The Collecting Net, 1928 Journal of the American Medical Association, 1921 Planning, Implementing, and Evaluating Targeted Communication Programs William D. Crano, Gary W. Selnow, 1987-06-23 This book is well documented well written well researched and is up to date It is non sexist It is more than a manual for business communicators It is more than a book of how to's And it is more than a book of do's and don'ts The authors and contributors skillfully draw upon a broad range of social sciences literature and their personal communication experience both of which make this book invaluable in our understanding of the relationship between communication theory and practice Beyond that they offer clear guidelines for effective public communication Public Relations Review This book discusses the strategy of targeted communication and explains the steps necessary to plan and implement an effective information program Selnow and Crano both place their recommendations in a communication theory and research perspective and show them to have practical application in real world programs They deal not only with the how to s but with the why s as well Simply Imperfect Robyn Griggs Lawrence,2011-05-01 This revised and updated edition of The Wabi Sabi House recounts the history of this aesthetic philosophy and reveals ways to introduce it into your home The ancient Japanese philosophy of wabi sabi is about appreciating simplicity and letting go of the superficial the perfect antidote to modern consumerism and perfectionism In 2004 author Robyn Griggs Lawrence helped popularize wabi sabi in North America with her book The Wabi Sabi House In Simply Imperfect Lawrence shows that wabi sabi is far more than a style of home decor It s a state of mind a way of living modestly in the moment stripping away the unnecessary and finding satisfaction in everyday things Tracing the rich history of wabi sabi from its Zen Buddhist roots to the present day this beautifully illustrated book also offers tips on Clearing clutter and blocking noise Integrating salvaged and recycled materials Making and growing things yourself or supporting local artisans who do Taking time and space for self reflection
