Stranger Child English Edition

Alan Hollinghurst

Stranger Child English Edition:

The Stranger's Child Alan Hollinghurst, 2011-10-11 The Stranger's Child is Alan Hollinghurst's masterpiece the book that cements his position as one of the finest novelists of our time In its scope intelligence and elegance Sixteen year old Daphne Sawle is reading Tennyson in a hammock in the garden of Two Acres the family home in suburban London Her brother George arrives to visit with his Cambridge friend Cecil Valance a handsome assured and sometimes outrageous young man with a burgeoning reputation as a poet After a tantalizing and dramatic weekend Cecil writes a long poem in Daphne's autograph album as a parting gift It is titled Two Acres and both Daphne and George whose feelings for Cecil also go well beyond mere friendship immediately see how important the poem is but none of them can foresee the complex and lasting effects it will have on all their lives When the next section of the novel begins everything has changed Daphne is married to Cecil's brother Dudley Valance George to a historian named Madeleine and Cecil is dead killed by a sniper in World War One A Cabinet officer and man of letters named Sebastian Stokes is compiling an edition of Cecil's poems He is especially curious about Cecil's personal and passionate letters and unpublished poems papers that seem to have gone missing The book leaps forward to a party to celebrate Daphne's seventieth birthday We meet Peter Rowe a music teacher and his boyfriend Paul Bryant a bank employee with a feeling for Cecil's poetry Soon Paul is taking up an idea that Peter abandoned to write a biography of Cecil Valance It means making some startling discoveries about a past that the Valance family would prefer to keep in sepia and shadows The Stranger's Child is that rare thing a historical novel whose characters in their passions and betrayals constantly surprise the reader and will surely be read for generations to come Childhood Alice Meynell, 1913

The Fun Stuff James Wood, 2012-10-30 Following The Broken Estate The Irresponsible Self and How Fiction Works books that established James Wood as the leading critic of his generation The Fun Stuff confirms Wood's preeminence not only as a discerning judge but also as an appreciator of the contemporary novel In twenty three passionate sparkling dispatches that range over such crucial writers as Thomas Hardy Leon Tolstoy Edmund Wilson and Mikhail Lermontov Wood offers a panoramic look at the modern novel He effortlessly connects his encyclopedic passionate understanding of the literary canon with an equally in depth analysis of the most important authors writing today including Cormac McCarthy Lydia Davis Aleksandar Hemon and Michel Houellebecq Included in The Fun Stuff are the title essay on Keith Moon and the lost joys of drumming which was a finalist for last year's National Magazine Awards as well as Wood's essay on George Orwell which Christopher Hitchens selected for the Best American Essays 2010 The Fun Stuff is indispensable reading for anyone who cares about contemporary literature The Monthly Repertory of English Literature, 1809 The Monthly Repertory of English Literature, ... Or an Impartial Criticism of All the Books Relative to Literature, Arts, Sciences Etc. Forming a Valuable Selection from the ... English Reviews and Magazines. Galignani's Magazine and Paris Monthly Review, (etc.) Paris 1823-25, 1809 The English Catalogue of Books Published from January, 1835, to January, 1863, 1864

Academy, with which are Incorporated Literature and the English Review, 1876 London, Queer Spaces and Historiography in the Works of Sarah Waters and Alan Hollinghurst Júlia Braga Neves, 2022-10-07 Queer spaces are crucial for the construction of LGBTQ communities as they constitute places where queer subjects can create political social and affective alliances Júlia Braga Neves shows how these spaces are pivotal for the representation of queer history in the fictional works by the British authors Sarah Waters and Alan Hollinghurst whose characters and plots are articulated through and within London's sexual geographies Considering the intersection between gender sexuality and class this study engages with spatial queer feminist and Marxist theories as a means to reflect on London queer historiography and the relationship between subject and urban space Reports Great Britain. Royal Commission on Historical Manuscripts, 1916 Parliamentary Papers Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons, 1916 Report Commonwealth Shipping Committee, 1915 The Athenaeum, 1839 A Reader's Guide to the Narrative and Lyric Poetry of Thomas Lovell Beddoes Rodney Edgecombe, 2015-10-05 Beddoes poses a peculiar problem for critics and scholars who wish to redress the marginal position that he occupies in the Romantic canon a problem seemingly unique to him and created in part by his misconception of his own strengths as a writer An extremely good poet who had things turned out differently might have functioned as a missing link between Keats and Tennyson he fatally divided his attention between verse and medicine a discipline that by his own admission made in the poem composed for Zo King served to wither his creative gift This fission of energy was bad enough but more damaging still was his misconception of metier for whatever mental resources remained to Beddoes after gruelling days in the classroom he invested in writing an unstageable drama instead of in his primary gift for lyric verse Whereas the Beddoes revival that has been gathering momentum in recent years has centred on Death's Jest Book the play onto which the poet directed some might say misdirected so much of his creative energy this study focuses wholly on his lyric and narrative verse much of which has received short critical shrift It follows the sequence of poems set out in the Donner edition and focuses on their verbal richness and inventiveness as they unspool upon the page Sex and Sensibility in the Novels of Alan Hollinghurst Mark Mathuray, 2017-05-26 Winner of the British Association for Contemporary Literary Studies BACLS 2017 Edited Collection Prize This book is a challenging and engaging collection of original essays on the novels of Alan Hollinghurst Britain's foremost gay writer and the English novel's master stylist The essays engage the precarious and shifting relationship between sex and literary sensibility in his novels and thus also attempt to establish the parameters of a new critical discourse for future research on Hollinghurst's novel queer theory and the contemporary literary representations of masculinity and sexuality By coupling the consideration of Hollinghurst's aesthetics his sensuously evocative style to an interrogation of the social political and sexual currents in his texts the contributors of this collection provide distinctive interpretations of Hollinghurst's novels from Hollinghurst's uncovering of a gay artistic heritage to his re-signification of earlier English literary styles from his engagement with the Symbolist fin de siècle to his critique of aestheticism etc whilst paying close attention to the formally innovative qualities of his texts

