The Guardian, Or Youth's Religious Instructor, 1820 Breaking Open the Word of God Karan Hinman Powell, Joseph P. Sinwell, 1986 A resource guide for designing facilitating and conducting Sunday morning catechumenate sessions and for assisting personal reflection during the catechumenate Sisterhood Balin/Herman, 2013-12-21 The work of a coterie of dynamic women not the brainchild of Reform Judaism s male leaders as is often thought Women of Reform Judaism has been a force in the shaping of American Jewish life since its founding as the National Federation of Temple Sisterhoods in 1913

The synergy of Reform Judaism's universalist ideas and the women's emancipation movement in the early twentieth century made the synagogue auxiliary a natural platform for women to assume new leadership roles in their synagogues in Reform Judaism and in American society. These sisterhoods have stood for the solidarity among synagogue women as well as the commitment of these women to important social action issues. Called Women of Reform Judaism since 1993, this oldest federation of women's synagogue auxiliaries has grown from 52 temple sisterhoods to 500 and a membership of over 65,000 women today, a vibrant international women's organization. Women of Reform Judaism, in cooperation with The Jacob Rader Marcus Center of the American Jewish Archives and Hebrew Union College Press, marks its centennial anniversary with this collection of new scholarly essays which look back at its history in order to understand how the hopes and dreams of its founders have come to fruition. Armed with the rich archival resources of the American Jewish Archives, including Proceedings of the National Federation of Temple Sisterhoods 1913-1955, eighteen scholars contributed essays on the spectrum of Women of Reform Judaism's activities, including their funding of Hebrew Union College during the Great Depression, their support for Jewish education through production of a substantial women's Torah commentary designed to edify lay people as well as scholars and clergy, their promotion of Jewish foodways and art through publication of cookbooks and support of synagogue gift shops, their invention of the Uniongram as a formidable fundraising tool on a par with the Girl Scout cookie, and their efforts to safeguard Jewish continuity through support of youth activities. Embracing the Vision Linda Gaupin, 2007. In this remarkable preparation program, Sr Linda walks readers through the process of experiencing the sacraments as times of growth and conversion involving everyone in the parish community. She offers here everything a parish leader needs to make this happen: guidelines for the facilitator, liturgical prayers, catechist guides, student materials, and family handouts, all in one package. The accompanying CD contains both PDF and Word documents for easy personalization and reproduction of all components of the program.

Prayer from A to Z Janet Schaeffler, 2011. Here Sr Janet addresses the awesome task of catechists to share meaningful prayer with those they teach. Her goal in this rich and very inspiring resource is to help catechists help children and themselves experience prayer as a deep and profound relationship with God. To this end, Sr Janet offers numerous creative ideas using the alphabet as her guide. A great prayer resource for catechists.
