Zami: a New Spelling of My Name Audre Lorde,1990 "New" Exoticisms ,2022-04-19 All civilisations have both feared and been fascinated by what lies beyond their limits and have to a greater or lesser extent construed their others as exotics Given that even in its most consumerist fashion the adoption of the exotic goes back a long way what then if anything is new in contemporary versions of exoticism This volume attempts to offer some answers to this question The first of its three sections serves as an extended introduction to the concept and practice of exoticism considering the phenomenon from a number of theoretical and critical positions explicitly examining sometimes via significant examples the particular attributes of exoticism The second and third sections are more strictly text based relying on the analysis of specific instances of film in the former and literature in the latter in order to tease out some specific uses of the exotic whether ethnic gendered sexual or other This volume will be of interest to scholars and students working in the fields of representation cultural theory postcolonialism gender ethnicity sexuality cinema and literature Homemaking Catherine Wiley,Fiona R. Barnes,2021-11-18 First published in 1996 The present volume Homemaking Women Writers and the Politics and Poetics of Home enters the critical discourse on gender by way of two of its most pressing issues the politics of women s locations at the end of the twentieth century and the division of experience into public and private That the emergence of systematic feminist thought in the west coincided with the invention of private life should not surprise us Feminist thinkers from Mary Wollstonecrofton were quick to realize that the designation of the public and the private male and female was key to the subordination of women Conversations with

Audre Lorde Audre Lorde,2004 Audre Lorde 1934 1992 the author of eleven books of poetry described herself as a Black feminist lesbian poet warrior mother but she added that this phrase was inadequate in capturing her full identity The interviews in this collection portray the many additional sides of the Harlem born author and activist She was also a rebellious child of Caribbean parents a mastectomy patient a blue collar worker a college professor a student of African mythology an experimental autobiographer in her book titled Zami a critic of imperialism and a charismatic orator Despite her intense engagement with the major social movements of her time Lorde told interviewers that she was always an outsider a position of weakness and of strength Most of her schoolmates were white She married a white legal aid attorney and after their divorce she was the partner of a white psychologist for many years These intimate alliances with whites caused some African Americans of both genders to question the depth of her solidarity Lorde expressed distrust of some white feminists and charged that they lacked real understanding of African American struggles Writing proved to be her powerful weapon against injustice Painfully aware that differences could provoke prejudice and violence she promoted the bridging of barriers These interviews reveal the sense of displacement that made Lorde a champion of the outcast and the forgotten whether in New York Mississippi Berlin or Soweto A Desire for Women Suzanne Juhasz,2003 Annotation An exploration of women s desire for women Cooking, Eating, Thinking Deane W. Curtin,Lisa M. Heldke,1992-08-22 Philosophy has often been criticized for privileging the abstract this volume attempts to remedy that situation Focusing on one of the most concrete of human concerns food the editors argue for the existence of a philosophy of food The collection provides various approaches to the subject matter offering new readings of a number of texts religious philosophical anthropological culinary poetic and economic Included are readings ranging from Plato s Phaedo and Verses of Sen No Rikyu to Peter Singer s Becoming a Vegetarian and Jean Fran ois Revel s Culture and Cuisine This reader will have particular appeal for philosophers working in social theory feminist theory and environmental ethics and for those working on alternative approaches to such traditional subject areas as epistemology aesthetics and metaphysics Autobiographics Leigh Gilmore,1994 In the first comprehensive feminist critique of autobiography as a genre Leigh Gilmore incorporates writings that have not up to now been considered part of the autobiographical tradition Offering subtle and perceptive readings of a wide variety of texts from the confessions of medieval mystics to contemporary works by Chicana and lesbian writers she identifies an innovative practice of autobiographics which covers the entire spectrum of women s self representation Women as Catalysts in Zami: a New Spelling of My Name Andrea N. Neptune,2010 Hispanic-American Writers, New Edition Harold Bloom,2009 Presents a collection of critical essays analyzing modern Hispanic American writers including Junot Diaz Pat Mora and Rudolfo Anaya The Cambridge History of the American Novel Leonard Cassuto,2011-03-24 An authoritative and lively account of the development of the genre by leading experts in the field Notable American Women Susan Ware,2004 This latest volume brings the project up to date with entries on almost 500 women whose death dates fall between 1976 and 1999 You will find here stars of the golden ages of radio film dance and television scientists and scholars civil rights activists and religious leaders Native American craftspeople and world renowned artists For each subject the volume offers a biographical essay by a distinguished authority that integrates the woman s personal life with her professional achievements set in the context of larger historical developments Displacements Angelika Bammer,1994-12-22 Cultural displacement physical dislocation from one s native culture or the colonizing imposition of a foreign culture is one of the most formative experiences of our century These essays examine the impact of this experience on contemporary notions of cultural identity from the perspectives of anthropology history philosophy literature and
