South African Military Skills Development Application Form 2015 16:

South Africa's Post-Apartheid Military Lindy Heineken, 2020-01-01 This timely book examines how the South African National Defence Force has adapted to the country's new security political and social environment since 1994 In South Africa's changed political state how has civilian control of the military been implemented and what does this mean for defence in a democracy This book presents an overview of the security environment how the mission focus of the military has changed and the implications for force procurement force preparation force employment and force sustainability The author addresses other issues such as the effect of integrating former revolutionary soldiers into a professional armed force the effect of affirmative action on meritocracy recruitment and retention military veterans looking at the difficulties they face in reintegrating back into society and finding gainful employment gender equality and mainstreaming the rise of military unions and why a confrontational instead of a more corporatist approach to labour relations has emerged HIV AIDS and the consequences this holds for the military in terms of its operational effectiveness In closing the author highlights key events that have caused the SANDF to become lost in transition and transformation spelling out some lessons learned The conclusions she draws are pertinent for the future of defence security and civil military relations of countries around the world Annual Report South Africa. Department of Defence, 2016

Urban Daily Labour Markets in Gujarat, Western India Kanchan Bharati, Lancy Lobo, Dhananjay Kumar, 2023-07-07 This volume explores one of the most complex labour landscapes of India the urban daily labour market These markets form an important sector of the urban informal labour market and contribute significantly to the Indian economy This book presents an empirical comparative picture of daily labour markets in Gujarat Western India These markets consist mostly of intra state and interstate migrant workers who suffer from layered multiple marginalities based on markers of informality migrant status caste ethnicity gender and poor agency and often live in the peripheries of the cities without any rights and entitlements to their spaces and services This study based on an extensive survey of three cities in Gujarat contains descriptions and analyses of the places of migration and their causes as well as the working and living conditions of the workers along with their spending patterns on food health education and leisure It mirrors the work life and issues of these workers on the regional level while contributing to a better understanding for future policy interventions An in depth study the book will be of interest to students and researchers of labour economics labour studies urban planning social work sociology anthropology and demography It will also be useful to NGOs trade unions working with migrant workers civil servants in Labour department and other related departments city planners and policy makers Teaching About the Violent Past Line Kuppens, Justin Sheria Nfundiko, 2025-10-15 Education plays a vital role in fostering reconciliation and teaching peace in conflict affected societies In particular teaching about the violent past from multiple perspectives helps replace fear and hatred with mutual understanding While conflict history education has been explored across sub Saharan Africa and beyond curricular reforms often overlook teachers despite their key role in achieving success Building on insights from education sciences sociology political sciences memory studies and social psychology this book introduces a novel and interdisciplinary framework to analyse secondary school teachers engagement with conflict history education using both qualitative and quantitative methods It focuses on three distinct locations Kenya Cote d'Ivoire and the Democratic Republic of Congo that differ in the intensity of violence experienced and the time elapsed since conflict ended This practice oriented book aims at identifying teachers needs to feel confident and competent in driving reconciliation in their classrooms and provides actionable policy recommendations and teaching strategies to support them in this essential role UNESCO science report

UNESCO,2015-11-09 There are fewer grounds today than in the past to deplore a North South divide in research and innovation This is one of the key findings of the UNESCO Science Report towards 2030 A large number of countries are now incorporating science technology and innovation in their national development agenda in order to make their economies less reliant on raw materials and more rooted in knowledge Most research and development R D is taking place in high income countries but innovation of some kind is now occurring across the full spectrum of income levels according to the first survey of manufacturing companies in 65 countries conducted by the UNESCO Institute for Statistics and summarized in this report For many lower income countries sustainable development has become an integral part of their national development plans for the next 10-20 years Among higher income countries a firm commitment to sustainable development is often coupled with the desire to maintain competitiveness in global markets that are increasingly leaning towards green technologies The quest for clean energy and greater energy efficiency now figures among the research priorities of numerous countries Written by more than 50 experts who are each covering the country or region from which they hail the UNESCO Science Report towards 2030 provides more country level information than ever before The trends and developments in science technology and innovation policy and governance between 2009 and mid 2015 described here provide essential baseline information on the concerns and priorities of countries that could orient the implementation and drive the assessment of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development in the years to come The Handbook of Displacement Peter Adey,Janet C. Bowstead,Katherine Brickell,Vandana Desai,Mike Dolton,Alasdair Pinkerton,Ayesha Siddiqi,2020-12-11 This Handbook provides the knowledge and tools needed to understand how displacement is lived governed and mediated as an unfolding and grounded process bound up in spatial inequities of power and injustice The handbook ensures first that internal displacements and their everyday re occurrences are not overlooked second it questions who counts by including displaced people who are less obviously identifiable and a clearly circumscribed or categorised group third it stresses that while displacement suggests mobility there are also periods and spaces of enforced stillness that are not adequately reflected in the displacement literature and fourth it re evokes and explores the place in displacement by critically interrogating peoples right to place and the significance of placemaking unmaking and remaking in the contemporary world The 50 plus chapters are organised across seven themes designed to further develop interdisciplinary study of the technologies journeys traces governance more than human representation and resisting of displacement Each of these thematic sections begin with an intervention which spotlights actions to creatively and strategically intervene in displacement The interventions explore myriad meanings and manifestations of displacement and its contestation from the perspective of displaced people artists writers activists scholar activists and scholars involved in practice oriented research The Handbook will be an essential companion for academics students and practitioners committed to forging solidarity care and home in an era of displacement

