South African Defence Force 2016application:

South Africa's Post-Apartheid Military Lindy Heineken, 2020-01-01 This timely book examines how the South African National Defence Force has adapted to the country's new security political and social environment since 1994. In South Africa's changed political state, how has civilian control of the military been implemented and what does this mean for defence in a democracy? This book presents an overview of the security environment, how the mission focus of the military has changed and the implications for force procurement, force preparation, force employment and force sustainability. The author addresses other issues such as the effect of integrating former revolutionary soldiers into a professional armed force, the effect of affirmative action on meritocracy, recruitment and retention, military veterans looking at the difficulties they face in reintegrating back into society and finding gainful employment, gender equality and mainstreaming the rise of military unions and why a confrontational instead of a more corporatist approach to labour relations has emerged. HIV/AIDS and the consequences this holds for the military in terms of its operational effectiveness. In closing, the author highlights key events that have caused the SANDF to become lost in transition and transformation, spelling out some lessons learned. The conclusions she draws are pertinent for the future of defence security and civil-military relations of countries around the world.

Papers, 1924 SADC Gender Protocol 2017 Barometer Morna, Colleen Lowe, Makamure, Lucia, 2017-10-04 The SADC Protocol on Gender and Development is the only sub-regional instrument in the world that brings together global and continental commitments to gender equality in one instrument used to enhance accountability. The Southern African Gender Protocol Alliance is a network of country and regional NGOs that campaigned for the Protocol, its updating, implementation and tracking. Originally aligned to the Millennium Development Goals that expired in 2015, SADC Gender Ministers updated the Protocol and aligned it to the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), Beijing Plus Twenty and the Africa Agenda 2063 in 2016. In July 2017, the Ministers adopted a Monitoring, Evaluation and Reporting Framework (MERF) that will be the basis of future reporting. Now in its ninth edition, the 2017 Barometer is the first assessment of the Post 2015 SADC Gender Protocol. Moving with the times, the Alliance has expanded the two key main yardsticks in the Barometer: the SADC Gender and Development Index (SGDI) and the Citizen Score Card (CSC). The Barometer incorporates many MERF and SDG indicators as well as its own unique measures of voice, choice and control. The Barometer also introduces the Gender Responsive Assessment of Constitutions and Laws conducted by Alliance experts and networks around the region. A wealth of data, insights and analysis awaits all readers of the Barometer that will also be made available online and in multi-media formats. The SADC we want is one in which citizens engage, step it up for gender equality and make sure we achieve Planet 50/50 by 2030.

Militarised Responses to Transnational Organised Crime Tuesday Reitano, Sasha Jespersen, Lucia Bird Ruiz-Benitez de Lugo, 2017-10-06 This edited volume examines the use of militarised responses to different forms of criminal activity, discussing the outcomes and unintended consequences. Politicians and policymakers frequently use militarised responses to look tough on crime The deployment of armies navies military assets and militarised approaches can send a powerful message but have produced mixed results While they generate the perception that governments are actively engaged on issues of concern to the public and in some cases have resulted in notable successes on the downside they have frequently also increased the loss of life exacerbated the humanitarian consequences of a particular crime and entrenched divides between security and state institutions and the criminal proponents narrowing the possibilities for future negotiated solutions By focusing on four different areas of criminality wildlife crime piracy migration and drug trafficking the book allows context and evidence based conclusions to be drawn on the strategic value and commonality of responses and their outcomes

African Military Geoscience Jacques Bezuidenhout,Hennie Smit,2018-12-18 This eight chapter volume African Military Geosciences Military History and the Physical Environment is a tour de force covering nearly 500 years of African military geosciences It is a truly global book that reveals keen insights into regional national and international military forces activities centered in Africa and how the understanding of geosciences plays important roles It is written for the specialist but also attractive to the general military buff well referenced and illustrated with figures from primary sources historical catalogues and compendia The publication further explores the age of sail harbour defenses the trafficability of desert environments and marshes as well as climate controls on sailing or land battles There is even insight into an elite artillery unit staffed by women during Second World War essentially covering the whole gamut Ultimately the reader explores a nearly 500 year journey around the African continent and beyond

Guns & Roses: Comparative Civil-Military Relations in the Changing Security Environment Steven Ratuva,Radomir Compel,Sergio Aguilar,2019-01-04 This edited volume provides a critical and comparative discussion of the changing synergy between the military and society in the dramatically transforming global security climate drawing on examples from the Asian Pacific African Middle Eastern European and South American regions The book is interdisciplinary and covers wide ranging issues relating to civil military relations democratization regional security ethnicity peace building and peace keeping civilian oversight internal repression gender regime change and civil society

