlike previous texts that have combined technologies such as Interactive Television ITV and two way audio where Web involvement was minimal this unique book focuses on Web based models tools and techniques used in courses where the majority of the content is delivered online The book s contributors emphasize the social aspects of learning examining topical areas not usually associated with Web based education as they remind us of the need to move beyond the similarities between WBE and face to face FTF approaches Large-Scale Knowledge Resources. Construction and Application Takenobu Tokunaga, Antonio Ortega, 2008-02-29 At the start of the 21st century we are now well on the way towards a knowledge intensive society in which knowledge plays ever more important roles Thus research interest should inevitably shift from information to knowledge with the problems of building organizing maintaining and utilizing knowledge coming central issues in a wide variety of fields The 21st Century COE program Framework for Systematization and Application of Large scale Knowledge sources COE LKR conducted by the Tokyo Institute of Technology is one of several early attempts worldwide to address these important issues Inspired by this project LKR2008 aimed at bringing together diverse contributions in cognitive science computer science education and linguistics to explore design construction extension maintenance validation and application of knowledge Responding to our call for papers were received 38 submissions from a variety of research areas Each paper was reviewed by three Program Committee members Since we were aiming at an interdisciplinary conference covering a wide range of topics concerning large scale knowledge resources LKR each paper was assigned a reviewer from a topic area outside the main thrust of the paper This reviewer was asked to assess whether the authors described the motivation and importance of their work in a comprehensible manner even for readers in other research areas Following a rigorous reviewing process we accepted 14 regular papers and 12 poster papers

Making a Difference: Volume I and II Sasha A. Barab, Kenneth E. Hay, Nancy Butler Songer, Daniel T. Hickey, 2017-09-05 William Wordsworth 1770 1850 needs little introduction as the central figure in Romantic poetry and a crucial influence in the development of poetry generally This broad ranging survey redefines the variety of his writing by showing how it incorporates contemporary concepts of language difference and the ways in which popular and serious literature were compared and distinguished during this period It discusses many of Wordsworth's later poems comparing his work with that of his regional contemporaries as well as major writers such as Scott The key theme of relationship both between characters within poems and between poet and reader is explored through Wordsworth's construction of community and his use of power relationships A serious discussion of the place of sexual feeling in his writing is also included
