A Struggle for Holy Ground C. Michael Weldon, 2004 A Struggle for Holy Ground results from thirty-five interviews with participants in the 1989 consolidations of then parishes in Chicago's Englewood and two parishes from the San Francisco consolidations after its 1989 earthquake. It explores the roles of ritual and pastoral care in this sometimes highly conflicted situation through the lens of trauma and reconciliation. It proposes a series of new rites: group reconciliation, atonement, lament, leaving-taking, memorial, and inauguration, based on the experience of people most impacted by parish restructurings.

Death by Minivan Heather Anderson Renshaw, 2018-09-04 Here's a bit of advice, mom to mom: Throw down the minivan keys, brush the cereal off the table, kick the toys into a corner, sit down with a cup of coffee or glass of wine, and read Death by Minivan. Author Heather Anderson Renshaw, mother of five, is a lot like you. She knows all about the wild, crazy, and often hilarious experience of motherhood. And she feels sometimes like she's barely keeping up and maybe even failing at the whole mom thing. Thankfully, as she shares in these pages, motherhood isn't a trip that's meant to be taken alone. God's got this, and the more we let him lead, the more we find the fruits of his Holy Spirit taking root in our hearts and in our families. So buckle up, because you're on the road to a more joyful, more peaceful, more faithful motherhood. Along the way, Heather offers tips for getting past the inevitable roadblocks, the GPS for finding your way, it's Scripture and roadside assistance, courtesy of the saints. With humor, honesty, and spirit, Heather Renshaw employs personal insights and timeless truths to help us harvest the fruits of the Holy Spirit, our companion and GPS along our path to God. Insightful and fun for individuals and even better for group study, this book should be required drivers' training for busy moms navigating family life. Lisa M. Hendey, Founder of

Carrying the Cross with Love Cathy

Edwards, 2020-07-10 This book describes the journey of how my faith grew from being a Catholic to embracing my life as a Catholic. When my son Keith was born in 2001 with Down Syndrome, I began to realize the mysterious ways that God was showing in my life had a purpose. This child brings so many lives closer to God where God's timing and unfolding of his plan occur. Jesus gives us many graces and blessings if we but ask and have faith; he will answer us. While praying one morning, I heard in my mind, "Cathy, will you carry my cross? Do you love me?" When I answered, "I would, but I didn't know what to do," I was told, "It will be revealed to you." I had the realization that I had been prepared, called, and needed to obey God's will to carry his cross. Through clinging to my faith and prayer, I would choose to embrace his calling to carry the cross. I would realize that though grief and happiness come and go, joy is always there if we realize that the love of Jesus dying on the cross is only thing we need. You too can choose to pick up the cross and follow him to eternal life.

Lean Times - Leaning Times Rayol John Augustus Ph.D., 2019-05-14 It is God's will for us to be prosperous Everyone has financial fears and some of us have faith Faith and fear cannot reside in the same body God guarantees our prosperity and says in Philippians 4:19 God will meet all your needs according to His glorious riches in Christ Jesus Yes he will do his part as long as we do ours by following God's laws of prosperity from faith to stewardship Many of us make financial decisions based on fear of the future instead of trusting that God will provide for them Although we are challenged daily with doubts and concerns for our financial future we must never doubt that God is in complete control The author has realized that learning God's biblical prosperity principles and practicing them actually makes us better Christians We are poor only because we do not ask God for our prosperity and we do not ask for it according to his way Gratitude and prayer are inseparable as well as our self talk and prayer As children of God we have been promised his blessings All we have to do is ask for them repeatedly for they are ours
