Cooke, Melissa Fanshawe, Mark Gronow, 2025-10-10 Big Fish, Little Fish Susan Groundwater-Smith, Nicole Mockler, 2015-05-27 This text prepares pre service teachers to best meet the needs of students entering the challenging middle years of their education Leading improvement in literacy teaching and learning Robyn Cox, 2022-11-01 School leaders have ready access to assessment data motivating efforts to improve literacy outcomes of their students but it can be difficult for principals to decide how to achieve these goals within their school's existing strategic plans and policies With an opening chapter focusing on using and interpreting evidence Dr Robyn Cox outlines the key areas of oral language grammar vocabulary and reading as well as diagnostics and intervention Leading improvement in literacy teaching and learning provides a framework for a set of high impact strategies that individually and together can be the focus of teacher professional learning school improvement and student literacy achievement School Reform in an Era of Standardization Ian Hardy, 2020-12-29 School Reform in an Era of Standardization explores how teachers and school based administrators navigate the processes of accountability and standardization in schooling systems and settings It provides clear insights into how the work and learning of teachers and students in schools have been dramatically reconstituted by increased pressures of external political scrutiny and accountability The book reveals in detail the nature and effects of standardization processes upon schools and schooling systems Specifically it shows how curriculum development teaching and assessment practices have all been recalibrated under conditions of increased external scrutiny of teacher and student work and learning and how such processes are manifest in curriculum dominated by attention to literacy and numeracy more scripted pedagogies and standardized testing However the research not only elaborates the detrimental effects of such processes but also how those responsible for educating in schools teachers heads of curriculum deputy principals and principals have responded proactively by interpreting interrogating and challenging these conditions In this way it provides resources for hope evidence of what are described as more authentic accountabilities and at the same time it provides a clear portrait of the difficulty of fostering substantive curriculum teaching and assessment reform during an era of increasingly reductive accountability processes It will be an invaluable resource for understanding and enhancing practices in schools and school systems in the decades to come and for giving hope to educators in the ongoing work of rebuilding trust in public education What Teachers Need to Know about Numeracy Peter S. Westwood, Peter Westwood, 2008 There is an increasing need for numeracy skills in all aspects of life This book explores the issues that are emerging regarding the teaching of these skills beginning with preschool and the early years of primary school through to adults with poor numeracy skills It draws on research and relevant literature from several different countries to provide a comprehensive overview of the subject and contains many links to other sources of information and additional resources Data Culture and the Organisation of Teachers' Work Nerida Spina, 2020-05-31 Data Culture and the Organisation of Teachers Work provides an in depth look at how the political and media scrutiny of teachers pupils and schools now organises teaching and learning Spina also examines how educational data is used in schools and where it fails to take account of the everyday experiences of school leaders teachers and students Drawing on primary research and discussing practice in relation to the National Assessment Programme Literacy and Numeracy NAPLAN this book discusses the strengths and weaknesses of a data driven approach the restrictions this can impose and how to navigate them as a teacher Ideal for scholars and postgraduate students of education this book provides a comprehensive institutional ethnographic look into the daily lived experiences of teachers and the effects of standardised testing Improving Reading and Reading Engagement in the 21st Century Clarence Ng,Brendan

Bartlett,2017-05-31 This book presents cutting edge research findings in areas critical to advancing reading research in the 21st century context including new literacies reading motivation strategy instruction and reading intervention studies While students reading performance is currently receiving unprecedented attention there is a lack of research that adopts an international perspective and draws on research expertise from different parts of the world to present a concerted effort discussing key research models and findings on how to improve reading education Addressing this gap in the literature the book also responds to the challenge of promoting higher levels of literacy and supporting and developing readers who can enjoy and critique texts of every genre Valuing Students with Impairment J. Joy Cumming,2012-01-05 In this book the author Joy Cumming draws on knowledge of law assessment and measurement to provide an original analysis of the inclusion of students with impairment in educational accountability assessments in the U S England and Australia Equitable education of students with impairment is worldwide policy Educational accountability for improvement of educational outcomes is also a worldwide phenomenon The U S England and Australia are well placed economically and politically to pursue best educational practice for students with impairment and well advanced in both provision and educational accountability systems Examining these three systems enables an analysis of possible optimal practices to guide other countries The book identifies three models of impairment in place in legislation policy and enacted practice for educational accountability with students with impairment Intentions of legislation and policy reflect a social model of impairment while an individual has an impairment social practice creates the barrier that leads to a disability In implementation legislation and policy rely on a medical model of disability categorizing disability in medical or specialist terms In educational accountability practices it is argued in this book a third model of disability is created a psychometric model with impairment constructed through overemphasis on standardization of assessment processes Eight explicit and implicit assumptions that underpin the ways students with impairment are valued in educational accountability are identified and discussed Three recommendations are made to promote equitable inclusive educational accountability practices for students with impairment to inform future policy and practice in all countries Primary Mathematics Penelope Serow,Rosemary Callingham,Tracey
