FATIMEH AL-ZAHRA Sayyid Hussein Alamdar, 2014-07-26 By God They raised objection against the cutting swords of Ali his being indifference with respect to the death in the battlefield his power of the combat in the warfare and the scattering strokes By God If people have joined with each other and would have given the caliphate to some one about whom the Holy Prophet SAW has recommended any time if the people had deviated from the path of the truth he would guided them towards the righteous path with out any pain and disturbance that neither the mount had become incapacitated nor its rider would have tired and sad Ultimately he would have lead them to the pure and pleasant fountainhead of water the canal that on both sides

was saturated with the water that had never been polluted And then after the complete quenching of their thirst had returned them and as a result they would have found him their well wisher in hidden and apparent Ali would never had taken any benefit from the world and from it there had not been any advantage except the quenching of the thirsty and feedings of the hungry ones And here the world worshipper from the ascetic one righteous one from the liar had been explicit for all of them And in accordance of what God s has said in the Holy Qur an If the people of towns would have accepted faith and were pious We would have opened the gates of heaven s blessing upon them but since they denied We punished them for their evil deeds And Those who indulges in the tyranny and oppression their deeds would caught their skirt and they would never be able to escape from the divine punishment The second Sermon of Fatimeh al Zahra SA p 155

(Re)Framing Women in

Post-Millennial Afghanistan, Pakistan, and Iran Rachel Gregory Fox, 2022-03-30 This book critically examines the representational politics of women in post millennial Afghanistan Pakistan and Iran across a range of literary visual and digital media Introducing the conceptual model of remediated witnessing the book contemplates the ways in which meaning is constructed deconstructed and reconstructed as a consequence of its re production and re distribution In what ways is information re framed The chapters in this book therefore analyse the reiterative processes via which Afghan Pakistani and Iranian women are represented in a range of contemporary media By considering how Muslim women have been exploited as part of neo imperial state and patriarchal discourses the book charts possible and unexpected routes via which Muslim women might enact resistance What is more it asks the reader to consider how they themselves embody the role of witness to these resistant subjectivities and how they might do so responsibly with empathy and accountability Directory of World

African Fiction Andrew Nyongesa, 2024-02-29 This book likens writers incessant focus on racism negative ethnicity patriarchy and social stratification in societies to a naive physician who prescribes analgesics to treat symptoms while the underlying cause of the disease seethes in the blood In the same way persons who consistently blame their reckless conduct and shabbiness miss the point if they do not transform the actual cause of the problem the mind While most literary scholars problematise gender disparities racial and political othering oppression environment degradation education matters poor parenting and governance they tend to disregard the root cause modernism This book finds a gap in this grey area to address the authentic cause of the symptoms that most literary writers and scholars treat Pertinent modernist tenets such as bureaucracy the nation state systematisation and rationality and dualism are at the heart of racism corruption and other aforementioned symptoms It is the contention of this study that postmodernism offers a comprehensive understanding of modernism to mitigate its effects on society African Immigrants in Contemporary Spanish Texts Debra

Faszer-McMahon, Victoria L. Ketz, 2016-03-09 Around the turn of 21st Century Spain welcomed more than six million foreigners many of them from various parts of the African continent How African immigrants represent themselves and are represented in contemporary Spanish texts is the subject of this interdisciplinary collection Analyzing blogs films translations and literary works by contemporary authors including Donato Ndongo Equatorial Guinea Abderrahman El Fathi Morocco Chus Guti rrez Spain Juan Bonilla Spain and Bahia Mahmud Awah Western Sahara the contributors interrogate how Spanish cultural texts represent idealize or sympathize with the plight of immigrants as well as the ways in which immigrants themselves represent Spain and Spanish culture At the same time these works shed light on issues related to Spain s racial ethnic and sexual boundaries the appeal of images of Africa in the contemporary marketplace and the role of Spain s economic crisis in shaping attitudes towards immigration Taken together the essays are a convincing reminder that cultural texts provide a mirror into the perceptions of a society during times of change Adventure Divas Holly Morris,2006-10-31