Silencing the Guns in Africa Antonio Garcia,Jacob Udo-Udo Jacob,2025-03-14 The scholarship of this book is drawn from local and international experts by framing critically a number of discourses on matters of security conflict violence and peace on the African continent It is indeed a breath of fresh air to the scientific community largely because it contributes to the on going debates on security issues Dr Ntsikelelo Benjamin Breakfast Director of the Center for Security Peace and Conflict Resolution at Nelson Mandela University This book makes a deep contribution to scholarly literature on conflict studies peacekeeping and peacebuilding in Africa Written largely from the perspective of the applied social sciences it is empirically rich and offers refreshing insights into social behaviour in military contexts This is a timely contribution because current public discourse in South Africa is centred on the gains and missed opportunities of thirty years of democracy and new lenses are welcome Many of the chapters reflect South African experiences This is to be welcomed as it demonstrates that scholars and practitioners from the country are reflecting on the complexities of South African experiences of defence and security matters in contemporary times Dr Sandy Africa Director of Research at Mapungubwe Institute for Strategic Reflection MISTRA This volume brings together the voices of scholars and practitioners a diverse group of writers who are passionate about and committed to creating a safer more prosperous and peaceful Africa Each with their own specialism this work combines many different world views and approaches Conflict in Africa is an impossibly broad topic to cover in a single edited publication and so we focus on a select number of case studies expositions and themes

New Directions in African Military History Timothy J. Stapleton, 2025-06-02 New Directions in African Military History takes a thematic approach to the history of war and military structures in Africa and highlights the under researched areas African Military History represents a relatively new and fast growing sub field bridging the previously wide gap between the well established genres of African History and Military History Based on a synthesis of existing literature and aimed at a wide readership this book adopts a broad temporal range and uses select examples to highlight a series of points to cover the pre colonial to post colonial eras and offer examples from various parts of the continent This volume evaluates controversial academic debates examining evidence research methods approaches and changing historiographical contexts as well as pointing to potential new areas of research It comprises seven thematic chapters on ways of war weapons technology navies air power battles women combatants and genocide in African history This volume will be of value to students and scholars alike interested in Modern History Military History and African History

Military Strategy in an Era of Unipolar Demise Håkan Edström, Jacob Westberg, 2024-11-15 This book presents a systematic comparison of the military strategies pursued by five great powers eight major middle powers and eight middle powers during the early twenty first century In addition to mapping the strategic priorities of these states the study develops and applies a theoretical framework to explain differences and similarities in their strategic priorities Moreover the work evaluates how the stability of the present international system and the US led liberal international order LIO is affected by the strategies pursued by the US and other leading states The book aims to contribute to previous research in three ways First it intervenes in the debate on the stability of the unipolar system and the US led international order by offering a theoretical framework and an empirical approach for exploring and explaining the strategic priorities and defence strategies of different categories of states Second it aims to fill a void in research on strategy the lack of a comparative and systematic approach to contemporary strategy that facilitates and guides systematic comparisons and analyses of the alignment and military strategies pursued by both major powers and less powerful states Third it provides an empirical contribution to the debate on the stability of the unipolar system and the US led international order by presenting a documentation of the strategic priorities of 21 states based on primary sources consisting of official documents such as national security and defence strategies and defence bills In the conclusion the authors summarise the empirical findings on the system level the regional level and the unit level and present their overarching conclusions for the whole project This book will be of much interest to students of military and strategic studies defence studies foreign policy and international relations in general China's Relations with Africa Joshua Eisenman, David H. General Jan Smuts And his First World War in Africa (1914-19-17) David Brock Katz, 2022-08-24 An engaging well written and meticulously researched military biography Tim Stapleton Professor Department of History University of Calgary Jan Smuts grabbed the opportunity to realise his ambition of a Greater South Africa when the First World War ushered in a final scramble for Africa He set his sights firmly northward upon the German colonies of South West Africa and East Africa Smuts's abilities as a general have been much denigrated by his contemporaries and later historians but he was no armchair soldier He first learned his soldier's craft under General Koos de la Rey and General Louis Botha during the South African War 1899

1902 He emerged from that conflict immersed in Boer manoeuvre doctrine After forming the Union Defence Force in 1912 Smuts played an integral part in the German South West African campaign in 1915 Placed in command of the Allied forces in East Africa in 1916 he led a mixed bag of South Africans and imperial troops against the legendary Paul von Lettow Vorbeck and his Schutztruppen His penchant for manoeuvre warfare and mounted infantry freed most of the vast German territory from Lettow Vorbeck s grip General Jan Smuts and his First World War in Africa provides a long overdue reassessment of Smuts s generalship and his role in furthering the strategic aims of South Africa and the British Empire during this era
