Discourses of Postcolonialism in Contemporary British Children's Literature Blanka Grzegorzczuk, 2014-10-03 This book considers how contemporary British children's books engage with some of the major cultural debates of recent years and how they resonate with the current preoccupations and tastes of the white mainstream British reading public A central assumption of this volume is that Britain's imperial past continues to play a key role in its representations of race identity and history The insistent inclusion of questions relating to colonialism and power structures in recent children's novels exposes the complexities and contradictions surrounding the fictional treatment of race relations and ethnicity Postcolonial children's literature in Britain has been inherently ambivalent since its cautious beginnings it is both transgressive and authorizing both undercutting and excluding Grzegorzczuk considers the ways in which children's fictions have worked with and against particular ideologies of race The texts analyzed in this collection portray ethnic minorities as complex hybrid products of colonialism global migrations and the ideology of multiculturalism By examining the ideological content of these novels Grzegorzczuk demonstrates the centrality of the colonial past to contemporary British writing for the young

Cold Waters Markku Lehtimäki, Arja Rosenholm, Elena Trubina, Nina Tynkkynen, 2022-11-01 This book addresses the Arctic and the northern regions by exploring cold waters and northern seascapes It focuses on cultural discourses and artistic representations concerning the human experience and imagination of how the Arctic Ocean has been explored and used It aims to assess what is specific to the northern waters vis vis other sea and water areas in the world The contextual background is provided by the fundamental shift from terra based thinking towards aqua based thinking including the histories of the northern waters and the innovative ocean studies of the last decades This book will be of interest to readers in Arctic studies and Sea and Ocean studies including those with interests in literature history cultural and film studies anthropology and politics Environmental History and Cultural studies as well as in Russian studies The book has been assembled with a view towards upper level undergraduate and post graduate students and scholars and will also be appropriate for courses in the fields mentioned above The book will be of interest to specialists working in and with Arctic environmental issues There is a broad array of international academic networks environmental governance and cultural associations outside academia whose members may also find the book of interest

Feel-Bad Postfeminism Catherine McDermott,2022-06-02 In Feel Bad Postfeminism Catherine McDermott provides crucial insight into what growing up during empowerment postfeminism feels like and outlines the continuing postfeminist legacy of resilience in girlhood coming of age narratives McDermott s analysis of Gone Girl 2012 Girls 2012 2017 and Appropriate Behaviour 2012 illuminates a major cultural turn in which the pleasures of postfeminist empowerment curdle into a profound sense of rage and resentment By contrast close examination of The Hunger Games 2008 2010 Girlhood 2014 and Catch Me Daddy 2014 reveals that contemporary genres are increasingly constructing girls as uniquely capable of resiliently overcoming and adapting to unforgiving social conditions She develops an affective vocabulary to better understand contemporary modes of defiant transformative and relational resilience as well as a framework through which to expand on further modes that are specific to the genres they emerge within Overall the book suggests that exploration of the affective dimensions of girls and women s culture can offer new insights into how coming of age girlhood and femininity are culturally produced in the aftermath of postfeminism

Environmental Crisis in Young Adult Fiction A. Curry,2013-02-18 This pioneering study is the first full length treatment of feminism and the environment in children s literature Drawing on the history philosophy and ethics of ecofeminism it examines the ways in which post apocalyptic landscapes in young adult fiction reflect contemporary attitudes towards environmental crisis and human responsibility

Fiction in the Age of Risk Tony Hughes-d'Aeth,Golnar Nabizadeh,2020-04-02 When Ulrich Beck theorised a Risk Society Risikogesellschaft in 1986 the threat of global annihilation through nuclear war remained uppermost in the minds of his readership Three decades on questions about whether the sensation of risk has mutated or evolved in the intervening period and whether fiction exhibits evidence of such a change remain just as urgent While the immediate risk of the Cold War s mutually assured destruction through World War Three seems to have ebbed the paradox is that the social goal of safety and security seem to elude attainment Global financial collapse Islamic terrorism human authored climate change epidemic disease outbreaks refugee crises and the chronic erosion of the welfare state now preoccupy those in the developed world and provide the horizons for contemporary anxieties worldwide The contributions to this volume explore these themes locating their significance and representation in a diverse range of contemporary literature film and comics from China Australia South Africa United Kingdom Pakistan and the United States This book was originally published as a special issue of Textual Practice For Younger Readers; Braille and Talking Books, 2010 For Younger Readers, 2008 Bridges to Understanding Linda M.