After years of working behind a desk Holly Morris had finally had enough So she quit her job and set out to prove that adventure is not just a vacation style but a philosophy of living and to find like minded risk taking women around the globe With modest backing a small television crew her spirited producer mother Jeannie and a whole lot of chutzpah Morris tracked down artists activists and politicians women of action who are changing the rules and sometimes the world around them In these pages Morris brings to life the remarkable people and places she s encountered on the road while filming her PBS series Adventure Divas and other programs We meet Assata Shakur a former Black Panther and social activist and now a fugitive living in exile in Cuba Kiran Bedi New Delhi s chief of police who revolutionized India s infamously brutal Tihar Jail with her humanitarian ethic New Zealand pop star Hinewehi Mohi a Maori who reinvigorates her native culture for a new generation and Mokarrameh Ghanbari a septuagenarian painter and rice farmer who lives in the tiny village of Darikandeh on the Caspian plains of Iran where her creative talents run counter to the government s strict stance on art Along the way Morris herself becomes a certified Adventure Diva as she hunts for wild boar with Penan tribesmen in the jungles of Borneo climbs the Matterhorn short roped to a salty fourth generation Swiss guide and memorably becomes the first woman ever to enter the traditional camel race of the Saharan oasis town of Timia Intelligent phenomenally funny and chock full of rich and telling details of place Adventure Divas is a pro woman chronicle for the twenty first century In a pilgrimage fueled by curiosity ideology and full on estrogen power Holly Morris has paved the way for all of us to discover our own diva within and set out on our own adventures Cities in the Pre-Modern Islamic World Amira K. Bennison,Alison L.

Gascoigne,2007-08-07 This volume is an interdisciplinary endeavour which brings together recent research on aspects of urban life and structure by architectural and textual historians and archaeologists engendering exciting new perspectives on urban life in the pre modern Islamic world Its objective is to move beyond the long standing debate on whether an Islamic city existed in the pre modern era and focus instead upon the ways in which religion may or may not have influenced the physical structure of cities and the daily lives of their inhabitants It approaches this topic from three different but inter related perspectives the genesis of Islamic cities in fact and fiction the impact of Muslim rulers upon urban planning and development and the degree to which a religious ethos affected the provision of public services Chronologically and geographically wide ranging the volume examines thought provoking case studies from seventh century Syria to seventeenth century Mughal India by established and new scholars in the field in addition to chapters on urban sites in Spain Morocco Egypt and Central Asia Cities in the Pre Modern Islamic World will be of considerable interest to academics and students working on the archaeology history and urbanism of the Middle East as well as those with more general interests in urban archaeology and urbanism

Cultural Hybridity and Fixity Andrew Nyongesa, 2018-08-20 Immigrants who travel and settle in foreign countries face challenges due to cultural differences or even deliberate segregation by dominant groups In their attempt to negotiate their existence some decide to stick to the culture of their mother nations and some stand in the middle and blend some aspects of their mother culture and the new culture Although immigrants who remain closer to their own cultures are easily spotted and relegated they are assigned a place on the identity continuum whereas immigrants who choose to stand in the middle run the danger of being neither this nor that neither here nor there and can undergo severe internal fragmentation In this book Cultural Hybridity and Fixity Strategies of Resistance in Migration Literatures Andrew Nyongesa delves into these two strategies of resistance and analyzes the merits and demerits of each with reference to Safi Abdis fiction

Partners of Zaynab Diane D'Souza, 2014-09-03 How do pious Shia Muslim women nurture and sustain their religious lives How do their experiences and beliefs differ from or overlap with those of men What do gender based religious roles and interactions reveal about the Shia Muslim faith In Partners of Zaynab Diane D Souza presents a rich ethnography of urban Shia women in India exploring women s devotional lives through the lens of religious narrative sacred space ritual performance leadership and iconic symbols Religious scholars have tended to devalue women s religious expressions confining them to the periphery of a male centered ritual world This viewpoint often assumes that women s ritual behaviors are the unsophisticated product of limited education and experience and even a less developed female nature By illuminating vibrant female narratives within Shia religious teachings the fascinating history of a shrine led by women the contemporary lives of dynamic female preachers and women s popular prayers and rituals of petition Partners of Zaynab demonstrates that the religious lives of women are not a flawed approximation of male defined norms and behaviors but a vigorous authentic affirmation of faith within the religious mainstream D Souza questions the distinction between normative and popular religious behavior arguing that such a categorization not only isolates and devalues female ritual expressions but also weakens our understanding of religion as a whole Partners of Zaynab offers a compelling glimpse of Muslim faith and practice and a more complete understanding of the
