Post-conflict Reconstruction and Development in Africa Theo Neethling, Heidi Hudson, 2013-10-01 Some of the bloodiest conflicts occur on the African continent An Afrocentric perspective is therefore a suitable starting point for research into the possible strategies for post conflict peacebuilding The authors of this book consider the problems around the concept of post conflict and the blurring of military and civilian roles analysing the UN roles in the DRC and Sierra Leone as well as the African Union Mission in Burundi The main context of the book however is the South African Army's strategy for PCRD in Africa which was developed with the African Union's 2006 Post Conflict Reconstruction and Development Needs Assessment Guide in mind This book emanates from this plan It therefore also explores South Africa's policy imperatives to integrate development projects and peace missions involving the military as well as civilian organisations While this book is not intended as an instruction manual it hopes to ignite an understanding of the particular processes required to develop a sustainable and cohesive post conflict peacebuilding strategy within the African environment "Keep Your Head Down"

Norma Kriger, 2007 Recommendations Background The legal framework The Immigration Act violations and legal gaps resulting in human rights abuses Employment laws violations and legal gaps resulting in human rights abuses Conclusion Acknowledgements Confronting Past Human Rights Violations Chandra Lekha Sriram, 2004-08-12 This book examines what makes accountability for previous violations more or less possible for transitional regimes to achieve It closely examines the other vital goals of such regimes against which accountability is often balanced The options available are not simply prosecution or pardon as the most heated polemics of the debate over transitional justice suggest but a range of options from complete amnesty through truth commissions and lustration or purification to prosecutions The question then is not whether or not accountability can be achieved but what degree of accountability can be achieved by a given country The focus of the book is on the politics of transition what makes accountability more or less feasible and what strategies are deployed by regimes to achieve greater accountability or alternatively greater reform The result is a more nuanced understanding of the different conditions and possibilities that countries face and the lesson that there is no one size fits all prescription that can be handed to transitional regimes The Quest for Quality of Work Life Rigard Steenkamp, Samuel

Wagan Watson, A. J. Van Schoor, 2002 This work includes a thorough treatment of the roles of our organizational culture and leadership that provide the seedbed for quality work life The values encapsulated in the organizational value structure will determine the way operations are conducted The operational conditions deal with the creation of a safe healthy and motivating environment Management is fast becoming of vital importance in all industries but particularly in mining and manufacturing Quality of work life is not the sole responsibility of an organization and its management structures The individual must accept part of the responsibility This book provides extensive guidance on issues such as preparation to deal with change through the development of transformational intelligence self management skills and personal financial management This book is the among the first in South Africa and one of few in the world to provide a holistic overview of the creation development and maintenance of quality of work life QWLO in organizations Gender, Conflict, and Peacekeeping

Dyan Mazurana, Angela Raven-Roberts, Jane Parpart, 2005-02-17 Peacekeeping has become a major international undertaking throughout the world from Africa to the Americas from Europe to Southeast Asia Yet until now there has been no systematic analysis of the key role of gender in post cold war conflicts and of post conflict peacekeeping efforts This groundbreaking volume explores how gender has become a central factor in shaping current thinking about the causes and consequences of armed conflict complex emergencies and reconstruction Drawing on expertise ranging from the highest levels of international policymaking down to the daily struggle to implement peacekeeping operations this work represents the full span of knowledge and experience about international intervention in local crises Presenting a rich array of examples from Angola Bosnia Herzegovina East Timor El Salvador the former Yugoslavia Guatemala Haiti Kosovo Liberia Mozambique