Multidisciplinary Perspectives on Grit Llewellyn Ellardus van Zyl, Chantal Olckers, Leoni van der Vaart, 2021-02-16

This volume provides a multi disciplinary perspective on grit its measurement manifestation and development Specifically it provides a comprehensive and balanced response to critiques associated with the construct within the contemporary positive psychological literature These critiques revolve around the lack of consensus in the conceptualisation measurement and management of grit as well as consensus on its difference from other psychological constructs such as conscientiousness diligence or determination Therefore this volume thoroughly reappraises and consolidates the nature function measurement and implications of grit in order to effectively advance the science of achievement It looks at grit scales developed in various countries and evaluates the concept in various aspects of life from work performance to sports Written by a team of multi disciplinary experts in fields ranging from neuroscience sociology and education to human resource management and psychology this volume firmly positions grit within the discipline of positive psychology s nomological lexicon

Protest in South Africa Heidi Brooks, Rekgotsofetse Chikane, 2024-01-23 Popular protest has become a regular feature of post 1994 South Africa As a young democracy born out of resistance we may understand the contemporary manifestations of protest as extensions of this broader history However it is notably in the context of formal democratic institutions that popular protest has become an increasingly normalised mode of influencing policy demanding service delivery and forcing change Protest is constitutive of South Africa s democratic politics but also reflective of it Protest in South Africa Rejection reassertion reclamation explores the underpinnings of contemporary protest and both its short term causes and structural drivers Focusing on the surge of protest from the mid 2000s this edited volume provides an overview of the complexity of protest action the diversity of protest spaces and actors and responses to protest from both citizens and state The volume situates its analysis against the backdrop of the global wave of protest witnessed since the turn of the 21 century while examining protest in South Africa s local and historical contexts Contributors to the volume examine protests in relation to among other factors provision of infrastructure and services contestations around socio economic development issues of citizenship and demands for inclusive democratic governance Chapters also examine the role of women in protest action the policing of protest and the intersection of protest action with spaces of formal politics The volume also alerts us to the darker side of protest and the destruction and division it may foment It thus considers the prospects of South Africa s evolving sometimes violent protest terrain for social and state stability and democratic progress In the diversity of spaces sectors and communities of interests in which collective action has emerged Protest in South Africa Rejection reassertion reclamation shows how protest is underpinned by a rejection of the status quo a reassertion of interests and a reclaiming of the political and democratic space US Counterterrorism and the Human Rights of Foreigners Abroad Monika Heupel, Caiden Heaphy, Janina Heaphy, 2022-02-22 This book examines why the United States has introduced safeguards that are designed to prevent their counterterrorism policies from causing harm to non US citizens beyond US territory It investigates what made US policymakers take steps to put the gloves back on through five case studies on the emergence of such safeguards related to the right not to be tortured the right not to be arbitrarily detained the right to life in connection with targeted killing operations the right to seek asylum in connection with refugee resettlement and the right to privacy in connection with foreign mass surveillance The book exposes two mechanisms coercion and strategic learning which explain why the United States has introduced what the authors refer to as extraterritorial human rights safeguards thus demonstrating that the emerging norm that states have human rights obligations towards foreigners beyond their borders constrains policy choices This book will be of key interest to scholars and students of human rights counterterrorism US foreign policy human rights law and more broadly to political science and international relations The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license Quantitative History and Uncharted People Johan Fourie, 2023-08-10 One of the biggest challenges in the study of history is the unreliable nature of traditional archival sources which omit histories of marginalised groups This book makes the case that quantitative history offers a way to fill these gaps in the archive Showcasing 13 case studies from the South African past it applies quantitative sources tools and methods to social histories from below to uncover the experiences of unchartered peoples Examining the occupations of slaves victims of the Spanish flu health of schoolchildren and more it shows how quantitative tools can be particularly powerful in regions where historical records are preserved but questions of bias and prejudice pervade Applying methods such as GIS mapping network analysis and algorithmic matching techniques it explores histories of indigenous peoples women enslaved peoples and other groups marginalised in South African history Connecting quantitative sources and new forms of data interpretation with a narrative social history this book offers a fresh approach to quantitative methods and shows how they can be used to achieve a more complete picture of the past

Outclassed Joan C. Williams, 2025-05-20 An eye opening urgent call to mend the broken relationship between college and non college grads of all races that is driving politics to the far right in the US Is there a single change that could simultaneously protect democracy spur progress on climate change enact sane gun policies and improve our response to the next pandemic Yes changing the class dynamics driving American politics The far right manipulates class anger to undercut progressive goals and liberals often inadvertently play into their hands In Outclassed Joan C Williams explains how to reverse that process by bridging the diploma divide while maintaining core progressive values She offers college educated Americans insights into how their values reflect their lives and their lives reflect their privilege With illuminating stories from the Portuguese admiral who led that country s COVID response to the lawyer who led the ACLU s gay marriage response and more Williams demonstrates how working class values reflect working class lives Then she explains how the far right connects culturally with the working class deftly manipulating racism and masculine anxieties to deflect attention from the ways far right policies produce the economic conditions disadvantaging the working class Whether you are a concerned citizen committed to saving democracy or a politician or social justice warrior in need of messaging advice Outclassed offers concrete guidance on how liberals can forge a multi racial cross class coalition capable of delivering on progressive goals
