Reading the Seasons Germaine Leece, Sonya Tsakalakis, 2021-03-30. It's an old cliché that books transport you, but as any avid reader will tell you, there's far more to them than that. Alongside comfort and retreat, books offer insight into ourselves and others; they tell us how the world is, was, or might be; they are windows into other worlds whose meanings resonate through the ages. It's this multiplicity that is at the heart of bibliotherapy, the ancient practice of reading for therapeutic effect. Reading the Seasons charts the evolution of a friendship through candid letters between bibliotherapists Germaine Leece and Sonya Tsakalakis. Ignited by a shared love of reading and finding a book for every occasion, every emotion, both for themselves and for their clients, their conversations soon confront life's ups and downs. The authors they reach for range from Stephen King to Javier Marias, Helen Garner to Maggie O'Farrell, as they reflect upon loss, change, parenting, careers, simple pleasures, travel, successes, fears, and uncertainty. Reading the Seasons not only offers an entryway to new titles but affirms the power of books to console, heal, and hold us together as friends and as individuals.

In Search of Elena Ferrante Karen Bojar, 2018-07-10. Elena Ferrante, named one of the 100 most influential people in 2016 by Time magazine, is best known for her Neapolitan novels, which explore such themes as the complexity of female friendship, the joys and constraints of motherhood, the impact of changing gender roles, the pervasiveness of male violence, the struggle for upward mobility, and the impact of the feminist movement. Ferrante's three novellas encompass similar themes, focusing on moments of extreme tension in women's lives. This study analyzes the integration of political themes and feminist theory in Ferrante's works, including men's entrapment in a sexist script written for them from time immemorial. Her decision to write under a pseudonym is examined along with speculation that Rome-based translator Anita Raja and her husband Domenico Starnone are coauthors of Ferrante's books.
