Richard A. Valicek, 2010-05-28 It is the fifteenth century A time when bold knights would learn that solidarity among men is the fortitude needed to destroy the evil lurking in the shadows In a land far away called Alamptria the free people of Elysium are under threat of the evil force from mount Drone home of the dark lord Makoor and his legion of vampires The former Elysian king is brutally murdered Terrible repercussions for those carrying out the assassination are ordered by the council of Confidus From the land of Petoshine the great elf wizard Grongone bestowed three claymores of extraordinary power to three powerful knights from Elysium who will shape the land and bestow freedom Time is running out and only the Seaton brothers with their claymores of power can defeat the undead The princess Melina Lumis has been fooled by the treacherous Tyrus Clore and taken to a far off land of Plaphorius where she is under preparation of willingly giving herself to the world of the undead A single seed of a vampire is planted in the city of Koriston in hopes of annihilating the human race Melina's beloved soul mate Caprius Seaton and the Elysian army must race against the sunset to save the people from the evil Tyrus Clore and his legion of doom

Revisiting the Nomadic Subject Maria Tamboukou, 2021-10-27 This book follows the stories of forcefully displaced women and raises the question of whether we can still use the figuration of the nomadic subject in feminist theories and politics This question is examined in the light of the ongoing global crises of mobility and severe border practices In recounting their stories migrant and refugee women appear in the world as who they are unique and unrepeatable human beings and not as what they are objectified refugees victims or stateless subjects Women s stories leave traces of their will to rewrite their exclusion from oppressive regimes defend their choice of civil and patriarchal disobedience grasp their passage claim their right to have rights and affirm their determination for new beginnings What emerges from the encounter between theoretical abstractions and women s lived experiences is the need to decolonize feminist theories and make cartographies of mobility assemblages wherein nomadism is a component of entangled relations and not a category or a figuration of a subject position These stories that have now been collected transcribed and analysed they have created a rich archive of uprooted women s experiences and have brought forward a wide range of new ideas that will be presented and discussed in the book Decolonizing feminist theory Mobility assemblages and geographies of nomadism The art of listening to fragmented narratives and the labour of translation Crossing borders and inhabiting borderlands Radical solitude and radical hope Feminist genealogies of labour under conditions of forced displacement The force of political narratives through the figure of Antigone Education for hope Imagining the non nomad 4 narrated stories will also be presented in full interwoven in the theoretical discussions of the book thus opening up a dialogic space between theoretical reflections and diffractions and narratives of lived experiences
