Mulholland, 2009-11 Joel Mulholland recounts the heartening story of her very memorable grandmother Between the ages of twelve and thirteen her grandmother received Christ as her Savior He would serve as her rock of strength for all her days The death of someone close to your heart leaves an overwhelming sense of void Suddenly a life is taken the body is lifeless and the soul is gone As a Christian there is the struggle between knowing that they are truly at peace and the natural human selfishness of wanting to keep them close But with the sting of each death comes new growth and maturity the realization of how much their love was needed and how much was shared with others The author s grandma left many treasures years of letters journal entries endless personal writings and remembered fellowship with family and friends will give a complete understanding of her journey Then the tributes from others and the impressions she left upon their own lives gives proof to her aspirations Through the tragic death of her father marriage to a young GI raising five boys and two girls and college at eighty two as Grandmere put it I am ready to see my Jesus
