

Student Council

Do you have great ideas to promote school spirit? Are you interested in helping others in our community and our world? If so, you are perfect for Student Council!

Student Council will meet once or twice a month on Tuesdays in room 4 from 12:00 - 1:00 to plan special spirit days, coordinate community projects and decide how we can help make our school a better place to learn and live.

Last year this group was made up of respectful, responsible and helpful Vincent Stashney Academy students. We are looking for students who will continue to positively model our school beliefs as this year's student council representatives.

To run for a Student Council office students must be and remain in good standing both behaviorally and academically in their classrooms (can lose position if problems arise), be willing to commit to a year in their student council role, not be involved in any other school activity which takes away from their academic classroom minutes.

Veterinary Medicine Pamela Hunter, 2016-12-05 Veterinary medicine has long been recognized as one of the more neglected areas of medical history. One of the main stumbling blocks to research is the lack of comprehensive information regarding the survival and availability of primary source material. Veterinary Medicine: A Guide to Historical Sources redresses these issues for the first time, offering researchers an unparalleled tool with which to approach the subject. The book opens with a brief history of veterinary medicine and the veterinary profession from the fourteenth to the beginning of the twenty-first centuries, identifying the key dates and events that shaped their development. There then follows a chapter on the nature and uses of the records covered by the book, outlining the types of records found, the type of information they contain, and their likely uses by different types of researcher. A brief user's guide then explains how to use the book. After these preliminary sections comes the main body of the book, the lists of records. It is here that the various practices and institutions covered by the book are listed together with the types of records they hold, the dates they cover, and where they are kept. A short biographical history is also included with each entry where appropriate. Taken as a whole, this volume will prove to be an invaluable aid for any scholar researching the history of veterinary medicine in Britain.

Proceedings of the Annual Meeting National Association of Women Deans and Counselors, 1928 Here to Stay Gail Burrell Gerry, 2025-03-14 Reflecting on the legacy of the first class of undergraduate women at UVA, the campaign to secure unfettered access to higher education for women took decades of activism and advocacy, and mainstream skepticism over the viability of coeducation persisted until shockingly recently. Many august institutions dragged their feet until the passage of Title IX codified equal access to higher education. The University of Virginia was the last public university in the United States to admit women; the first class of female undergraduates at Jefferson's University received their diplomas only in 1974. Written by a member of that historic class and rich with vivid details and anecdotes, Here to Stay describes the challenges they faced and the trail they blazed at a university that proudly advertised itself as a school for Virginia gentlemen. Drawing on a wide array of sources, Gail Burrell Gerry documents how UVA prepared for the women's arrival and explores what their status as trailblazers meant at the time, what it has meant to them since, and their legacy at UVA today. In addition to chronicling Gerry's experiences as part of the class of 74 Here to Stay is a compelling account of all the 367 women who found themselves on the front lines of landmark institutional and social change and the thousands more like them throughout the country relating how they made their mark on a bastion of tradition and entrenched male privilege Sessional Papers Ontario.