Adoption of Non-White Children Lois Raynor, 2021-11-07 Can adoptive homes be found for non white children Will the children and their new families be happy together though of different race Will they feel like a family Originally published in 1970 this book is an account of a four year project in which International Social Service of Great Britain joined with Bedford College London University to provide a first class adoption service for babies born in Britain of diverse racial origins and to study the outcome of the adoptions In addition a survey sought to determine the number of these children needing adoption homes and a nationwide Adoption Resource Exchange was established to co ordinate the efforts of the numerous agencies seeking parents for them The author examines the project s experience of interracial adoption and relates it to all good adoption practice This title was a welcome addition to the literature on adoption at the time It would have been indispensable to social work practitioners and to students and lecturers on social work courses but it was more than a handbook for those professionally involved The book is well informed and written with style and compassion many readers will be fascinated by the way in which children of Asian African West Indian and mixed parentage became integrated into English families in spite of racial differences It is a success story Today it can be read in its historical context This book is a re issue originally published in 1970 The language used is a reflection of its era and no offence is meant by the Publishers to any reader by this re publication

Symbolism 14 Rüdiger Ahrens, Klaus Stierstorfer, 2014-12-12 Symbolic representation is a crucial subject for and a potent heuristic instrument of diaspora studies This special focus inquires into the forms and functions of symbols of diaspora both in aesthetic practice and in critical discourse analyzing and theorizing symbols from Shakespeare to Bollywood as well as in critical writings of theorists of diaspora What kinds of symbols and symbolic practices contributors ask are germane to the representation both emic and etic of diasporics and diasporas How are specific symbols and symbolic practices analyzed across the academic fields contributing to diaspora studies Which symbols and symbolic practices inform the academic study of diasporas sometimes unconsciously or without being remarked on To study these phenomena is to engage in a dialogue that aims at refining the theoretical and methodological vocabulary and practice of truly transdisciplinary diaspora studies while attending to the imperative of specificity that inheres in this emerging field The volume collects a range of analyses from social anthropology history and ethnography to literary and film studies all combining readings of individual symbolic practices with meta theoretical reflections

The Country House Revisited Tereza Topolovská , 2017-08-01 This monograph provides an insight into English country house fiction by twentieth and twenty first century authors with a focus on the works of E M Forster Evelyn Waugh Iris Murdoch Alan Hollinghurst and Sarah Waters The country house is explored within the wider social and cultural contexts of the period including contemporary architectural development The variety of literary depictions of the country house reflects the physical diversification of buildings which can be classified as such from smaller variants to formerly grand residences on the brink of physical collapse Within the scope of contemporary fiction architecture and poetics of space the country house given its uniquely integrating and exceptionally evocative qualities accentuates different conceptions of dwelling Consequently literary portrayals of the country house can be seen as both prefiguring and reflecting the contemporary practice of living Desire and Time in Modern English Fiction: 1919-2017 Richard Dellamora, 2020-08-04 Beginning with Somerset Maugham's innovative sexually dissident South Seas novel and tales and Alfred Hitchcock's gay inflected revisiting of the Jack the Ripper sensation in silent film this book considers the continuing presence of the past in future oriented work of the 1930s and the Second World War by Sylvia Townsend Warner Virginia Woolf George Orwell and the playwright and novelist Patrick Hamilton The final three chapters carry the discussion to the present in analyses of works by lesbian postcolonial and gay authors such as Sarah Waters Amitav Ghosh and Alan Hollinghurst Focusing on questions about temporality and changes in gender and sexuality especially gay and lesbian straight and queer following the rejection of the Victorian patriarchal marriage model this study examines the continuing influence of late Victorian Aestheticist and Decadent culture in Modernist writing and its permutations in England

Empire Families Elizabeth Buettner, 2004-07 What was life like for the British men women and children who lived in late imperial India while serving the Raj Empire Families treats the Raj as a family affair and examines how and why many remained linked with India over several generations Due to the fact that India was never meant for permanent European settlement many families developed deep rooted ties with India while never formally emigrating Their lives were dominated by long periods of residence abroad punctuated by repeated travels between Britain and India childhood overseas followed by separation from parents and education in Britain adult returns to India through careers or marriage furloughs and ultimately retirement in Britain As a result many Britons neither felt themselves to be rooted in India nor felt completely at home when back in Britain Their permanent impermanence led to the creation of distinct social realities and cultural identities Empire Families sets out to recreate this society by looking at a series of families their lives in India and their travels back to Britain Focusing for the first time on the experiences of parents and children alike and including the Beveridge Butler Orwell and Kipling families Elizabeth Buettner uncovers the meanings of growing up in the Raj and an itinerant imperial lifestyle
